A NEW AGE FOR MAN

"Human history," said H. G. Wells, "becomes ever more and more a race between education and catastrophe." Time is running out. Modern technology has transformed our world beyond recognition. It has given man the power to soar to new heights of human freedom or plunge himself to yet unfathomed depths of tyranny and oppression. How will man respond to the challenge of life in the electronic age? Our generation will answer this question, one way or another. Our strategy must be carefully mapped. We cannot go out to face new enemies with old weapons. Creative adaption and response to new environments are essential. We need a critical re-examination of our most fundamental values in the harsh light of modern technology; most importantly, we need a re-examination of education, which should be a meaningful experience and not a neatly wrapped package. "Our choice," said H. G. Wells, "is simple. It is the Universe or nothing." The decision is ours.

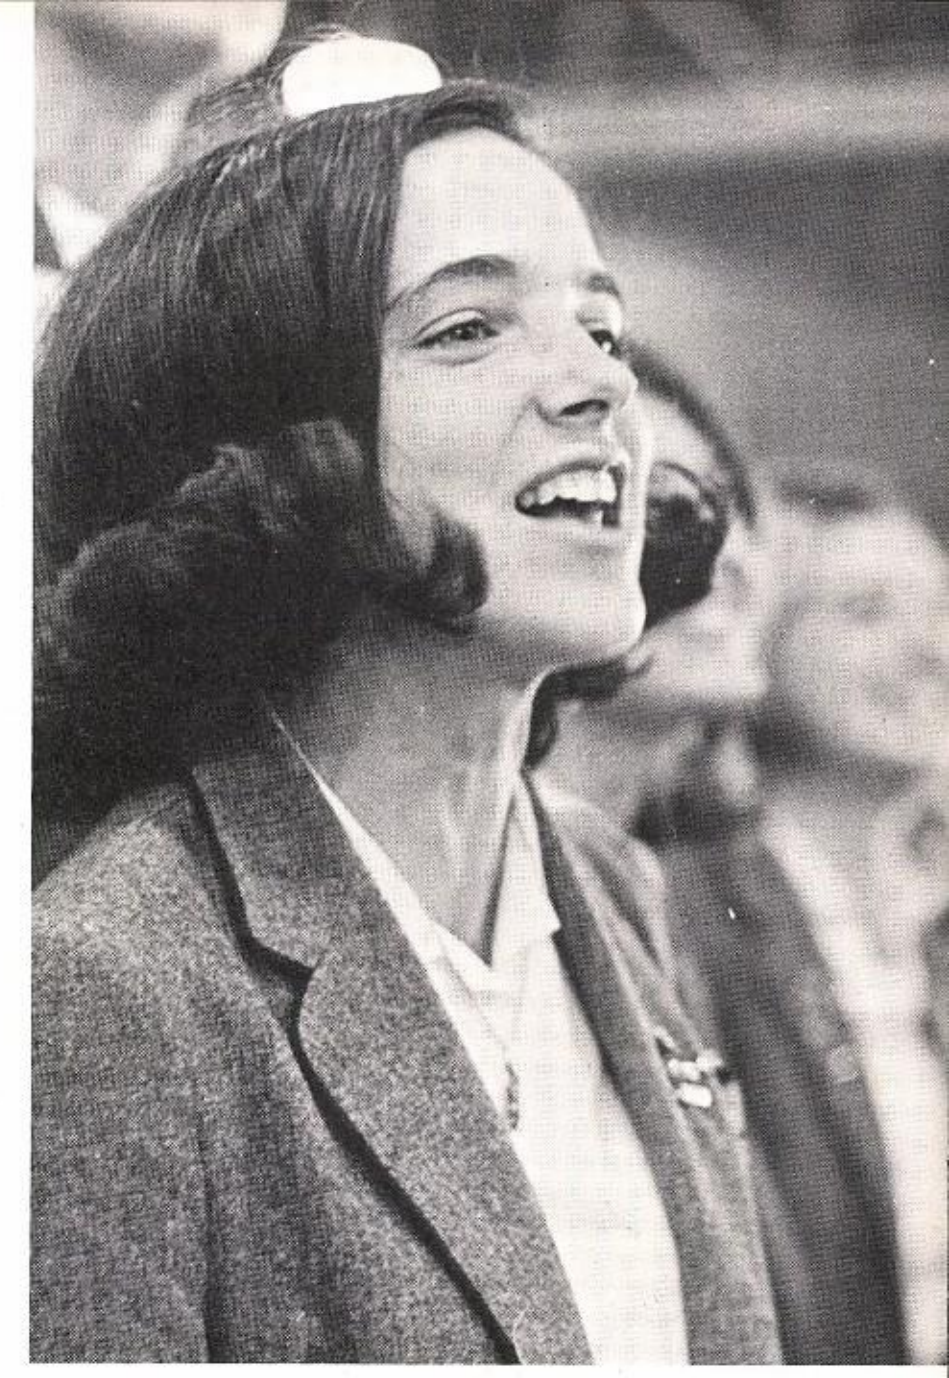
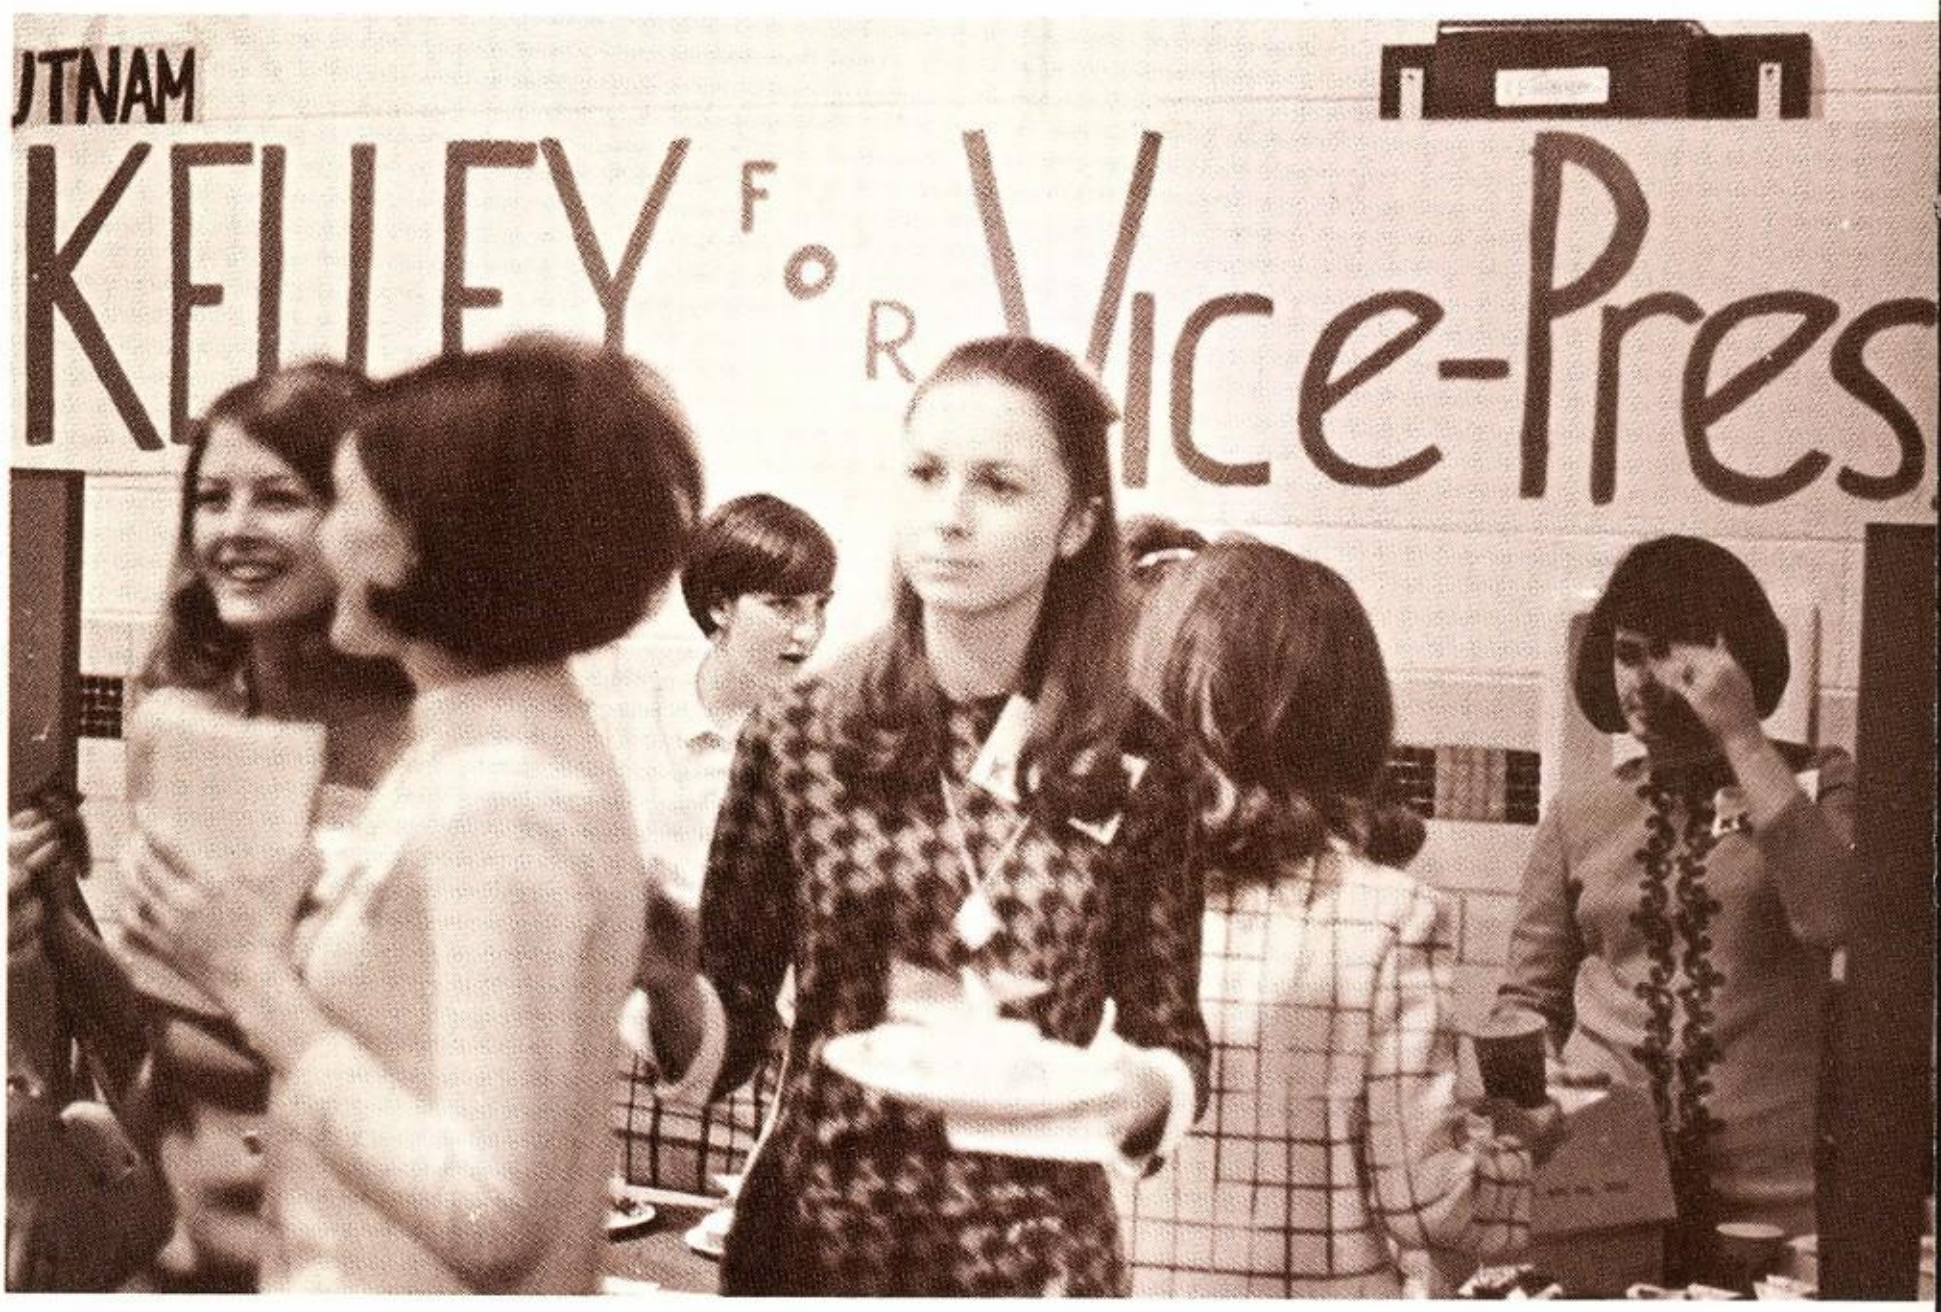
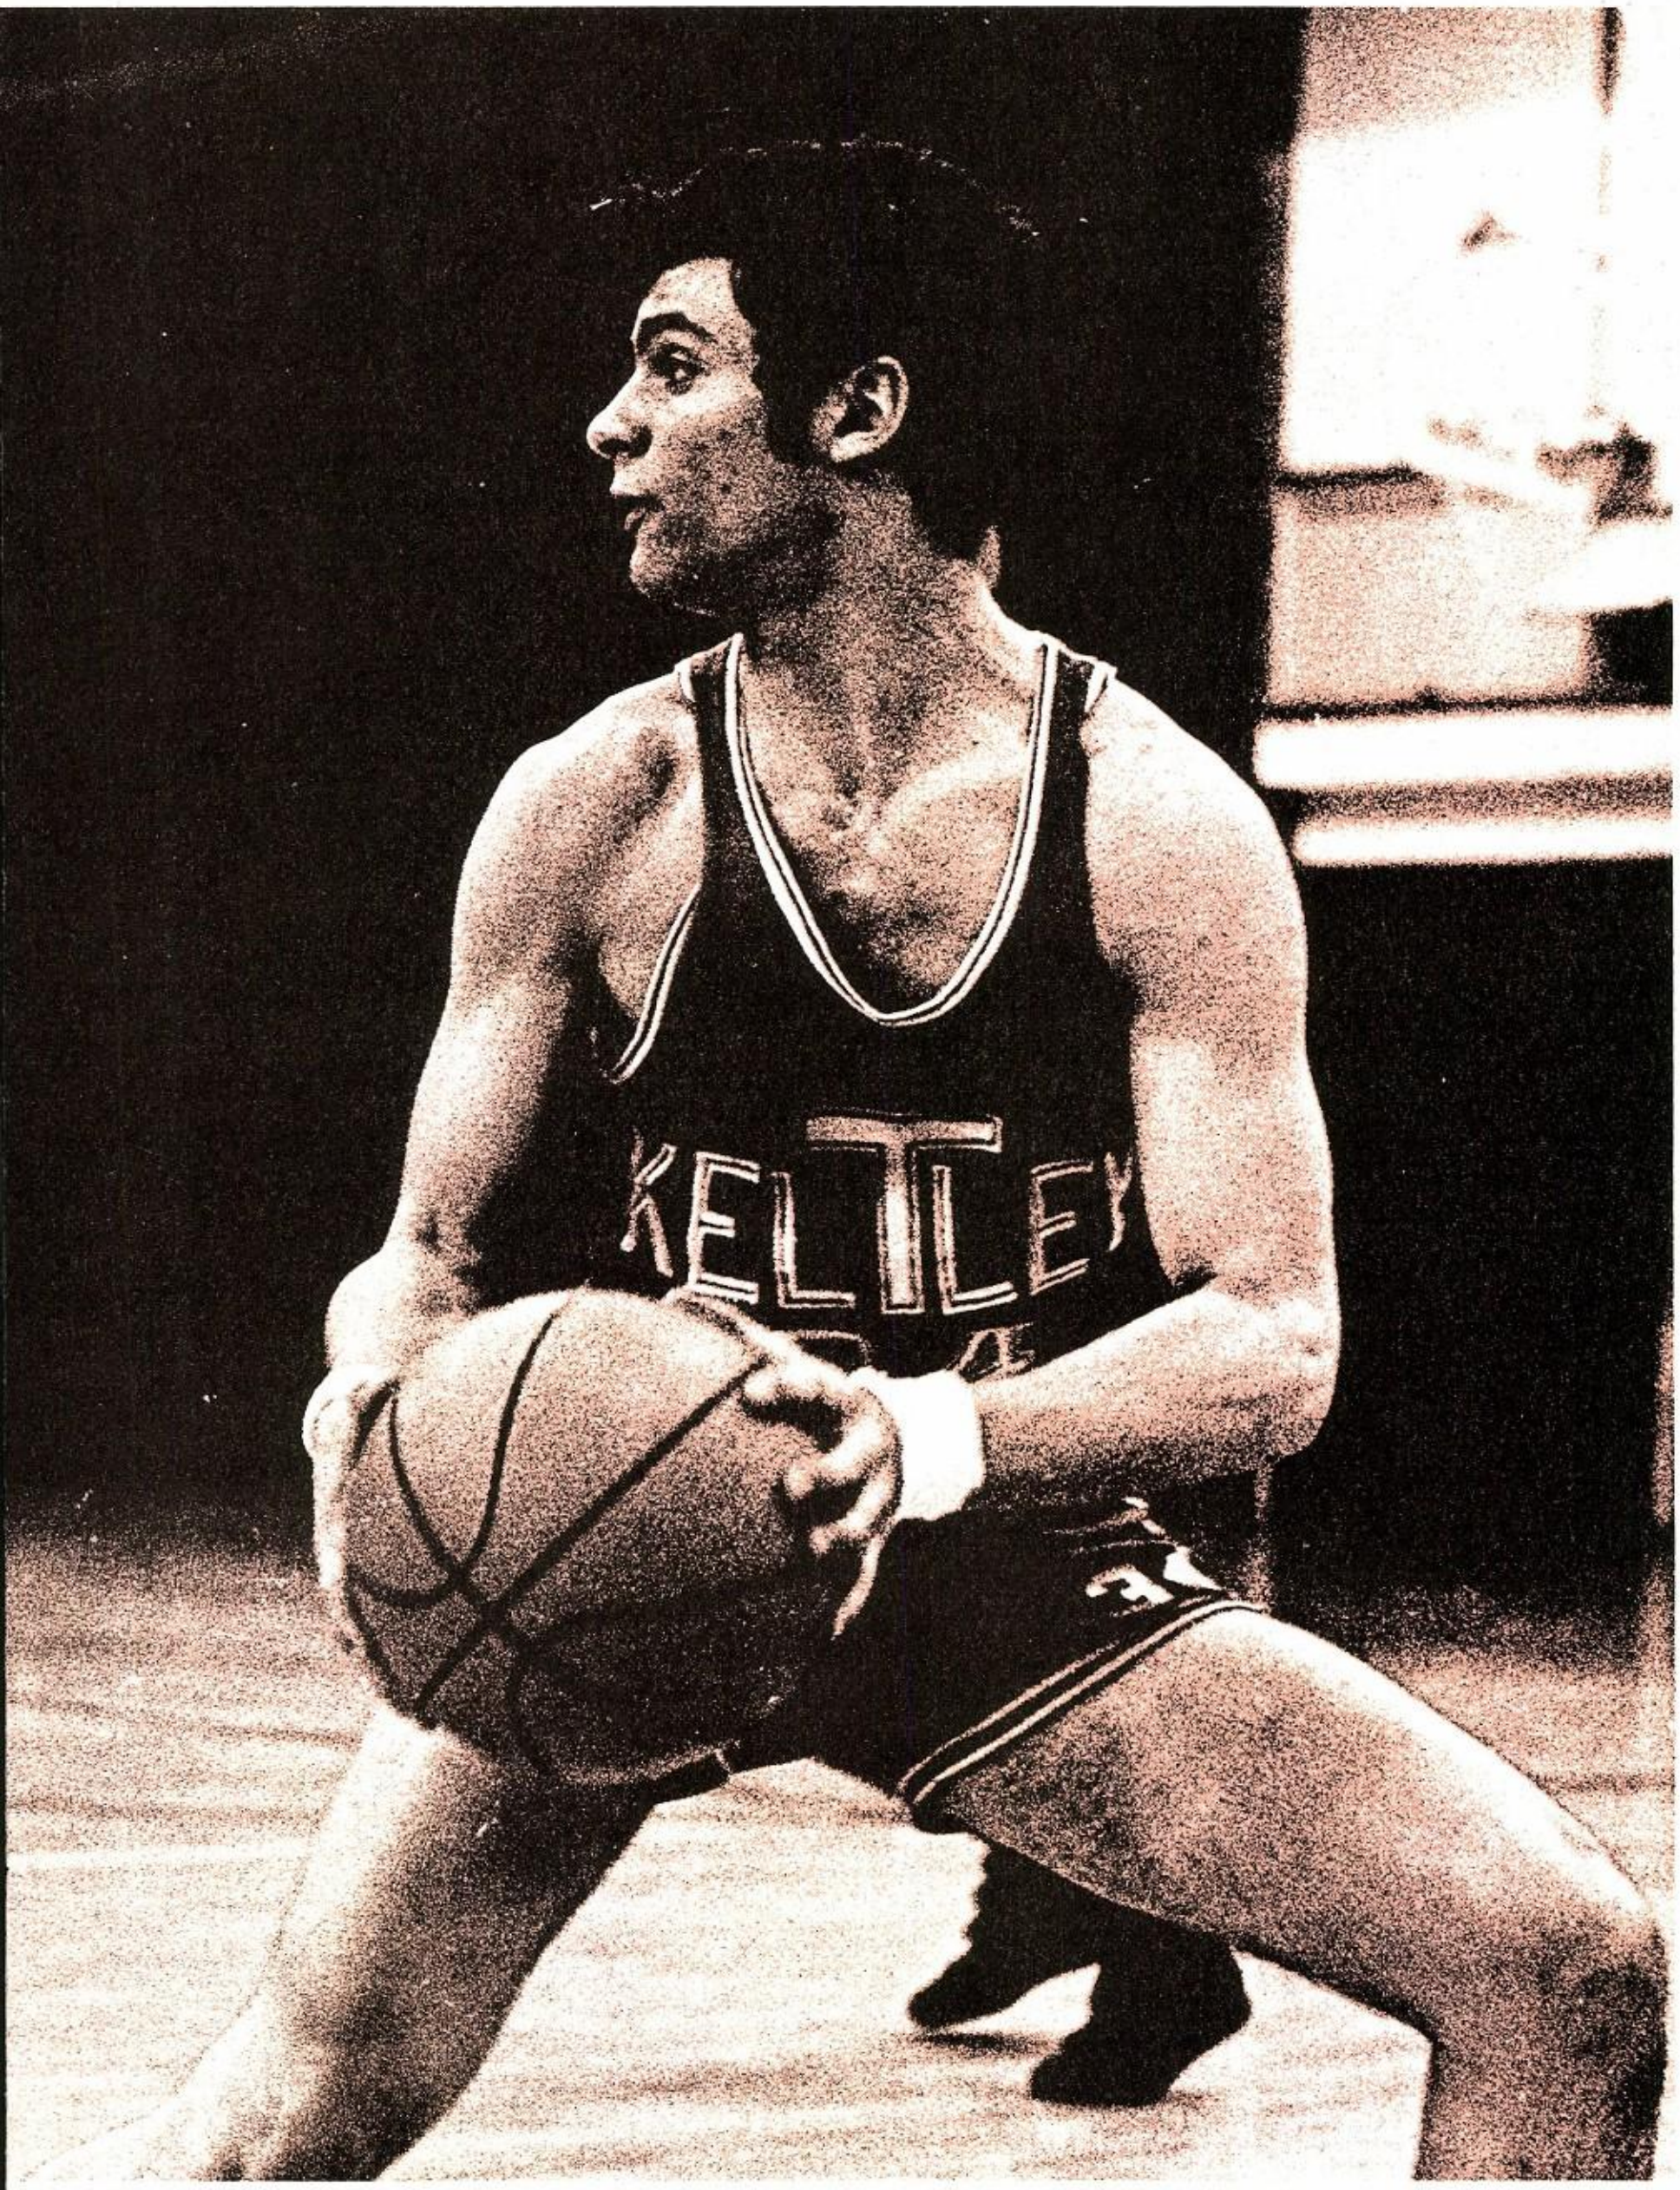
Even experts of the New Age are well-versed on a variety of subjects and are comfortable in any circle. Kelley tries to see that its students get a taste of almost every aspect of American Life. From participating in all-american sports to campaigning in state-wide student council elections, the students not only study about, but also take an active part in the world in which they live. An appreciation of the finer things is emphasized at Kelley. Along with scientific laboratory experiments, come musical, comedy, and dramatic productions by the student body, exposure to modern art, and the advantage of seeing other forms of entertainment performed live.

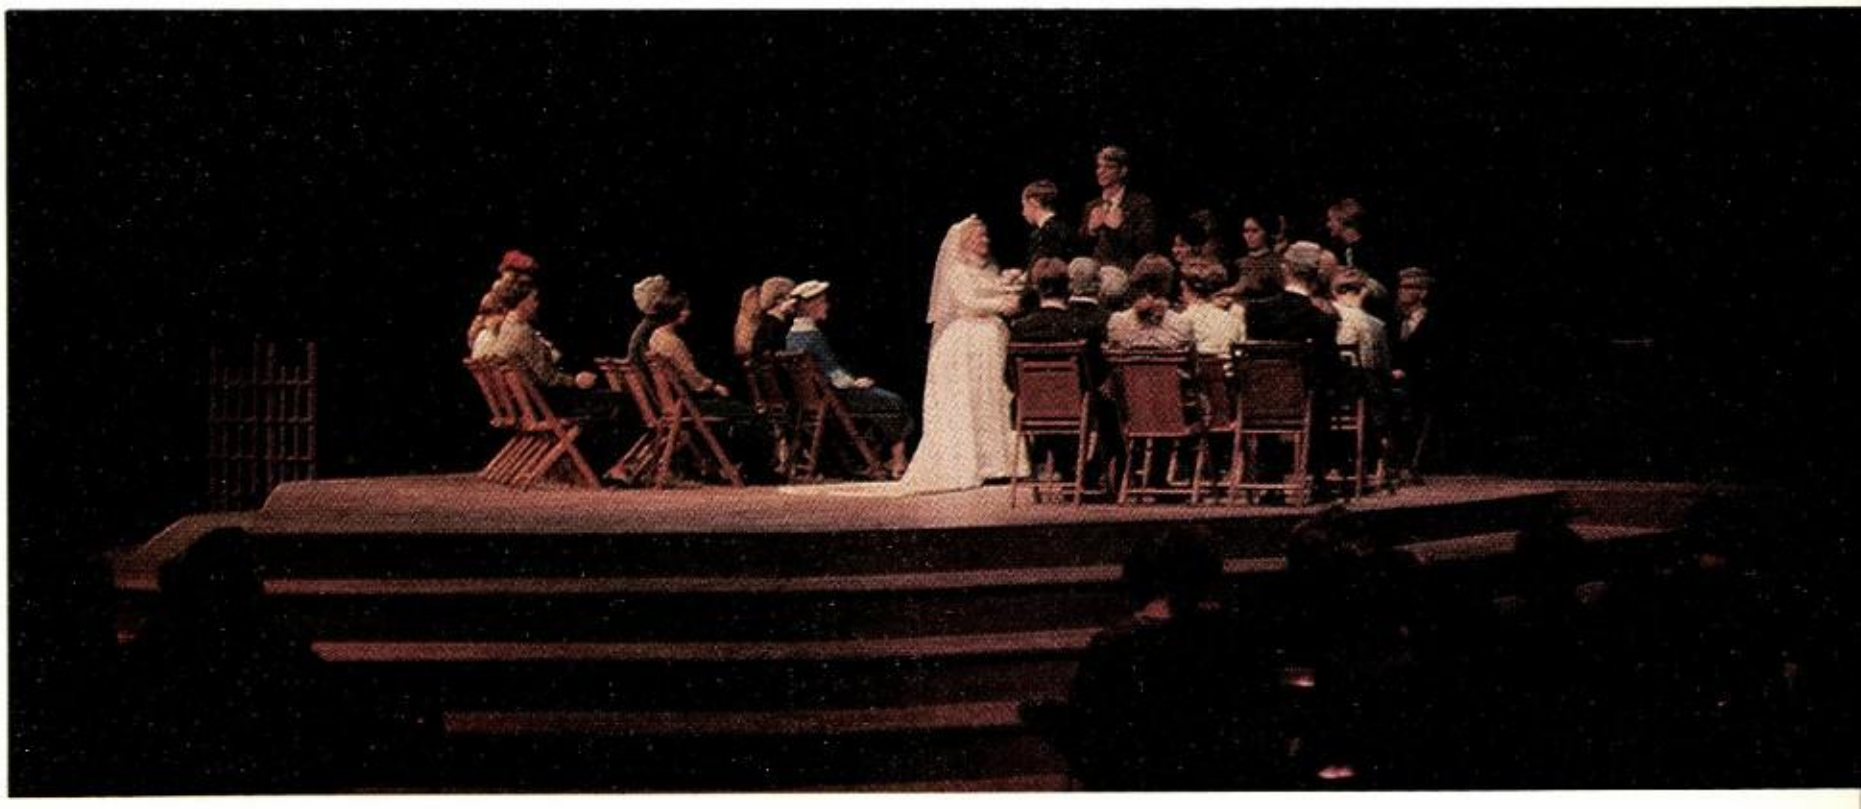
Opening the doors to all these activities is Kelley's faculty. Not only do the teachers stimulate the students in academic directions, but also urge extracurricular, athletic, and social functions.

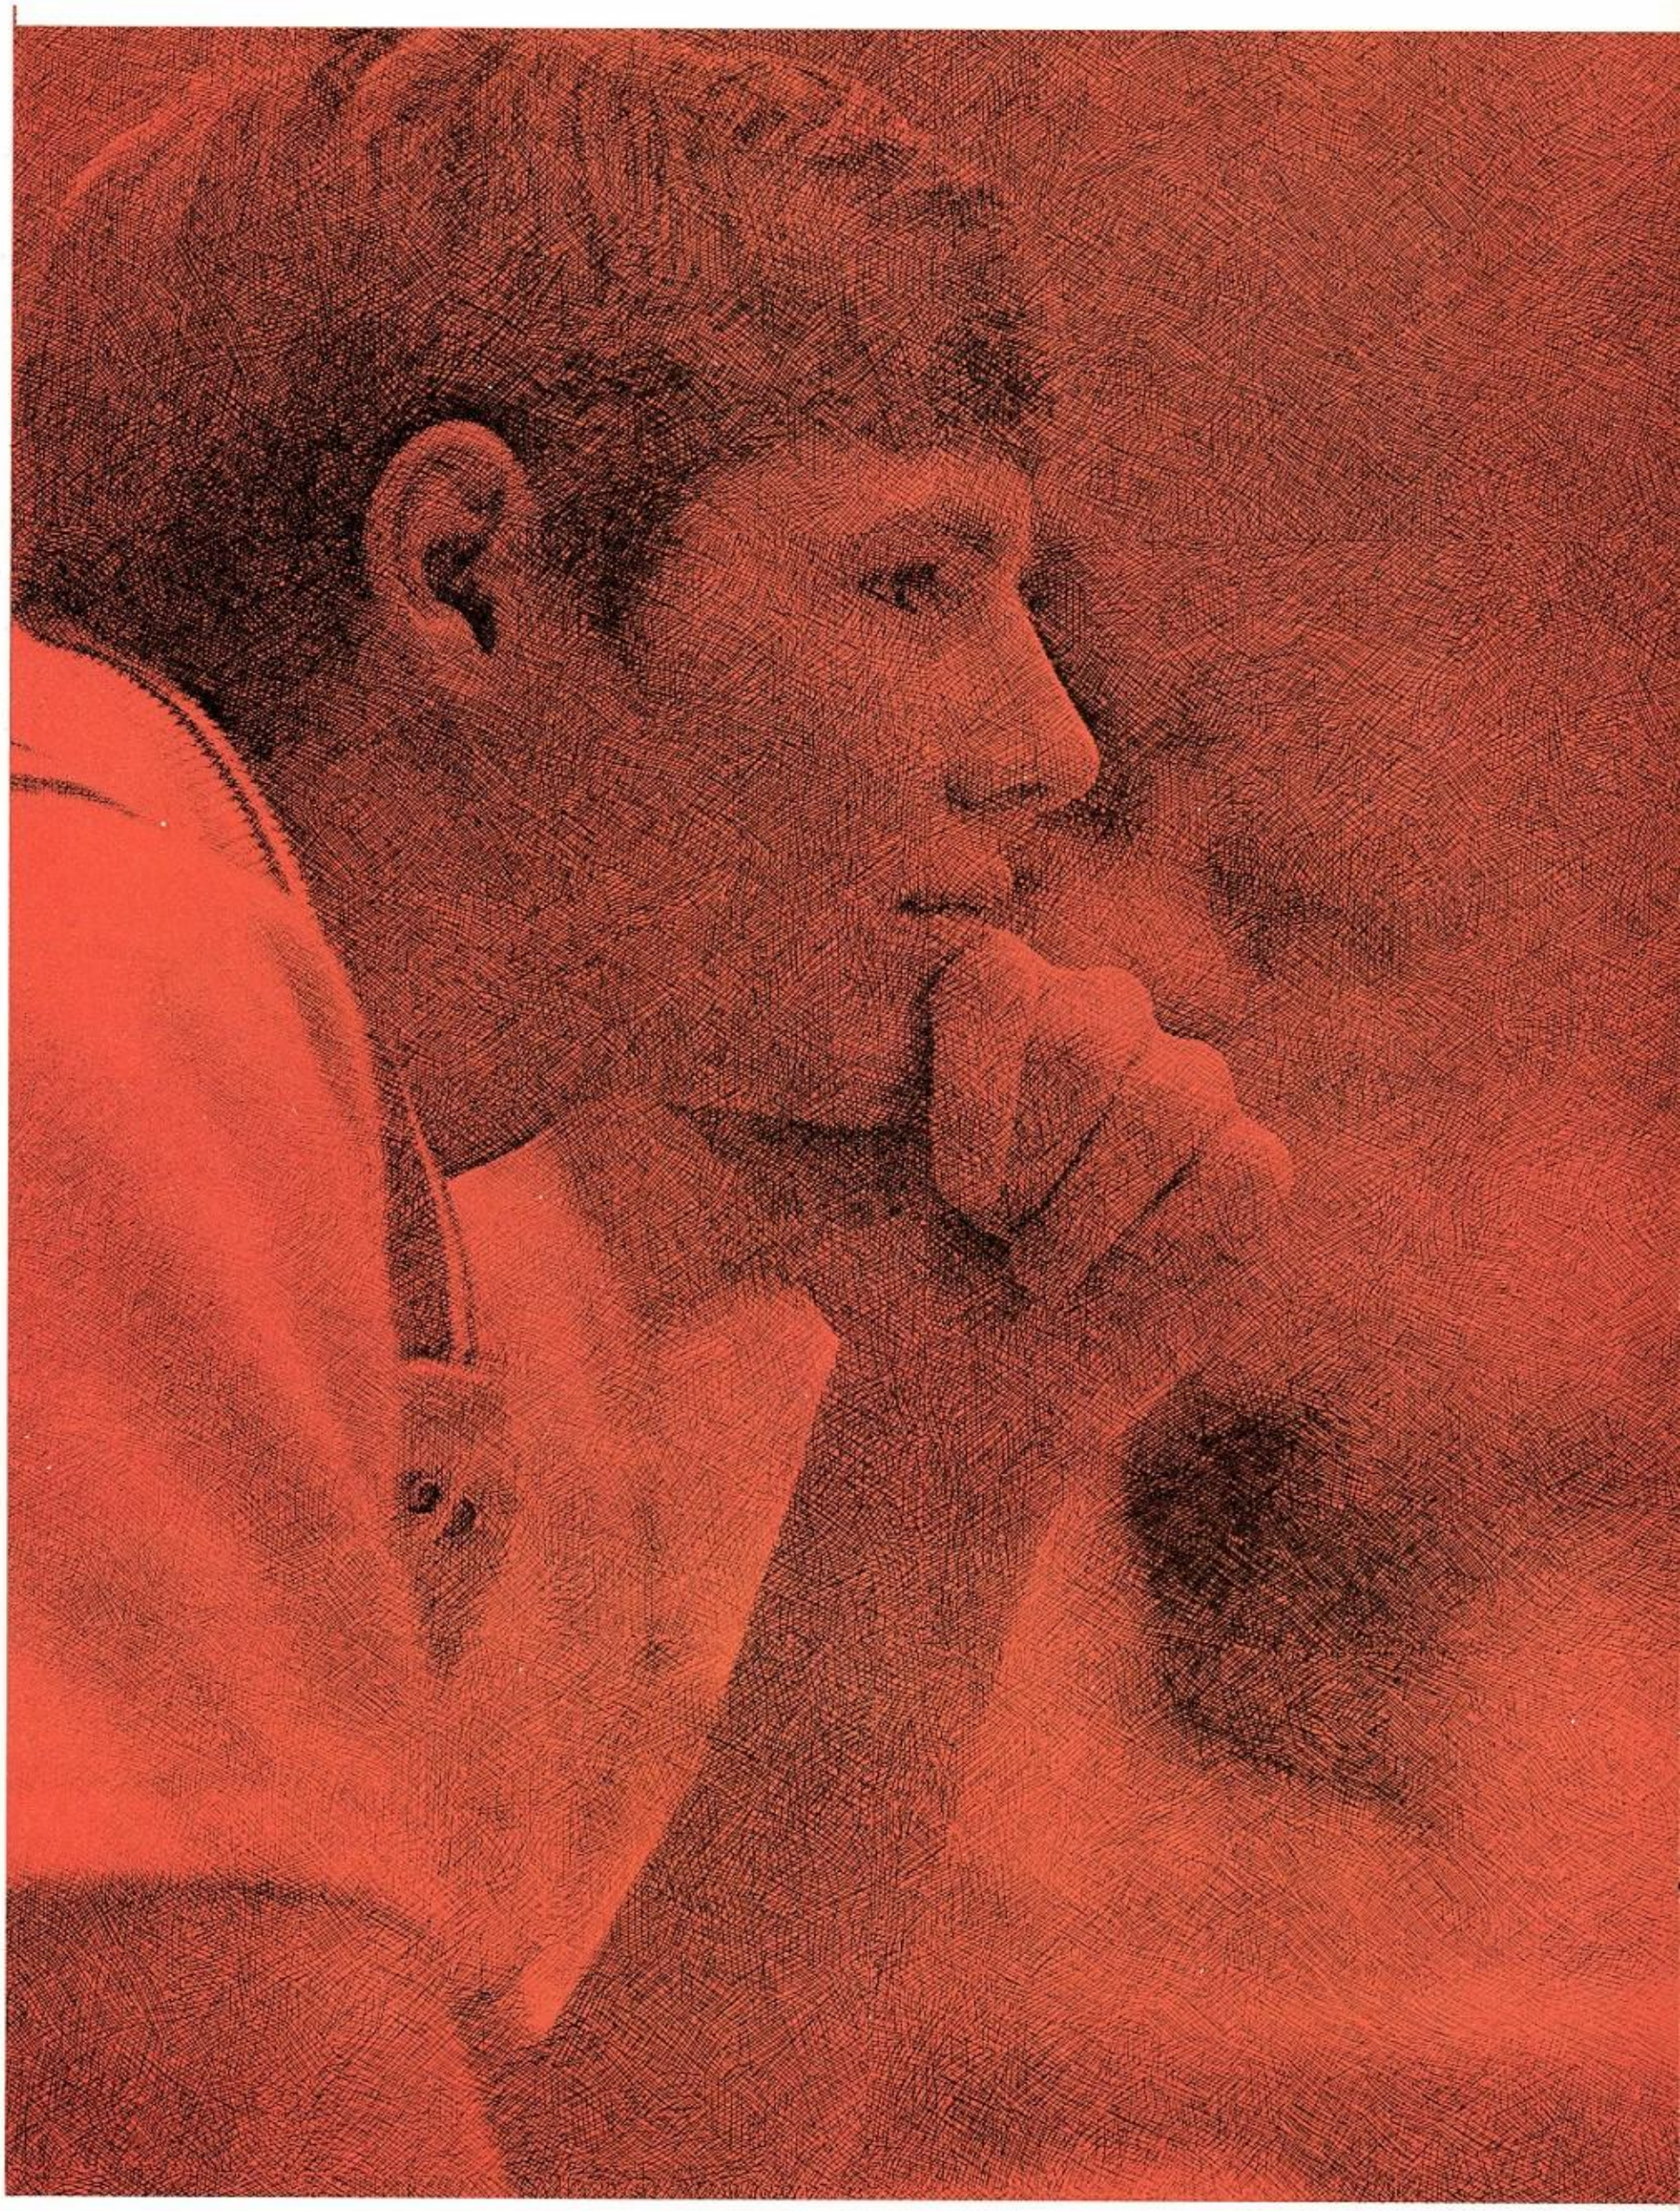


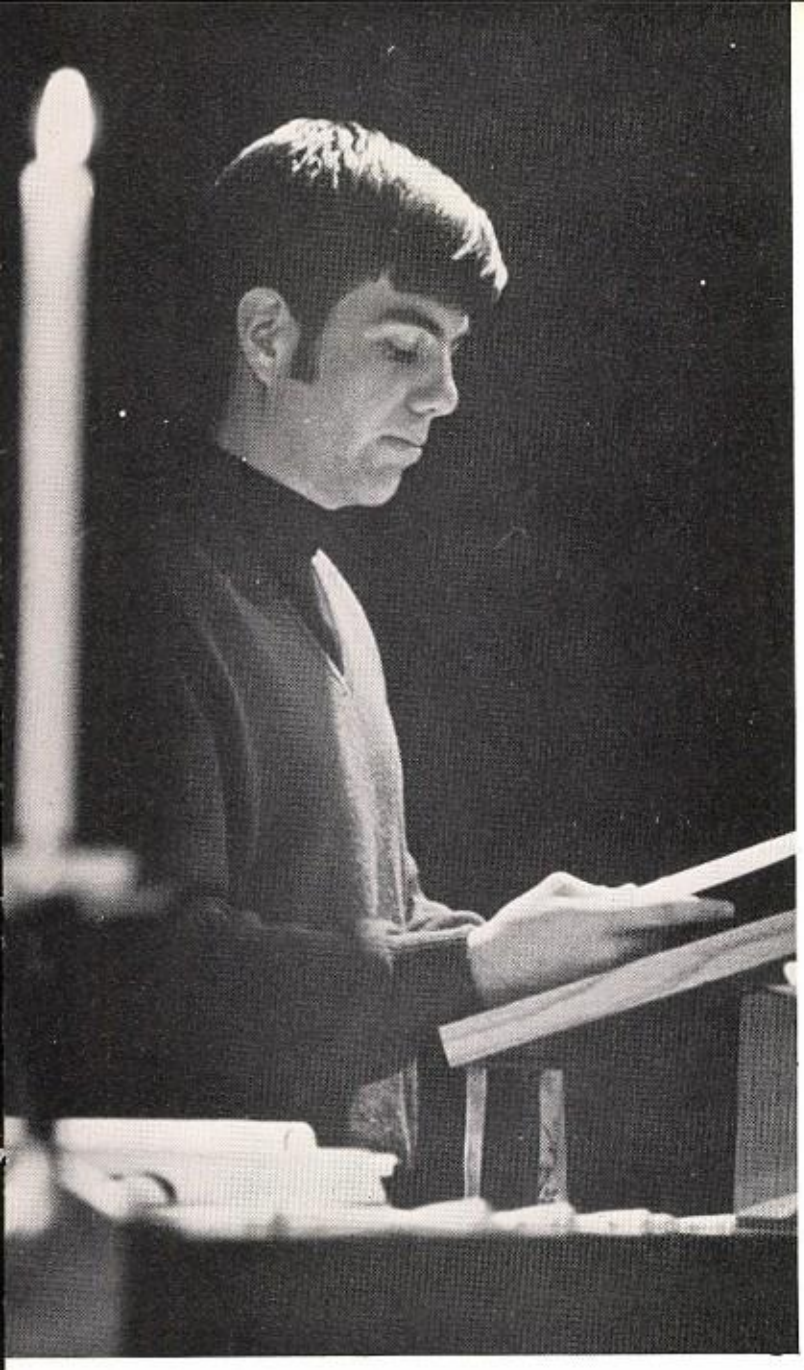


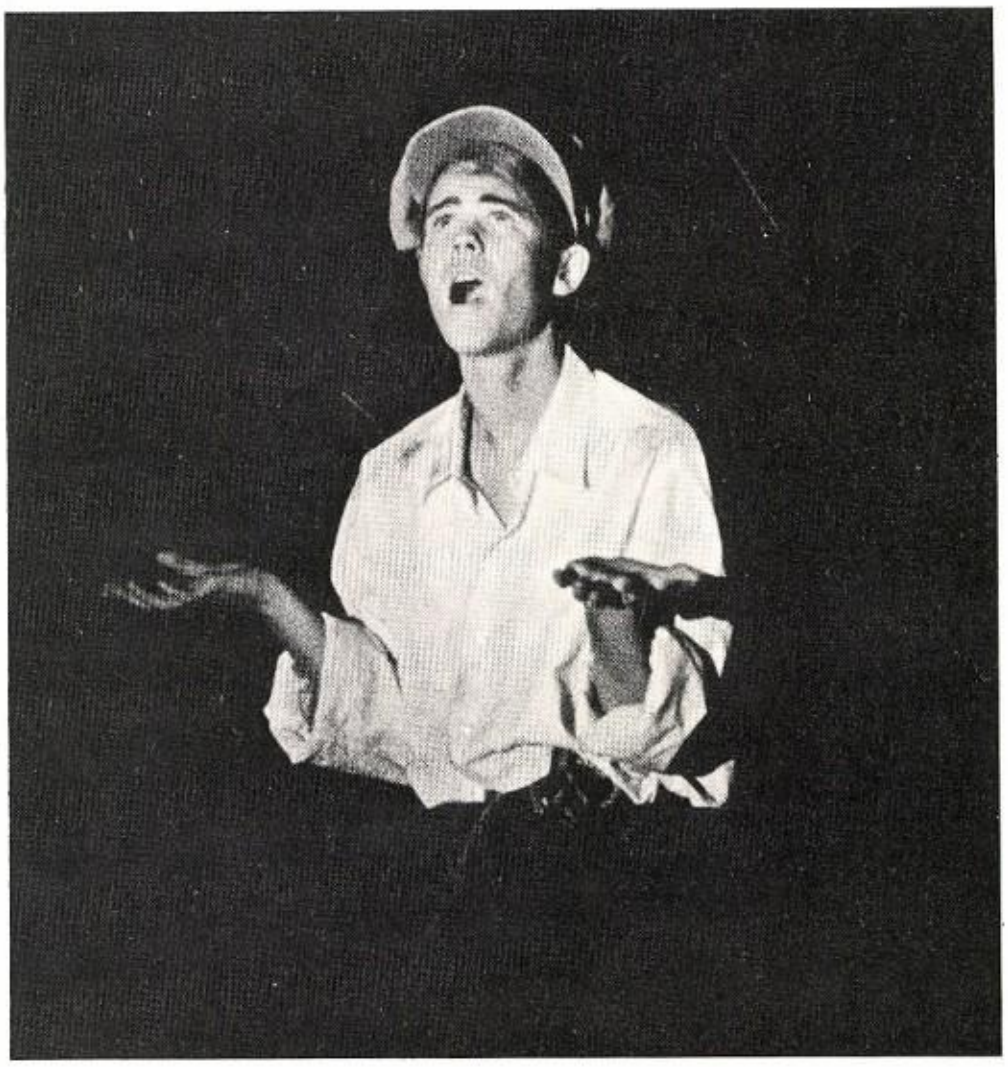


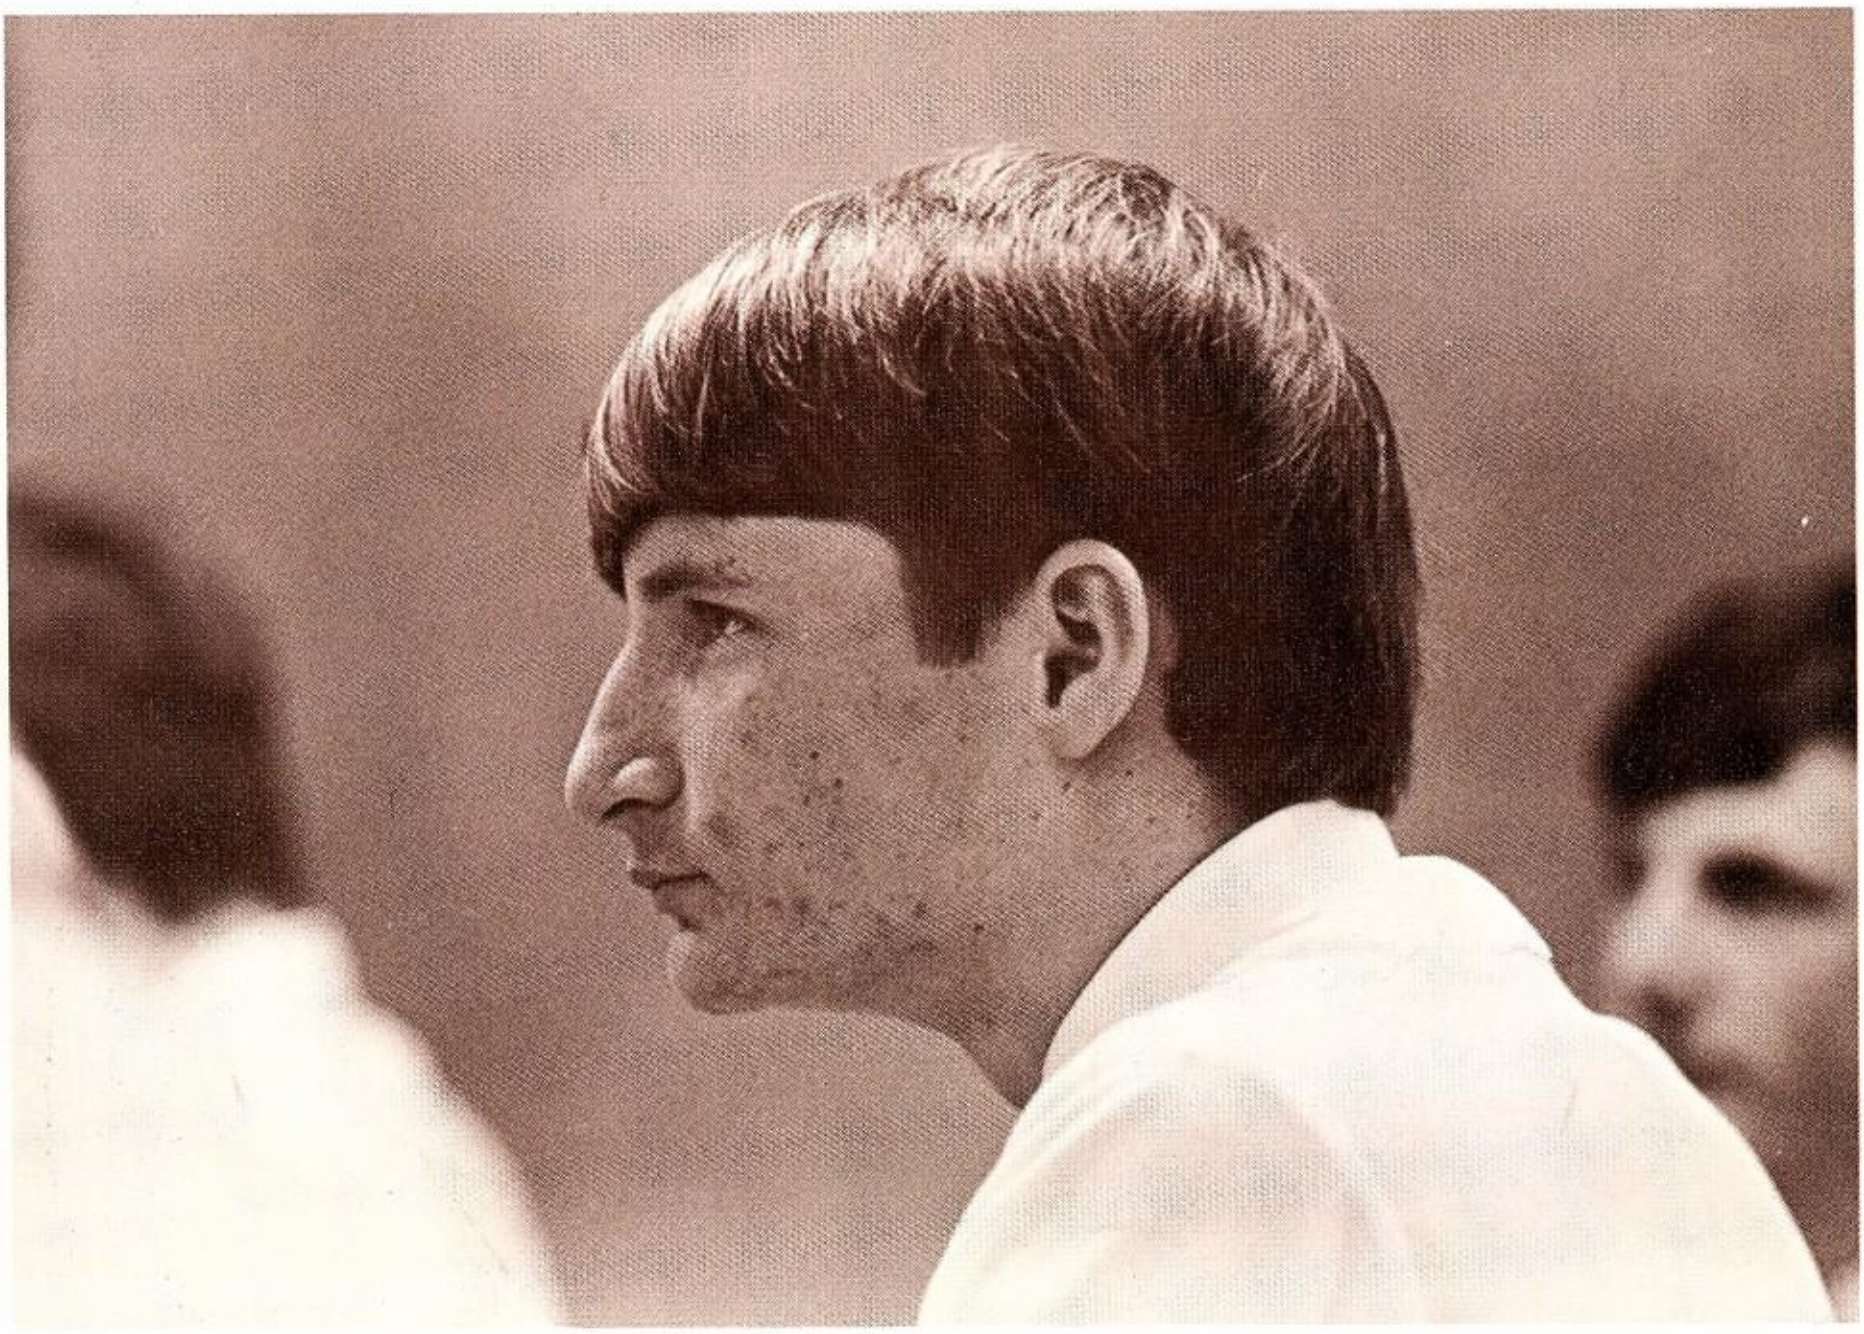
KELTLEY

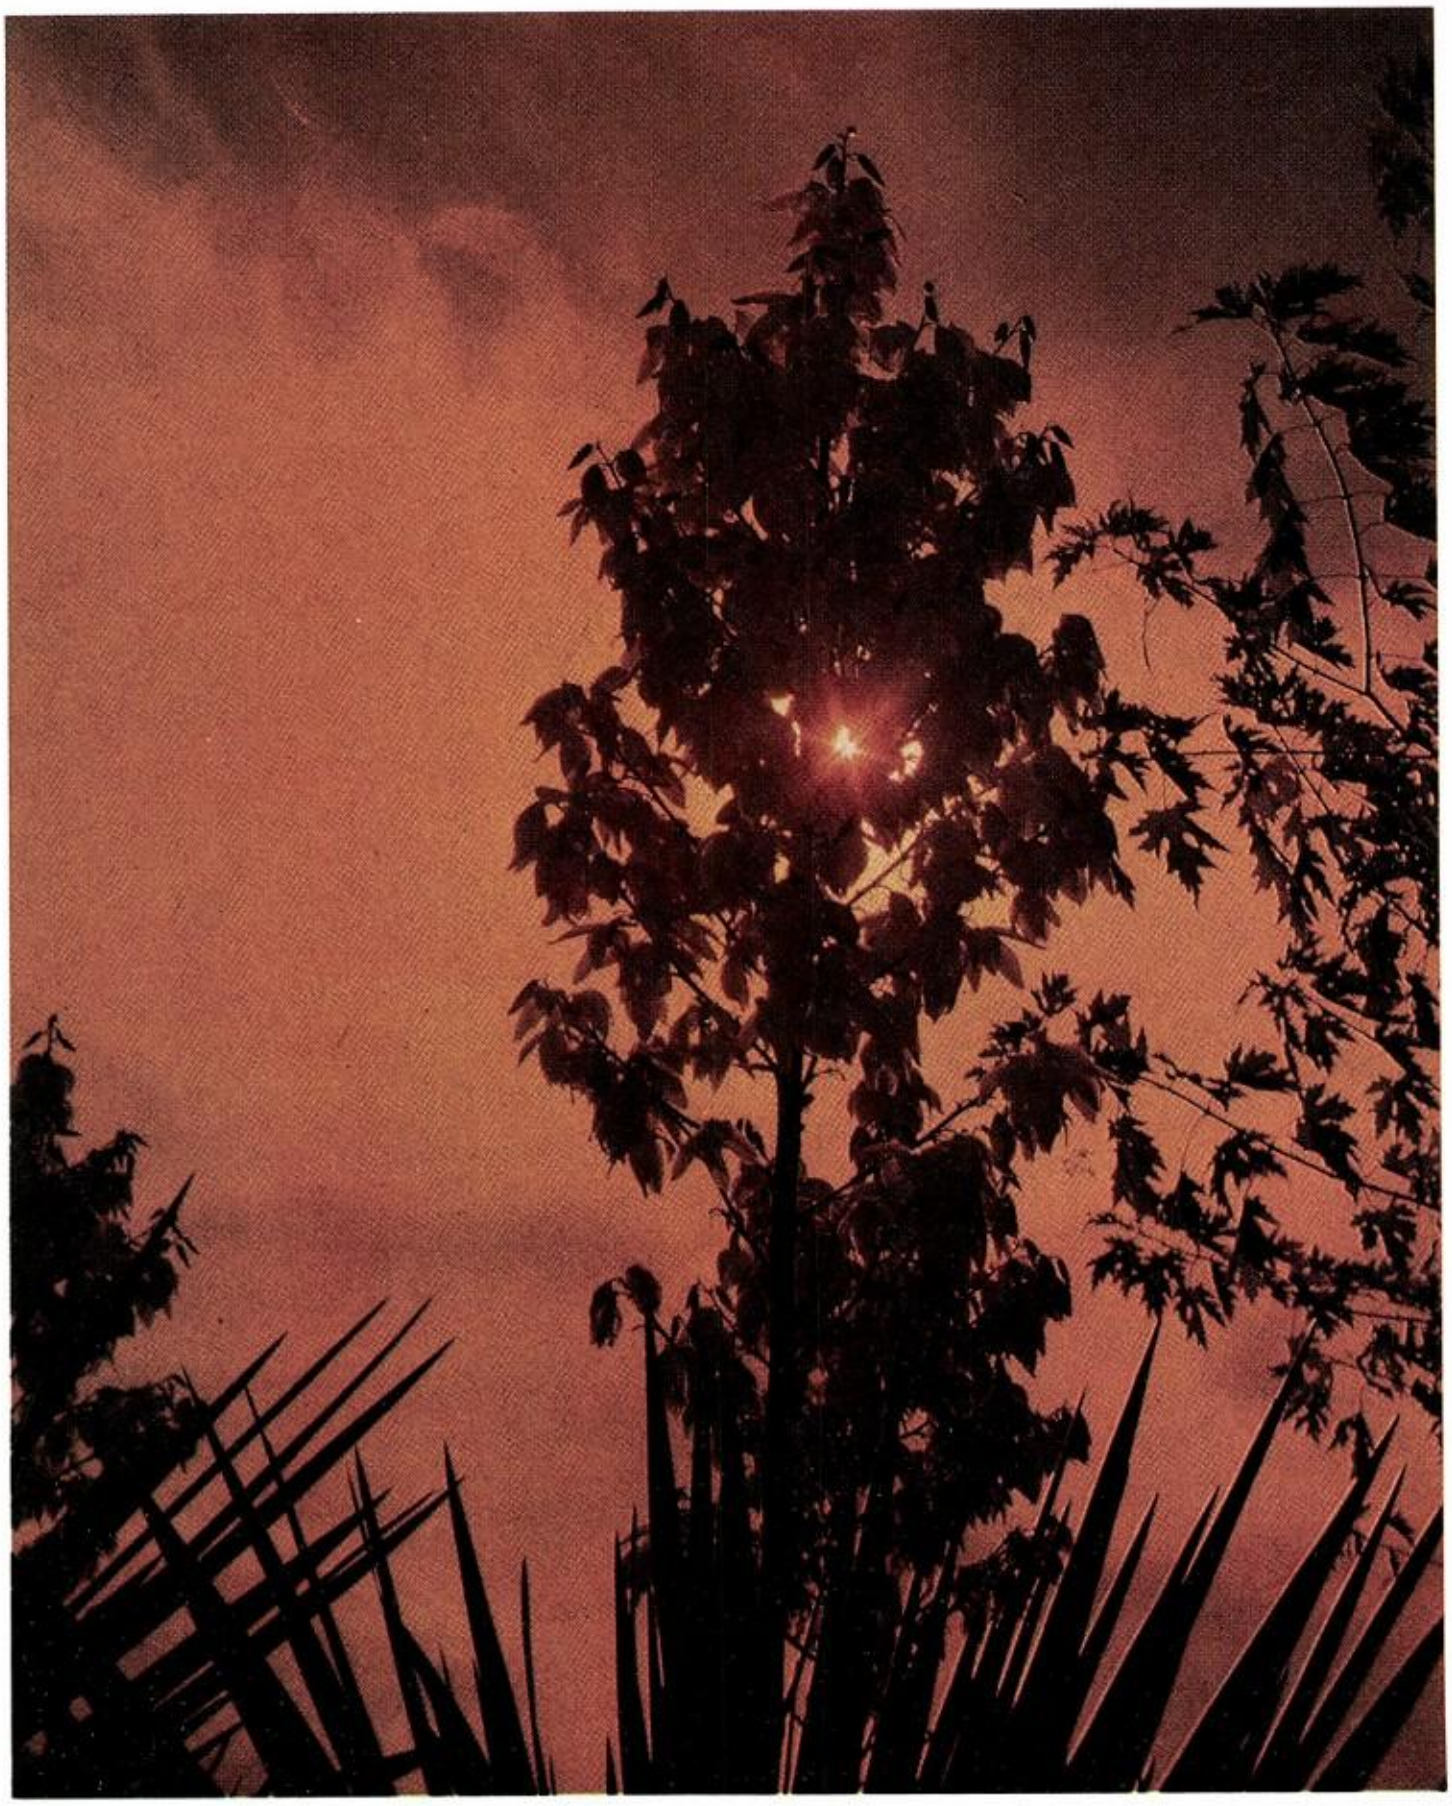












Kelley, a vehicle into a creative future for its students, combines a competitive, yet relaxed atmosphere, with a challenging curriculum and qualified, business-like instructors to prepare its graduates for the horizons which beckon to them in the New Age.

The shape of the world is either a box or a bag and a box-shaped world has corners and a bag-shaped world is either open or closed and Somebody holds the bag.

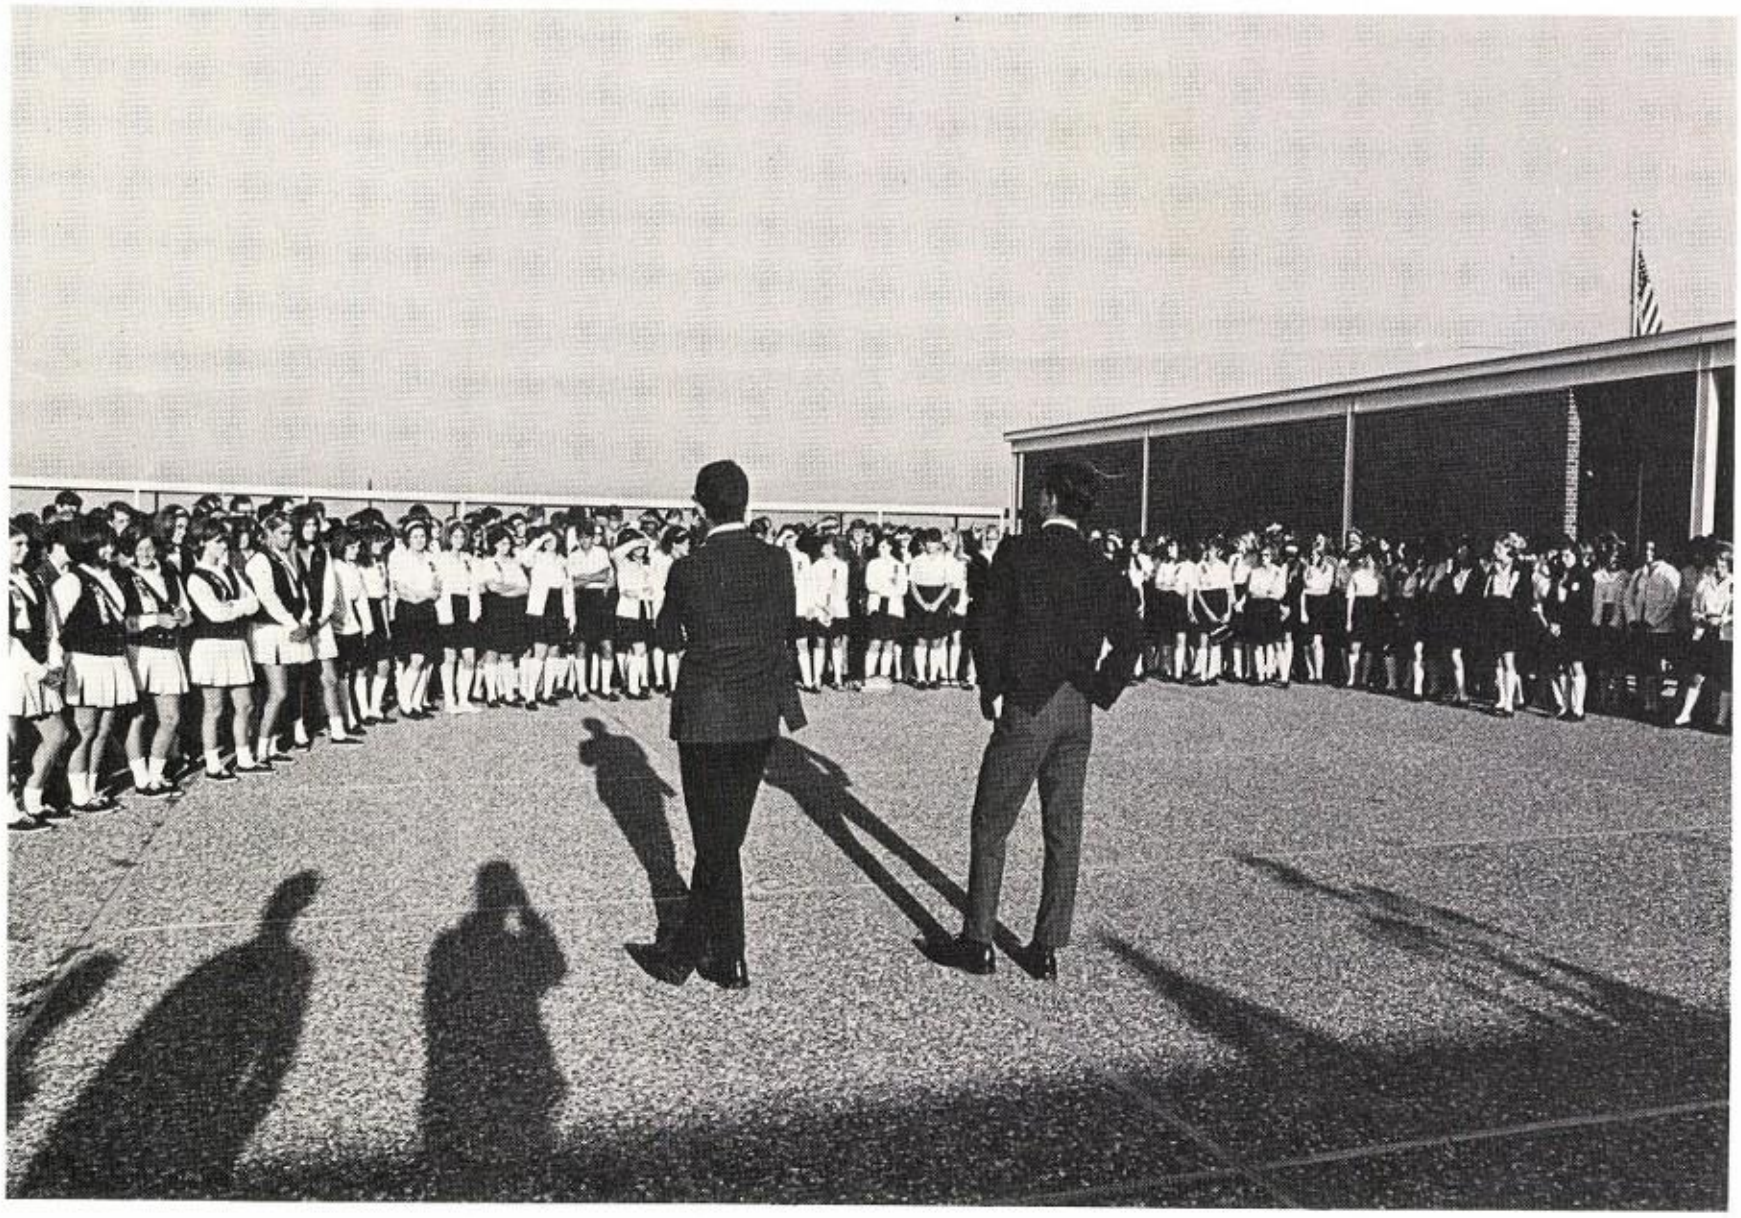
Carl Sandburg

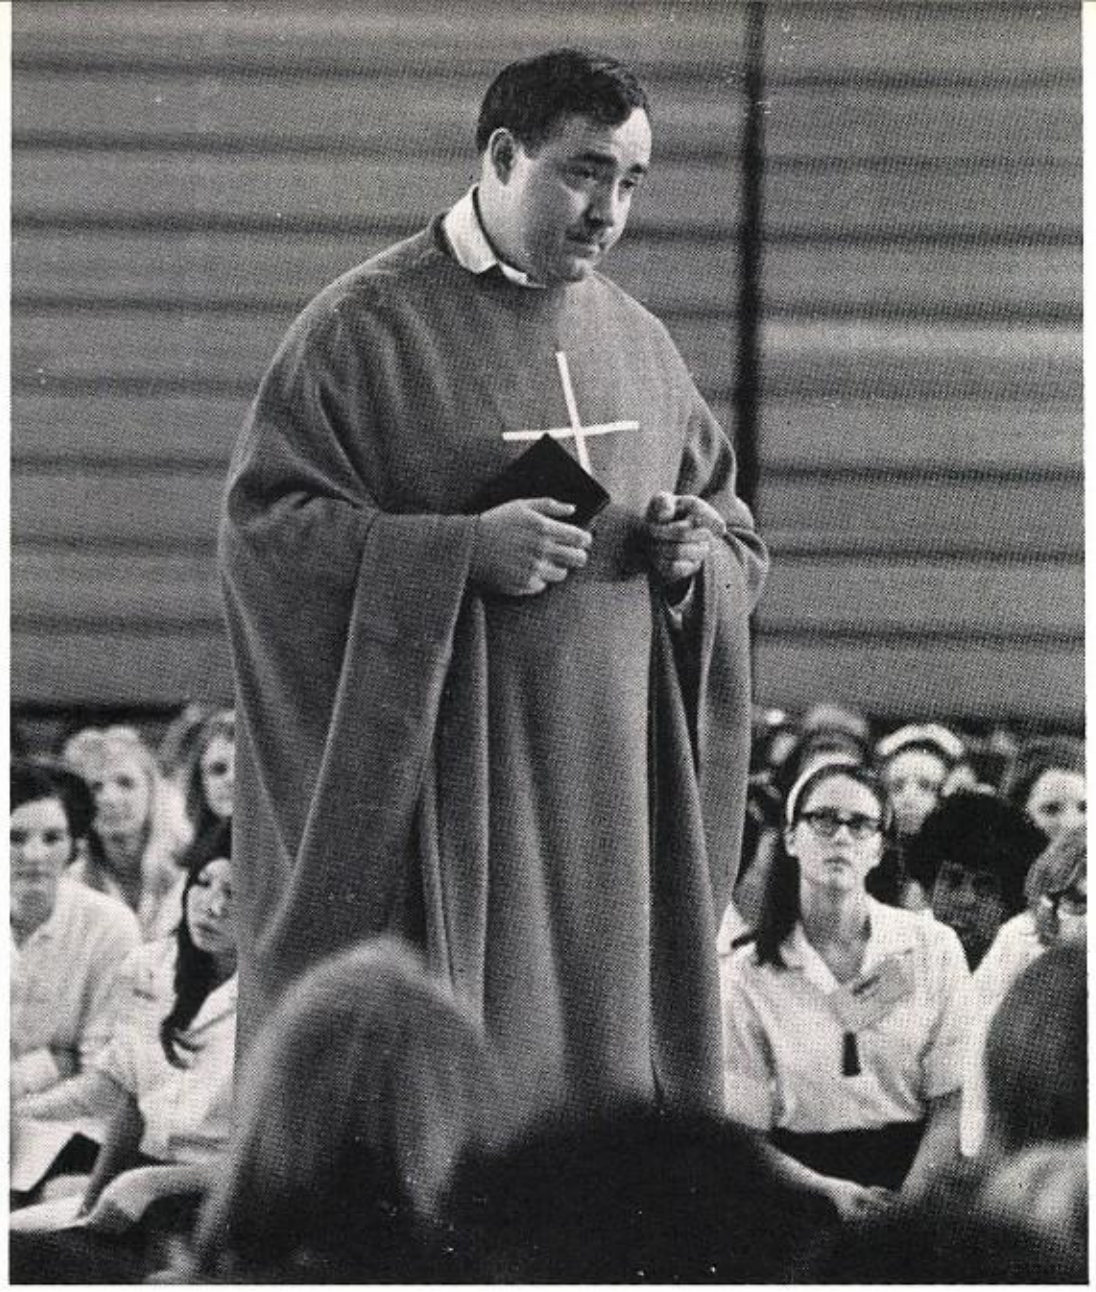


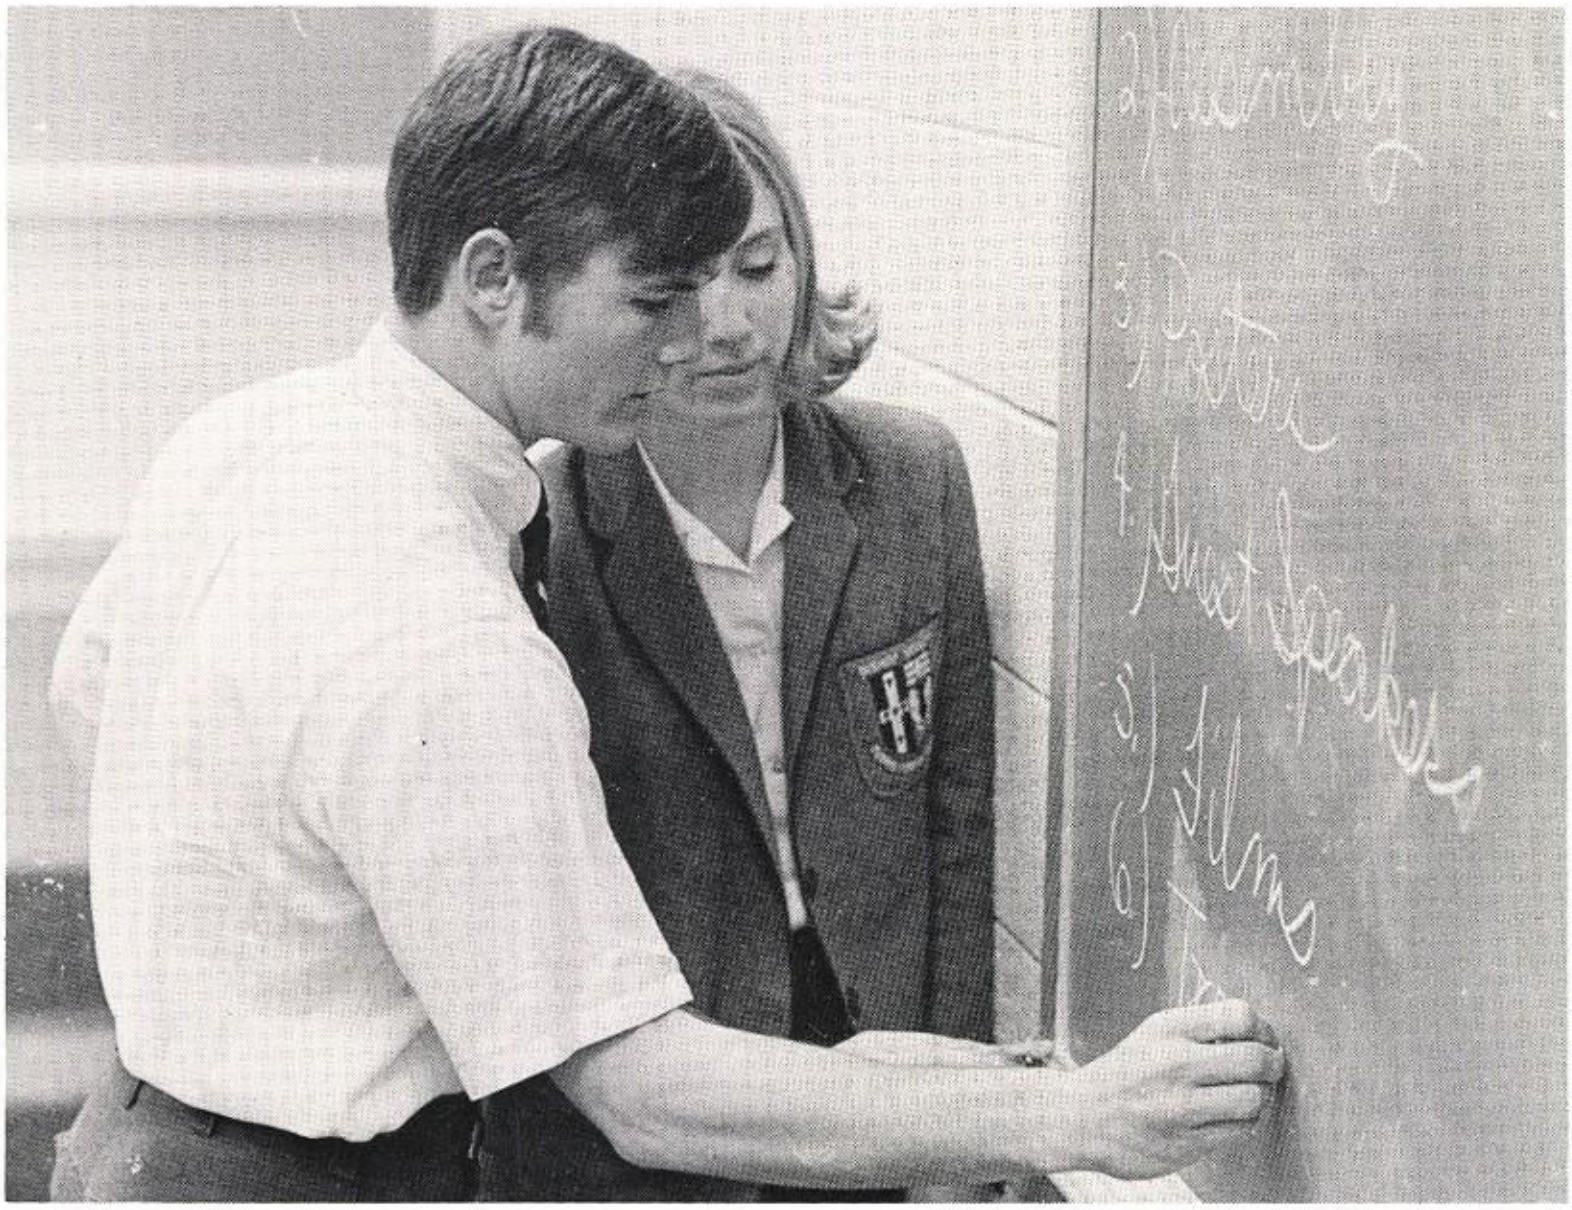
The beginning of a school year is a strange mixture of chaos and planning, and of weariness and challenge. It manifests itself in the bustle of activity of Howdy Week, the arrival of new personalities in the faculty, the renewal of waning friendships, the introduction of a new way of school life for incoming freshmen.

The coming of autumn signals the slightly grudging resignation to more academic pursuits . . . . a barrage of ACT, PSAT, and numerous other examinations. The monotony is broken by the excitement of football games and pep rallies, as Kelley's abundant spirit is exhibited in hopes of a Six Lakes Conference Title.

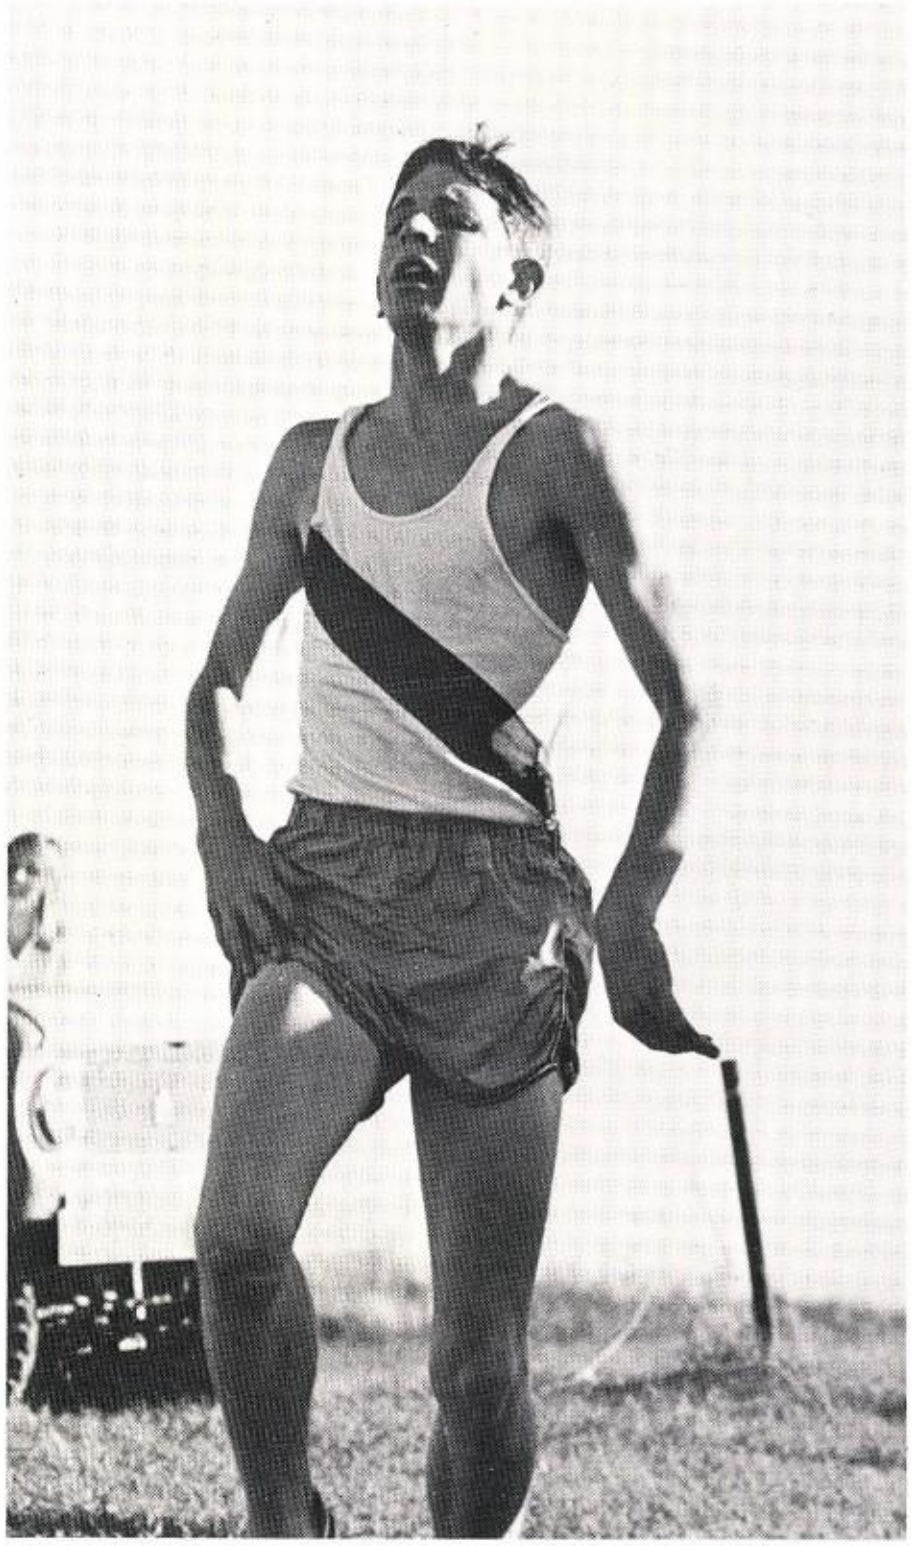
September brought the year's first school Mass; and Trent Rhyne and Ruth Hellman were elected boy and girl of the month, for their pronounced leadership.

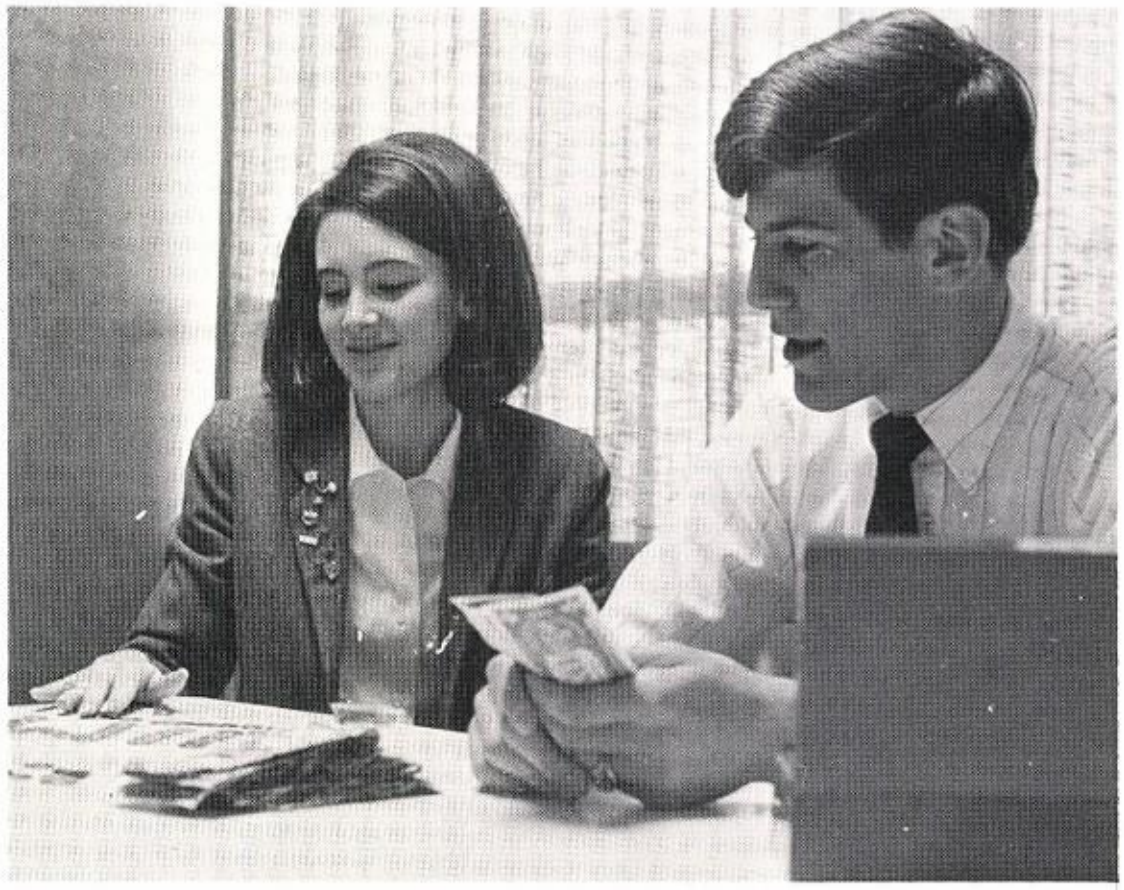
Spirit is at its peak during the fall, as everything begins to fall into its proper perspective. A new Student Council plans an unusual and different year, leadership is recognized in certain individuals; everyone has changed — grown, and matured. New standards are established and new goals are planned. Each individual has begun to blend into the vibrant stream of Kelley life.





Spirit was more than a word for the football Comets, it was an institution, almost as much of one as Mr. Charles Dreas. In his third season as head coach at Kelley he led the Comets to a terrific 9-2 season. With the help of his fine coaching staff he produced the conference lineman and back of the year, Tim Sayon and Ron Revard, along with four more All-Conference squad members Steve Morelli, Jim Lepley, Denny Krafft, and Steve Clancy. These Seniors along with several of the outstanding Juniors provided great team leadership.





From running in the summer at Woodward to running in the fall on home grounds, the 68-69 Kelley Harriers show the determination and "mental toughness" necessary to be winners. Their examples set the pace for the entire year.

Besides the proud cross country season, October brings the Incarnate Word Troupe, a professional repertory company, performing Blithe Spirit.

The students turn their attention to civic activities during the month, including Safety Week sponsored by the Student Council, and the city wide March of Dimes Drive. For the third consecutive year, the efforts of the Kelley students yield more funds for research than those of any other high school.

Mary Pat McDowell and Jim Lepley, who demonstrate the exuberant spirit, willingness to work, and social awareness of Kelley students were selected boy and girl of the month for October.

BEAT

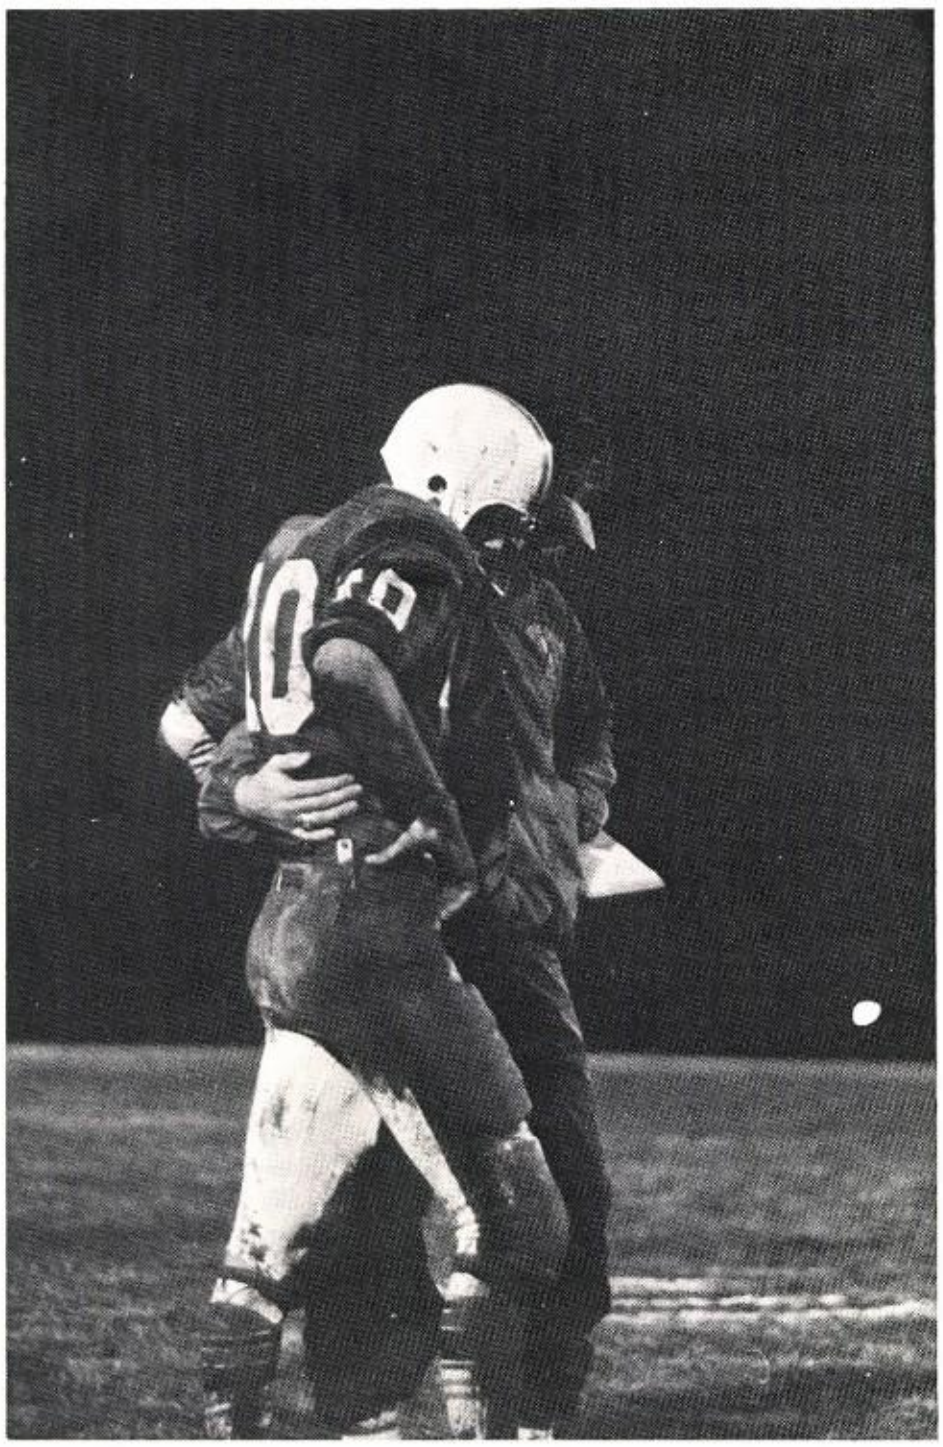
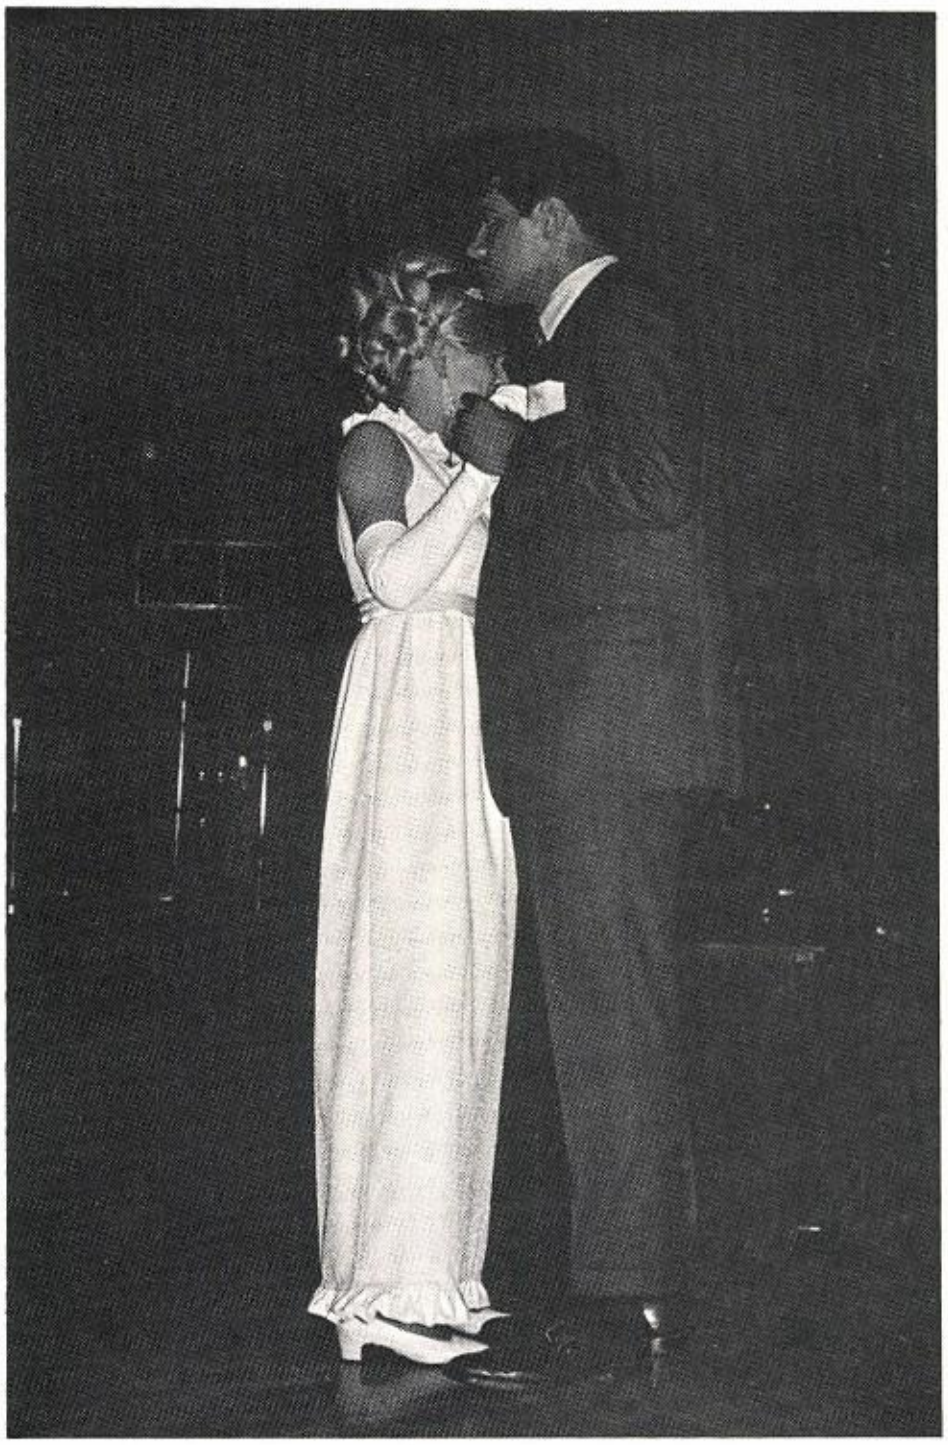
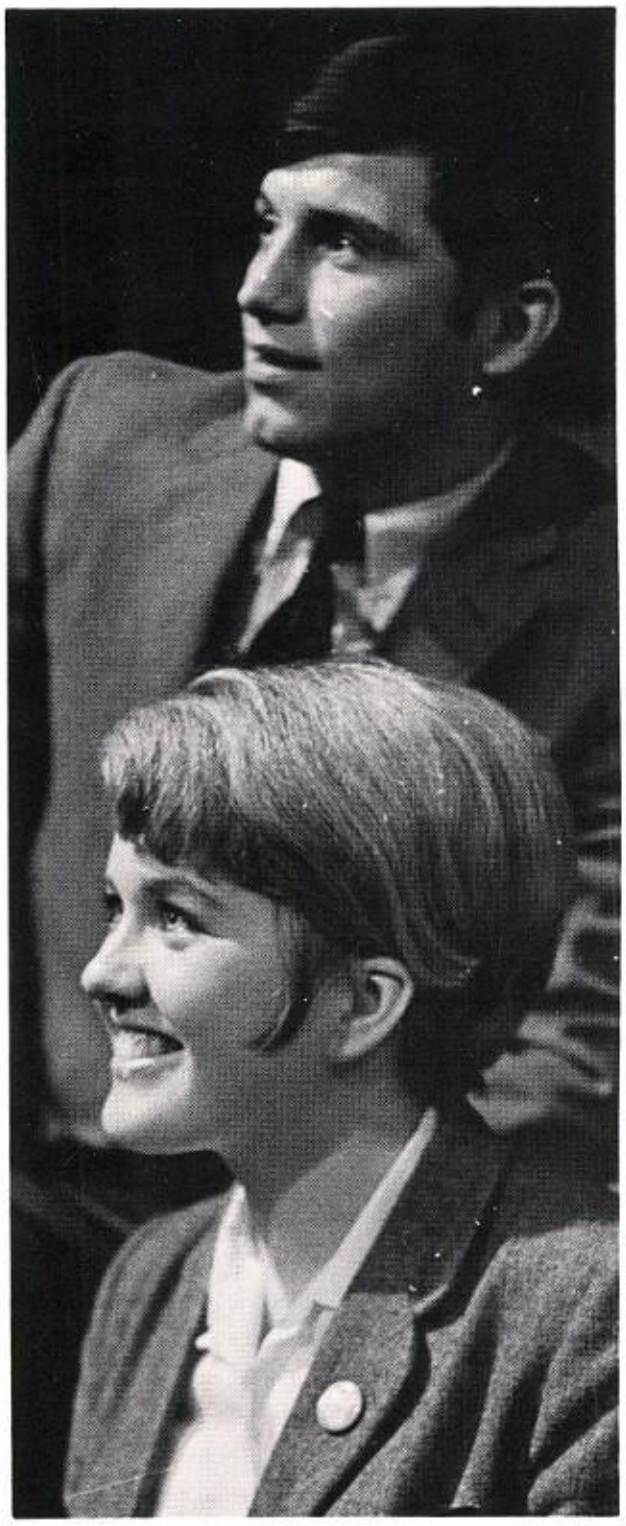
The excitement of Football Homecoming occupies much of mid-November around the Kelley campus. Homecoming brings with it a wide range of feelings and sensations; these include the tension of selecting the Queen and her court, the confidence and exuberance displayed by the team and the fans at the game, and rocking out to the sound of the Rubbery Cargo at the Elks Club.

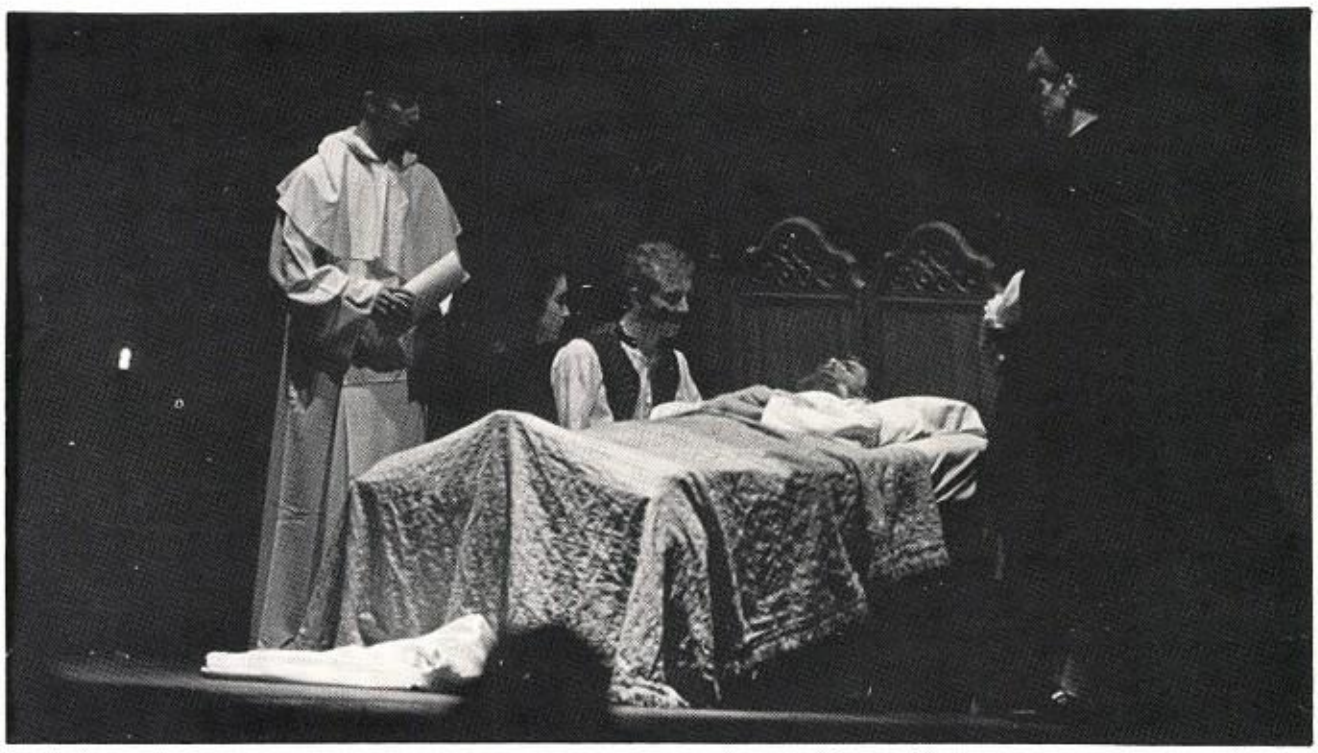
Teachers have some trouble holding the attention of their students as the day of the game against the McGuiness Irish approaches. The mood is set by the decorated halls, the cheers in the cafeteria, and even cheering between classes. The high hopes of the school are satisfied when the Comets come home victorious. Appropriately, Ron Revard and Marie Hogsett are selected November boy and girl of the month; Marie for her dedication to the Pep Club, and Ron for the leadership he displays on the football field.



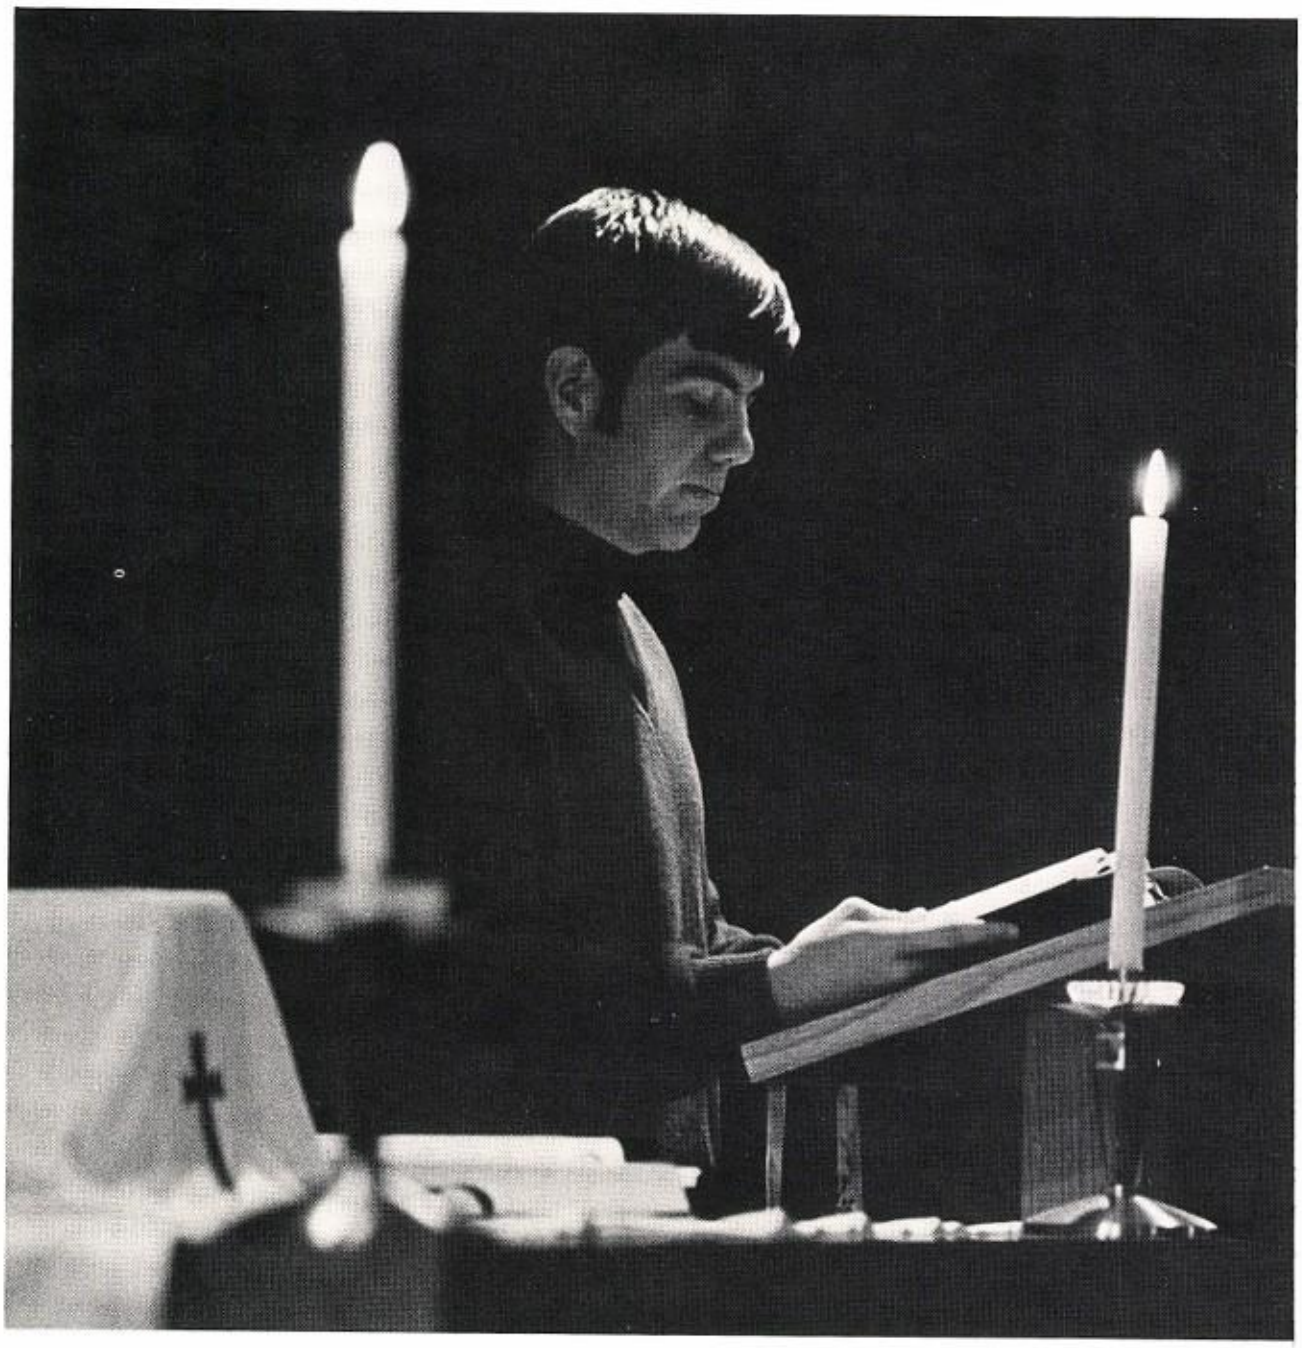


The Fall Revue was a Student Council project of tremendous scope. Under the direction of Brother Patrick O'Brien, The Cabaret was composed of cuttings from various Broadway musicals and played to a full house every night. Steve Clancy and Sharan Shanahan were honored as December boy and girl of the month for the effort they put into the show. The Fall Revue, in replacing the annual Hootenanny, was the first project of its kind seen at Kelley. The project was the first all-school production, featuring over 350 students, as well as an inter-school band under the direction of Alan Petzet, an alumnus of Kelley. The show inspired a school unity seldom felt before, and spawned many lasting friendships among members of the cast and crew.





BOOKS



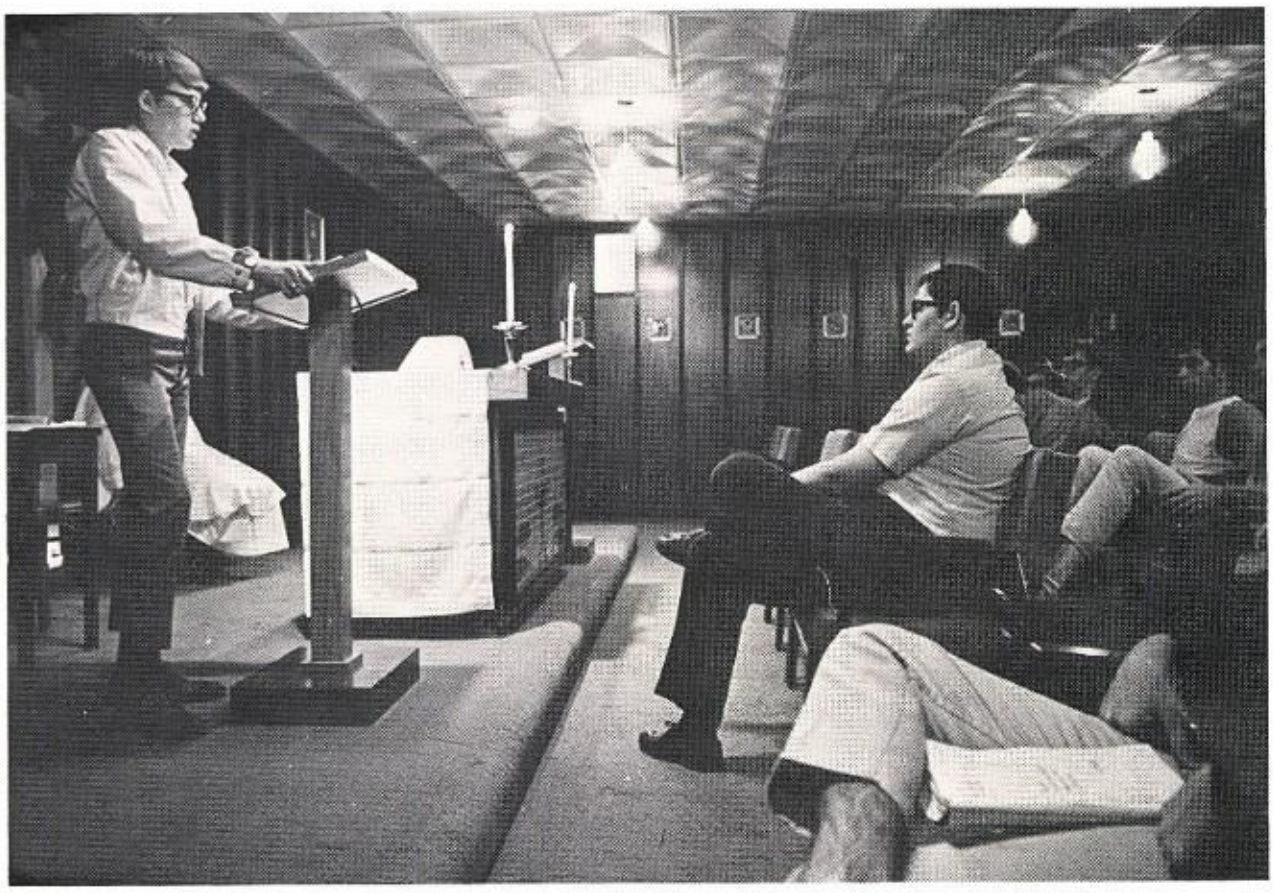
During a year of college worries, countless activities, concentrated study, and emotional strain, the seniors need an opportunity to get off the merry-go-round and take a calm, quiet look at themselves. The Jesuit Retreat House offers the opportunity to do just that.

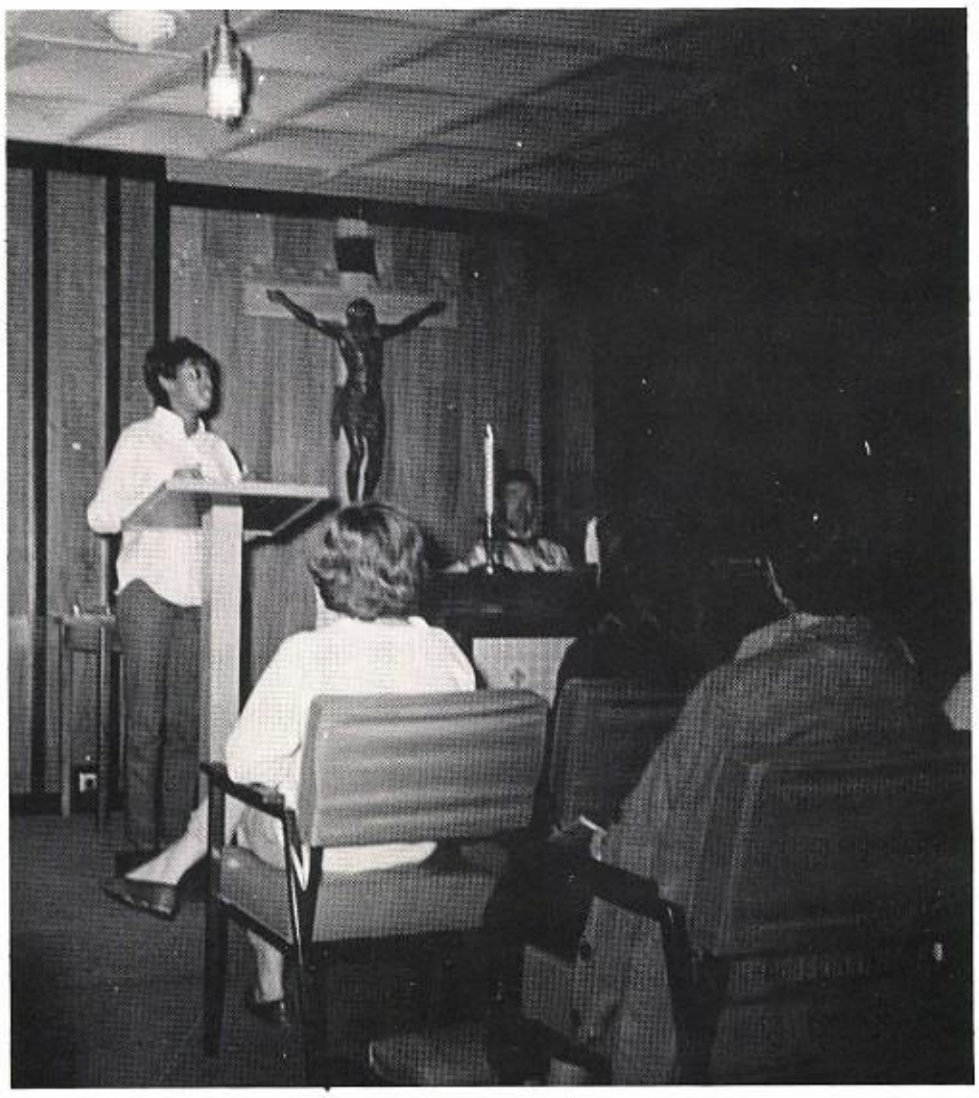
But retreat is certainly not free from turmoil. Both the profoundly silent hours of solitude and the brutally honest sociograms encourage soul searching and self questioning.

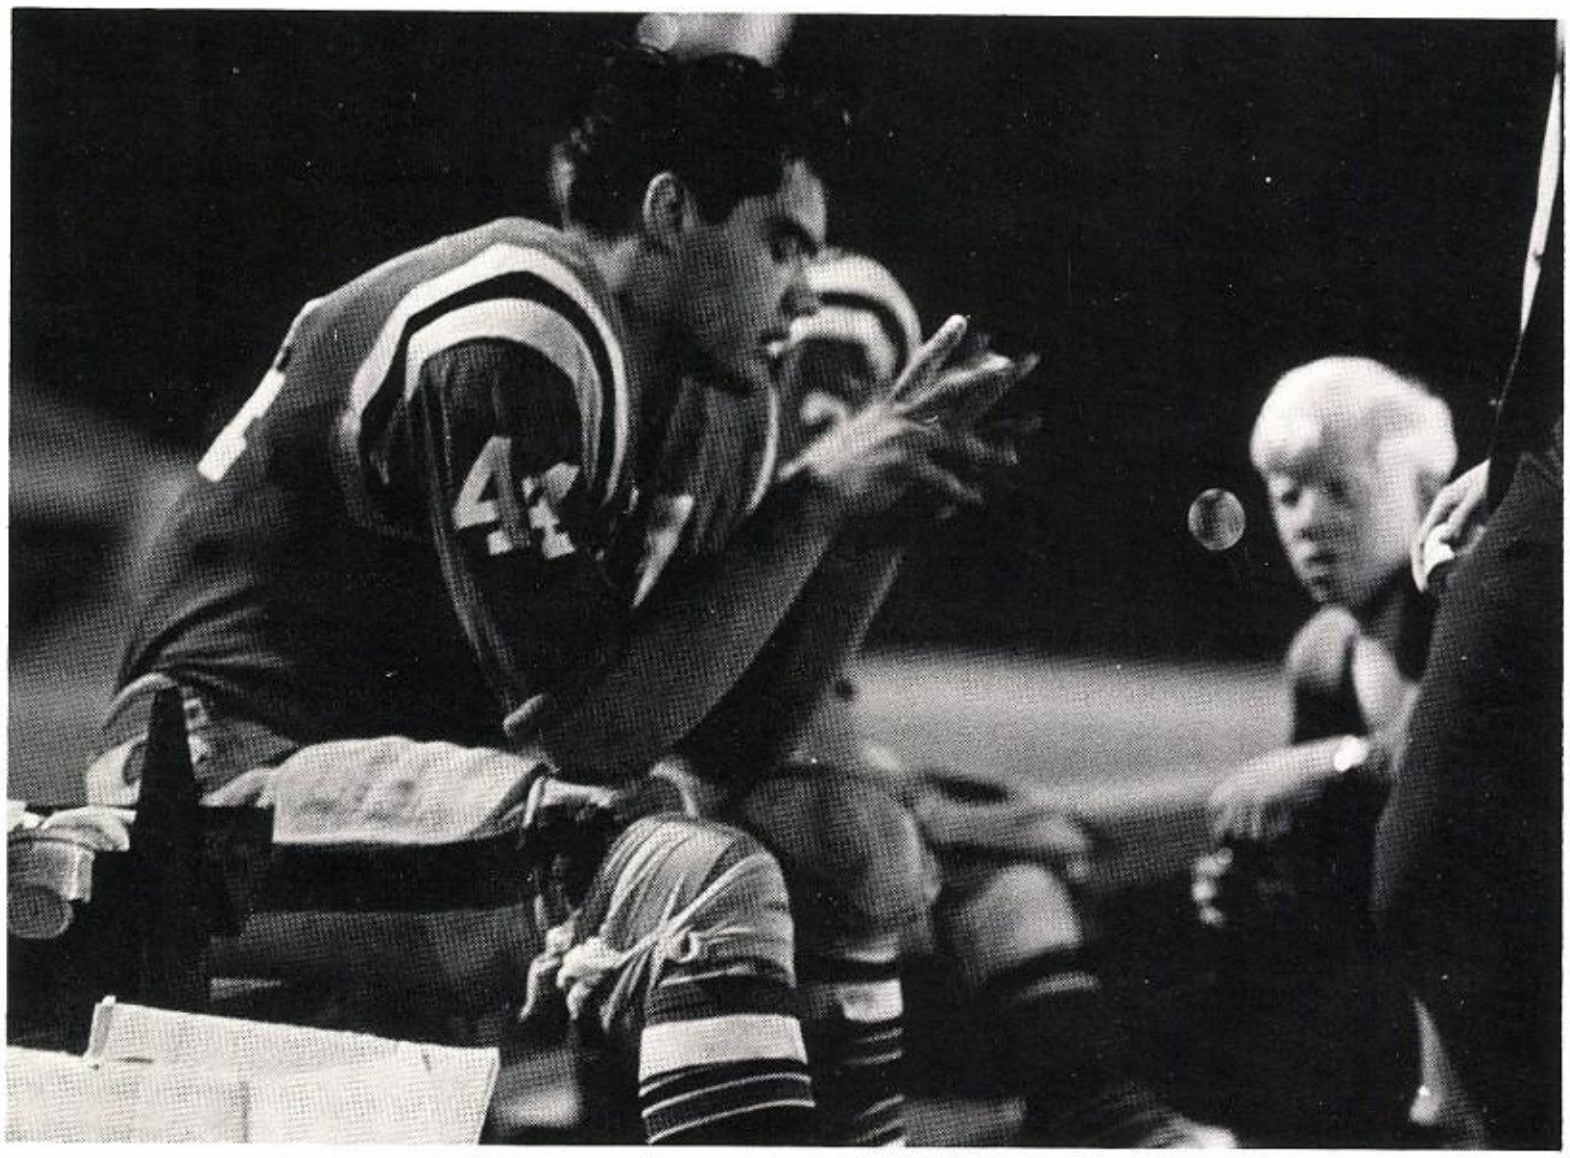
And besides getting to know themselves, retreatants discover things about their classmates that even four years of close association could not disclose. The students give the sermons at the daily Masses, as well as share their thoughts informally through bull sessions.

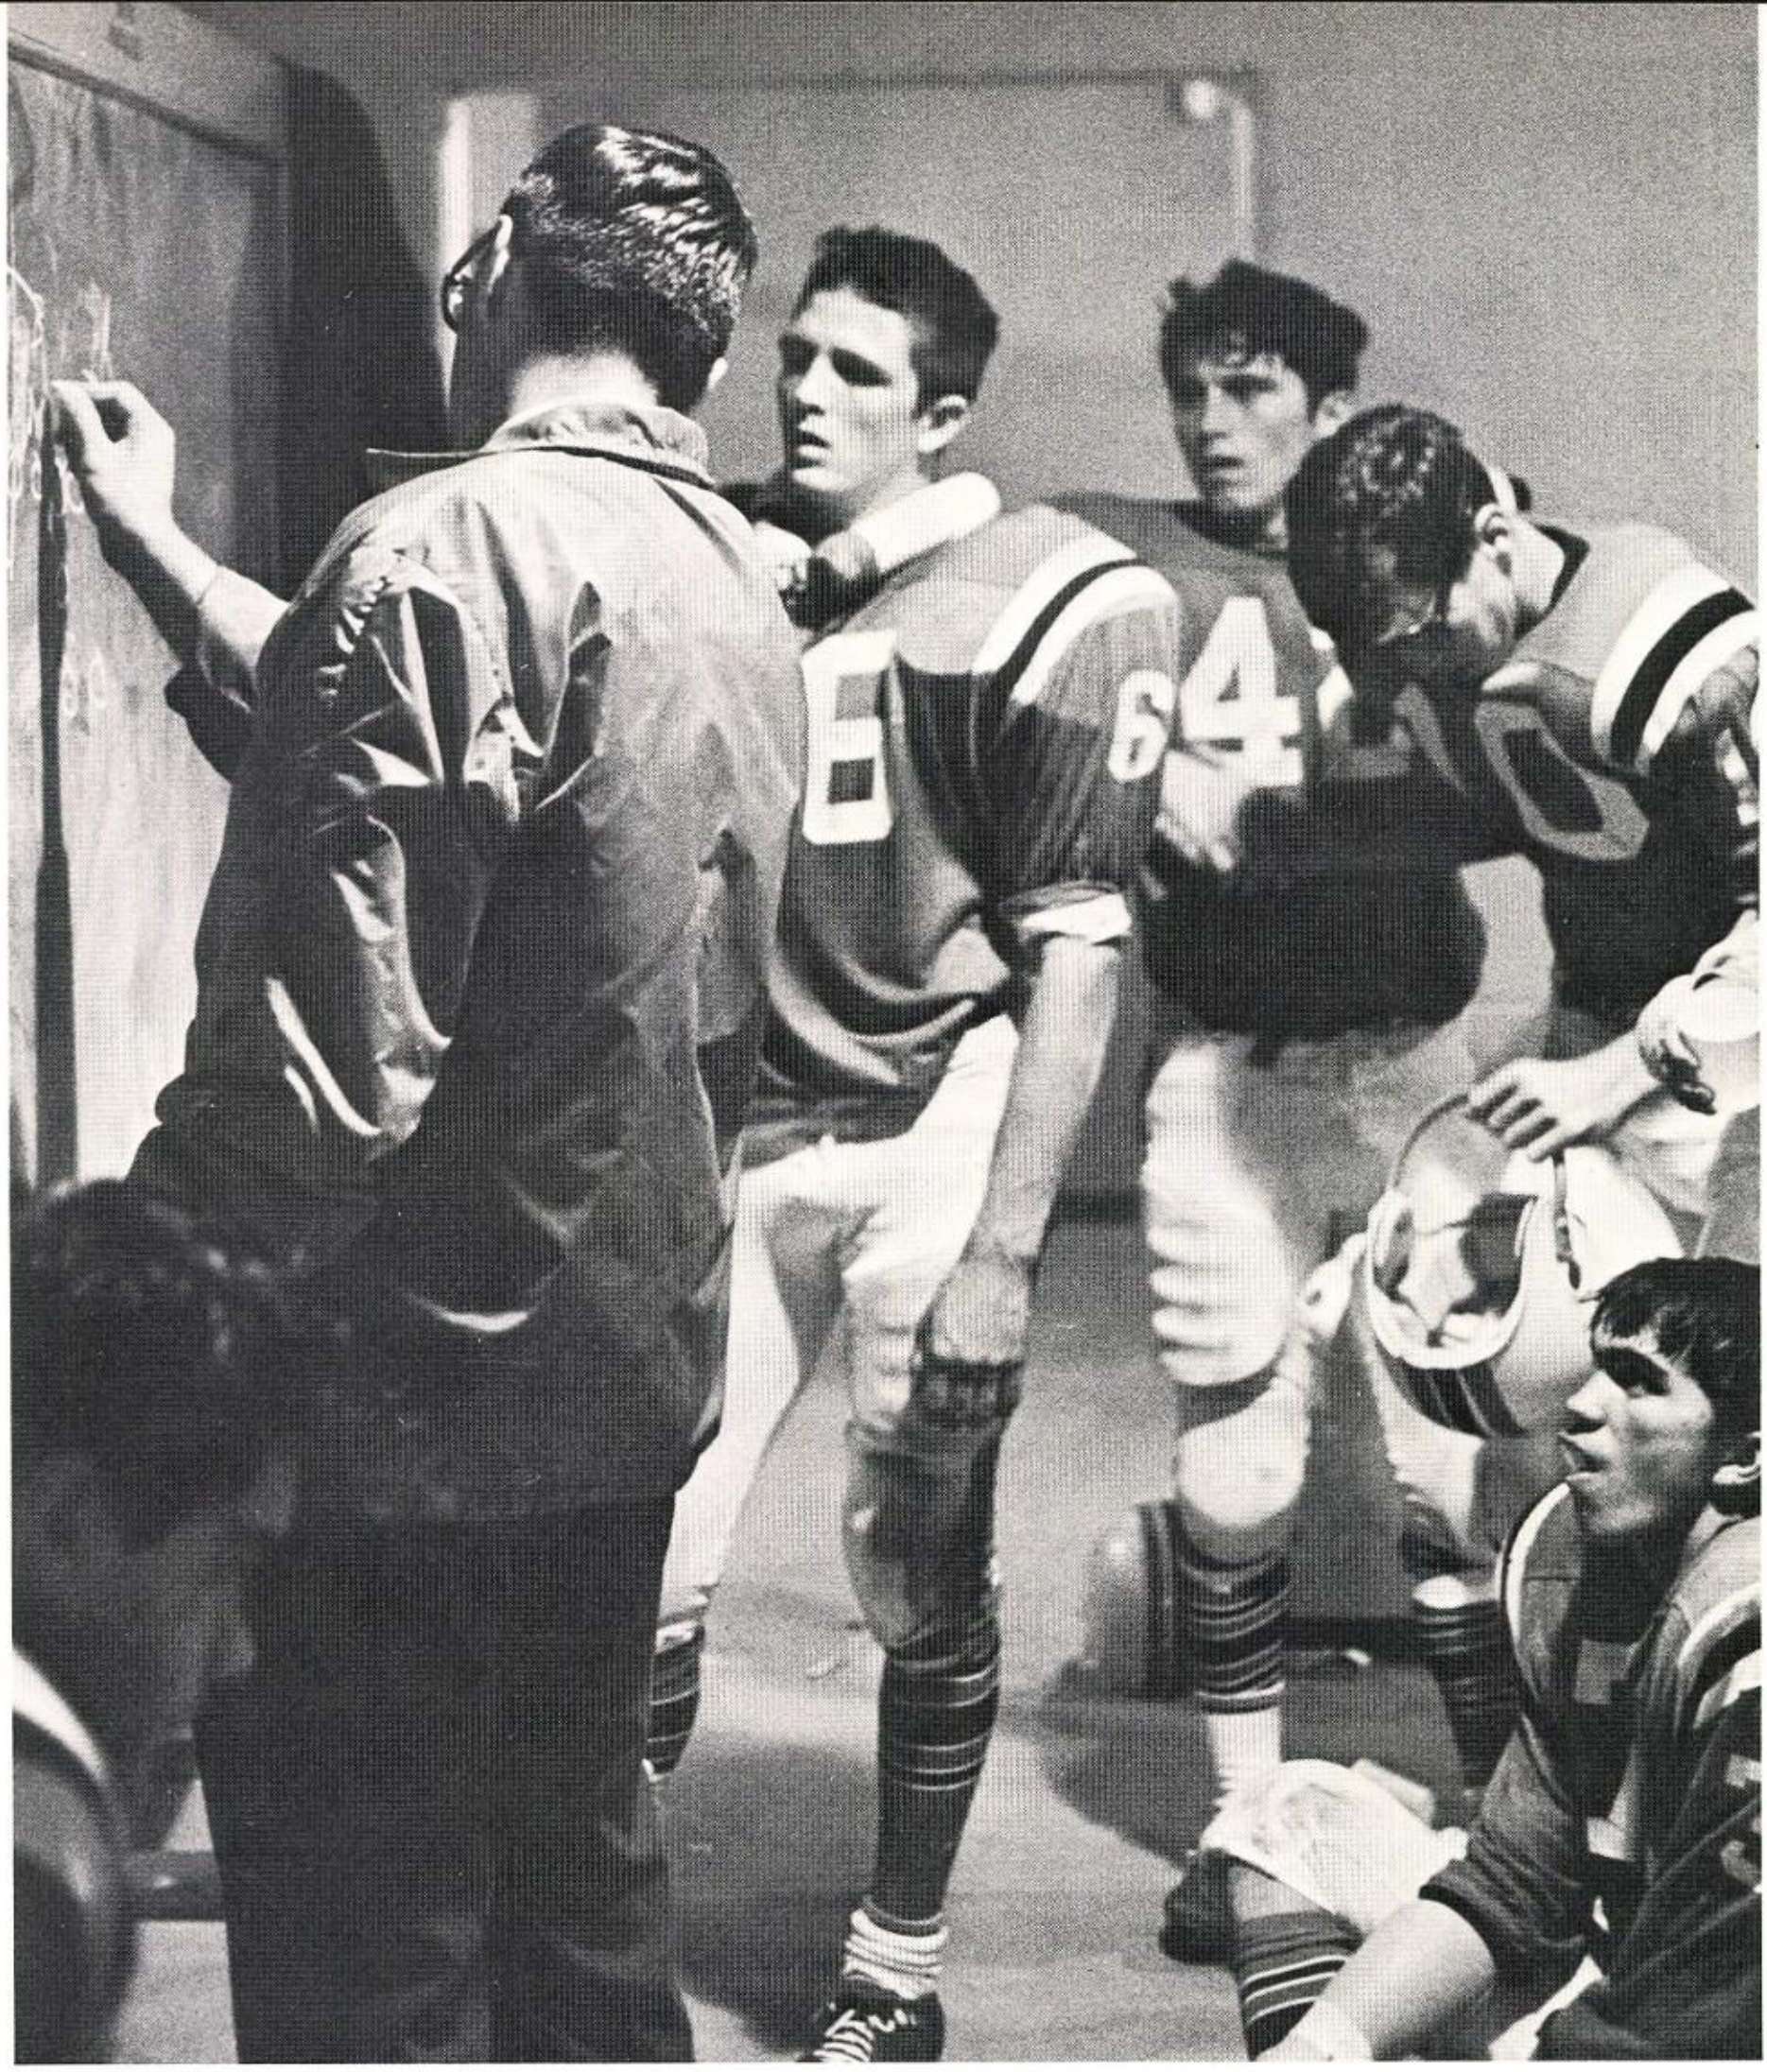
Hard physical exercise on the grounds helps relieve tension, and the private rooms offer a welcome relief to mentally and physically exhausted retreatants.

Retreat, then, is one final opportunity to try to learn to understand life before graduation throws you into it.





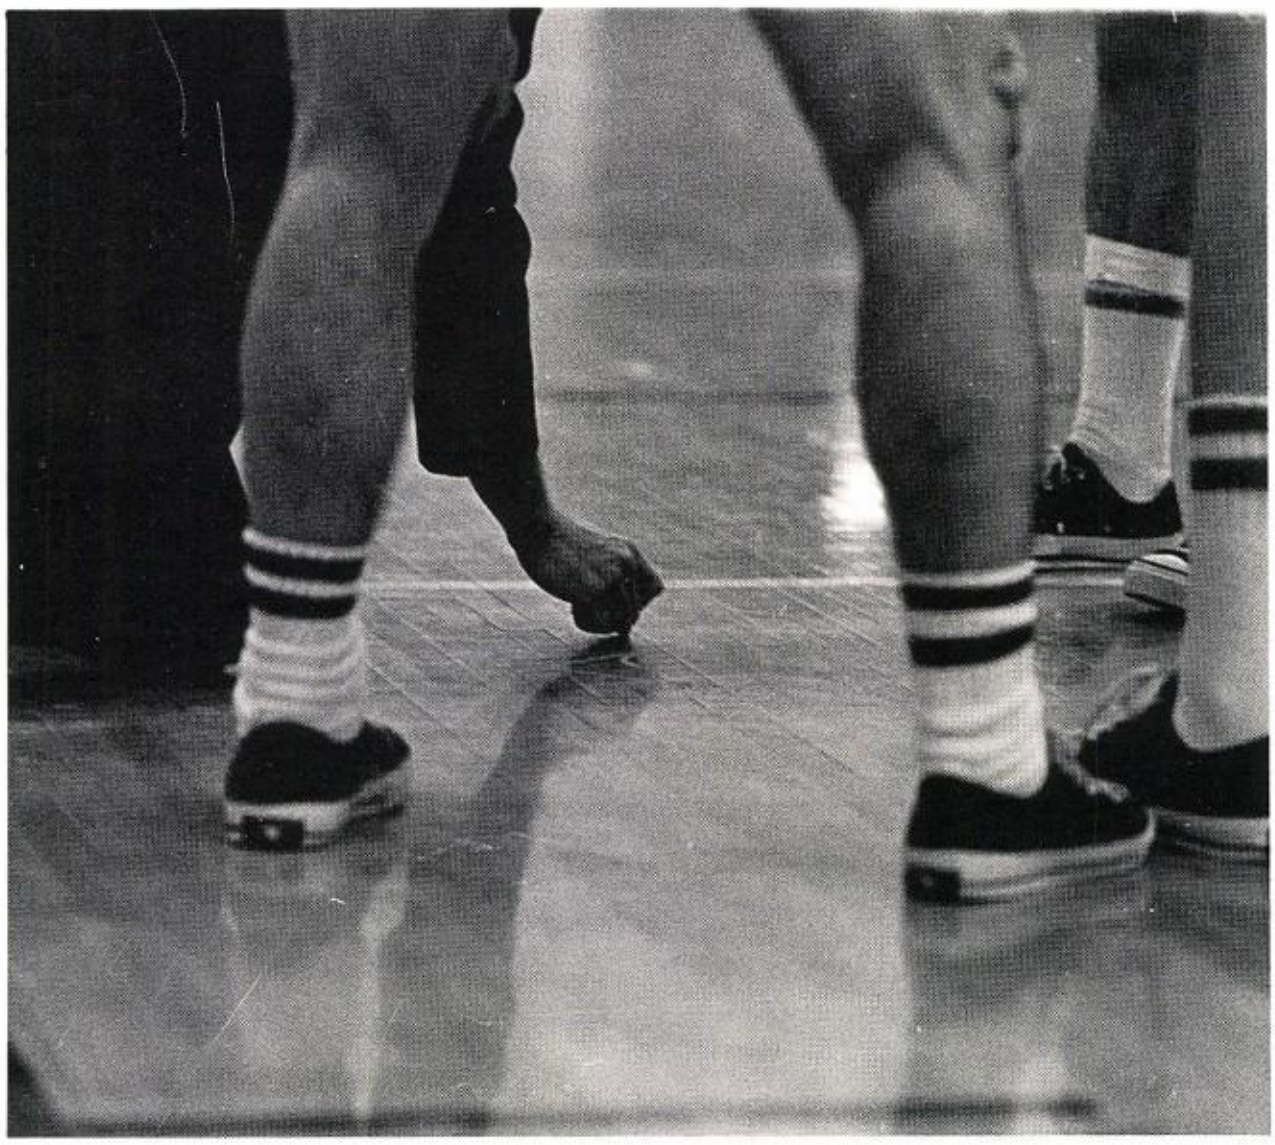


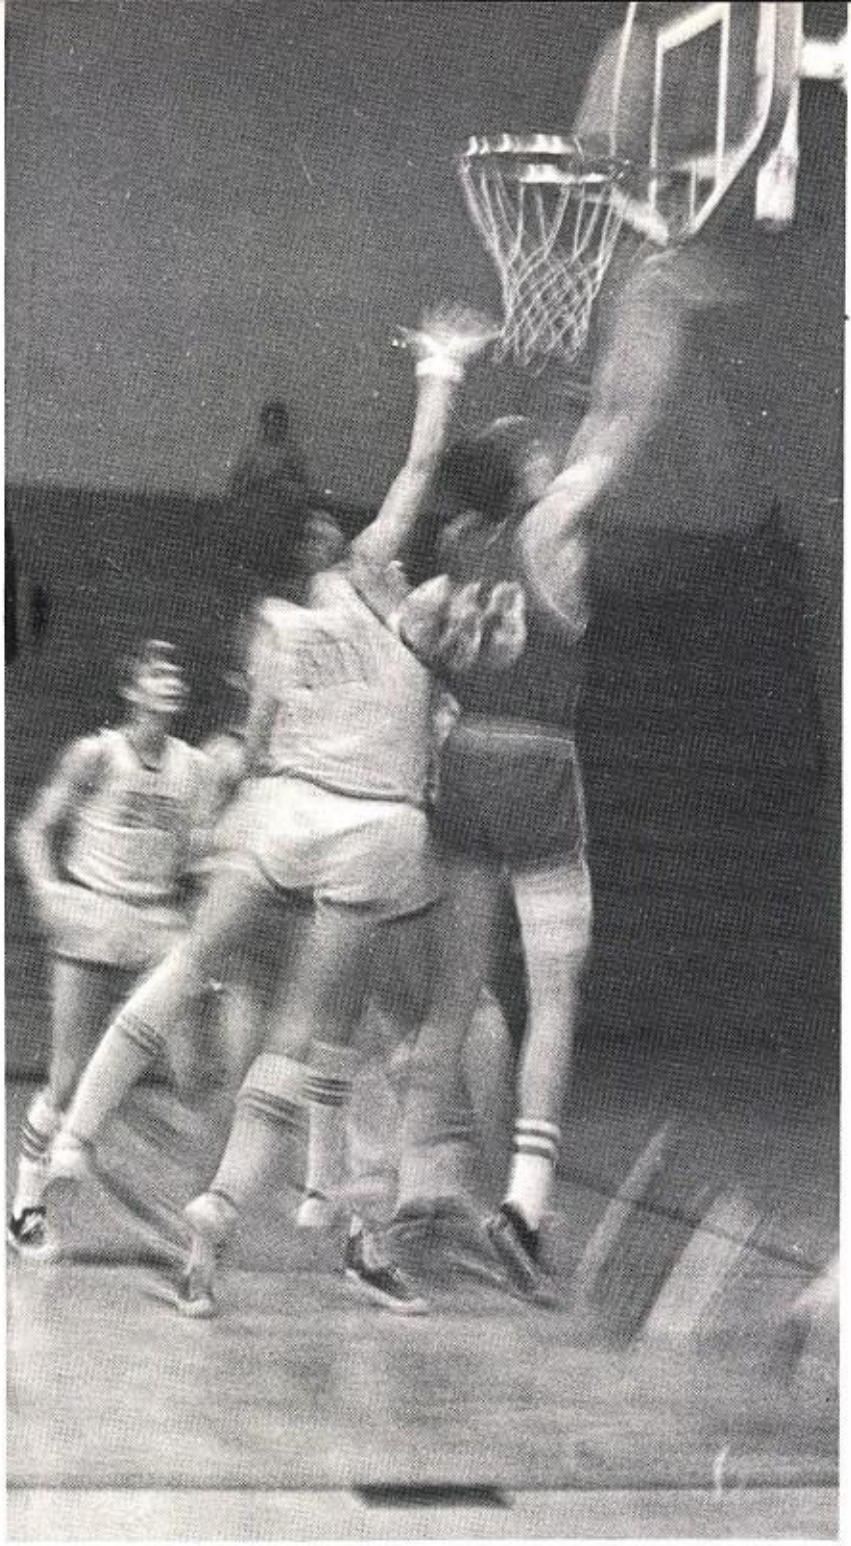


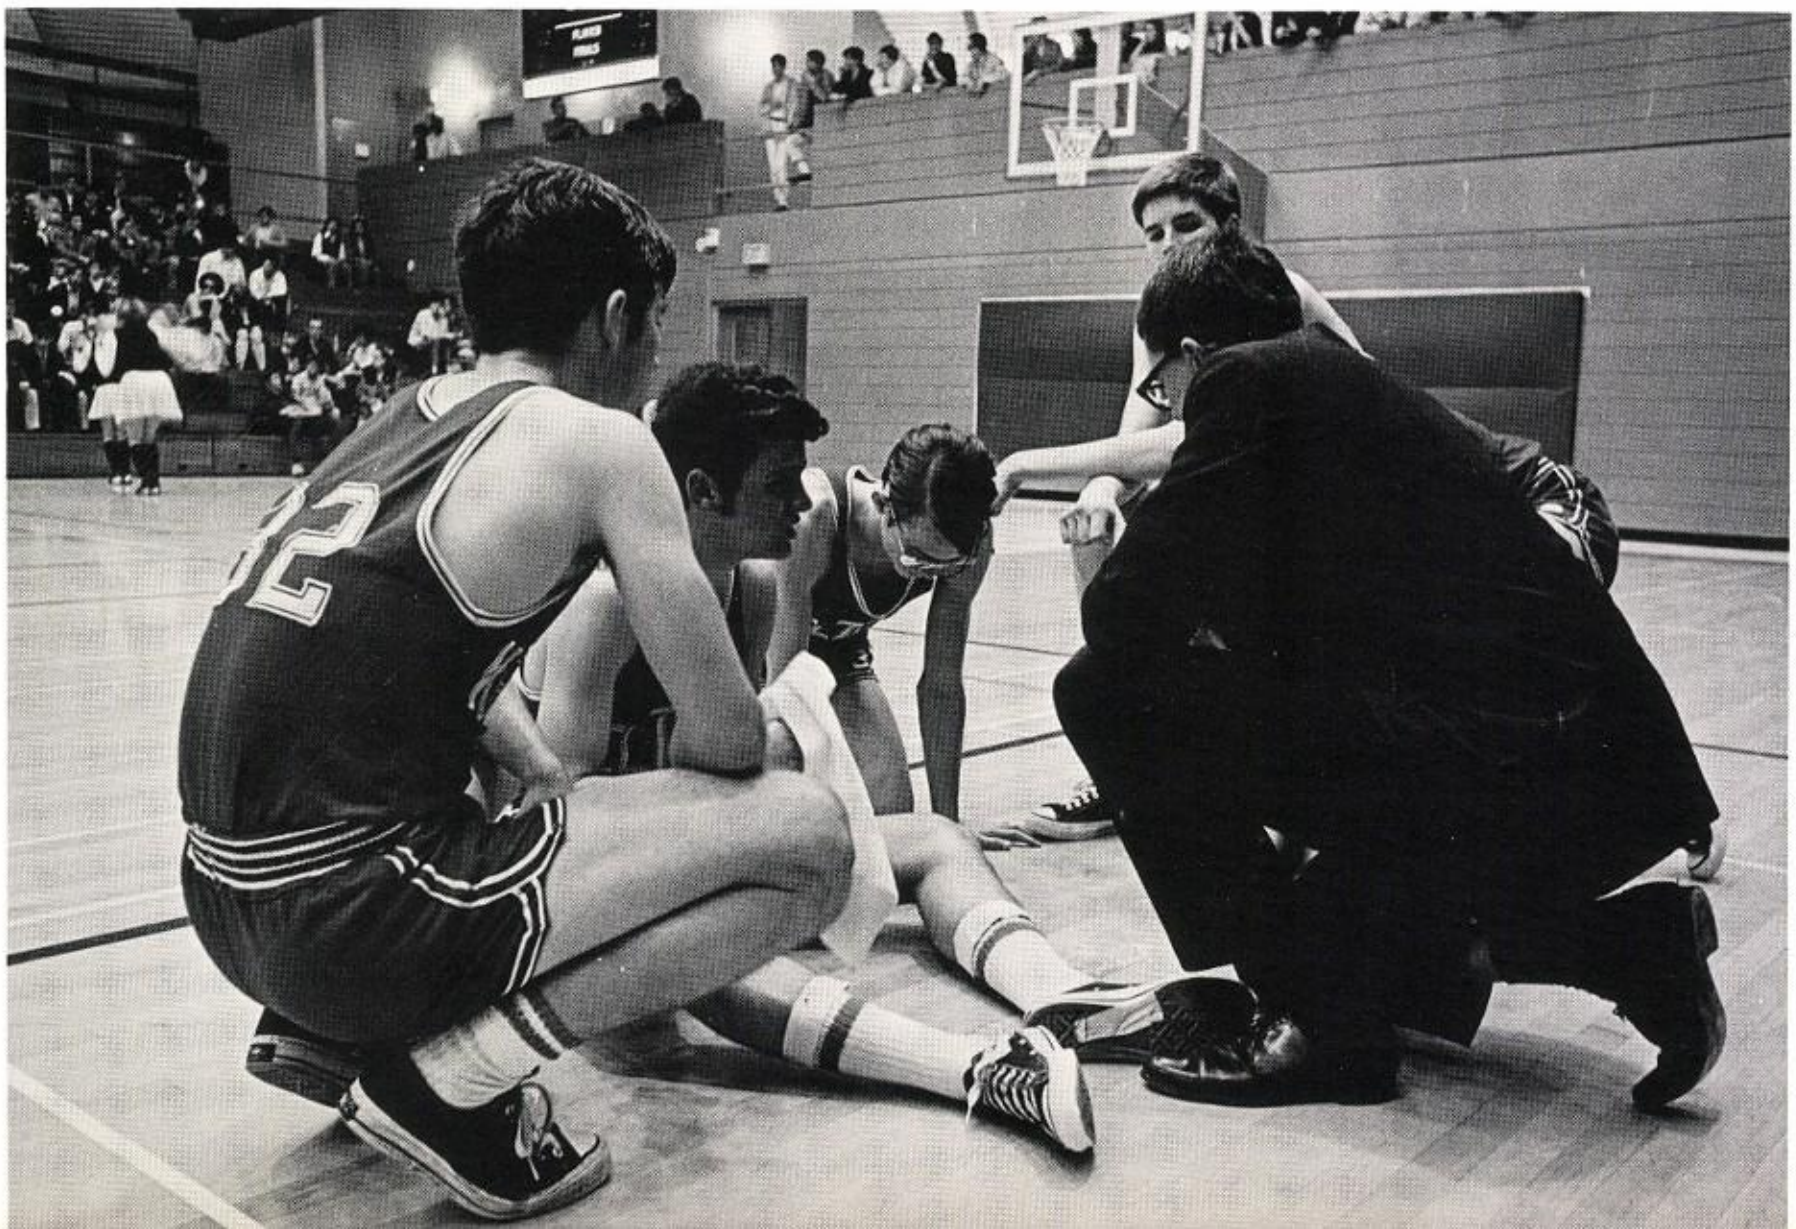
Loyal Kelley Fans had more than the usual things to be grateful for on Thanksgiving Day because the Comets had won the right to face the McAlester Buffs on the following day in the semi-finals of the state football play-offs. Our football Comets had won this berth against the tough McAlester team by winning the District 4AA Title.

The month of December is a busy and profitable one. The winter sports season begins with the Webster Wrestling Tournament. With a strong nucleus of five experienced Seniors and a state champion Junior, the Comets are recognized as one of the state's top powers by many noted coaches.

A plea for canned food is made early while the Seniors put the school into the Christmas spirit by decorating the tree in the cafeteria. The Christmas assembly begins the vacation on a cheerful note with the usual skits and tricks. The month is topped off with the annual varsity-alumni game.







January began with Eighth Grade Day. Eighth graders came to Kelley to see the students in action.

Vicki Valancius and Joe Eastman preside as girl and boy of the month. The Seniors selected Vicki and Joe for their outstanding qualities of leadership, service, scholarship, and character.

January marks the beginning of Kelley's audio-visual course. Each class sees a series of movies to broaden their knowledge of visual communication.

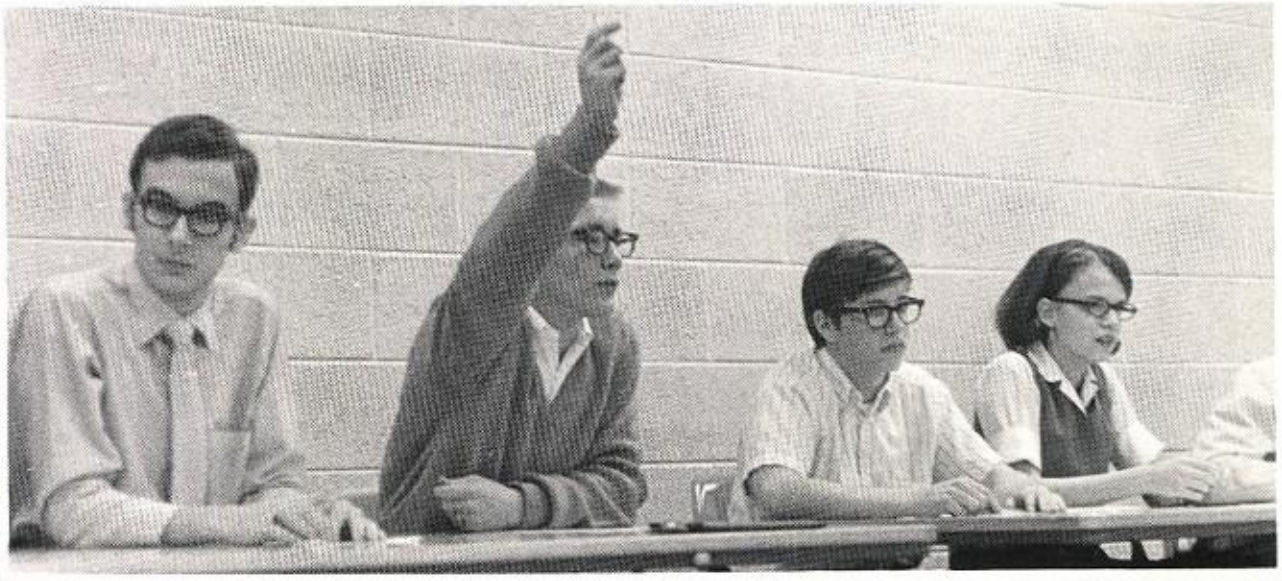
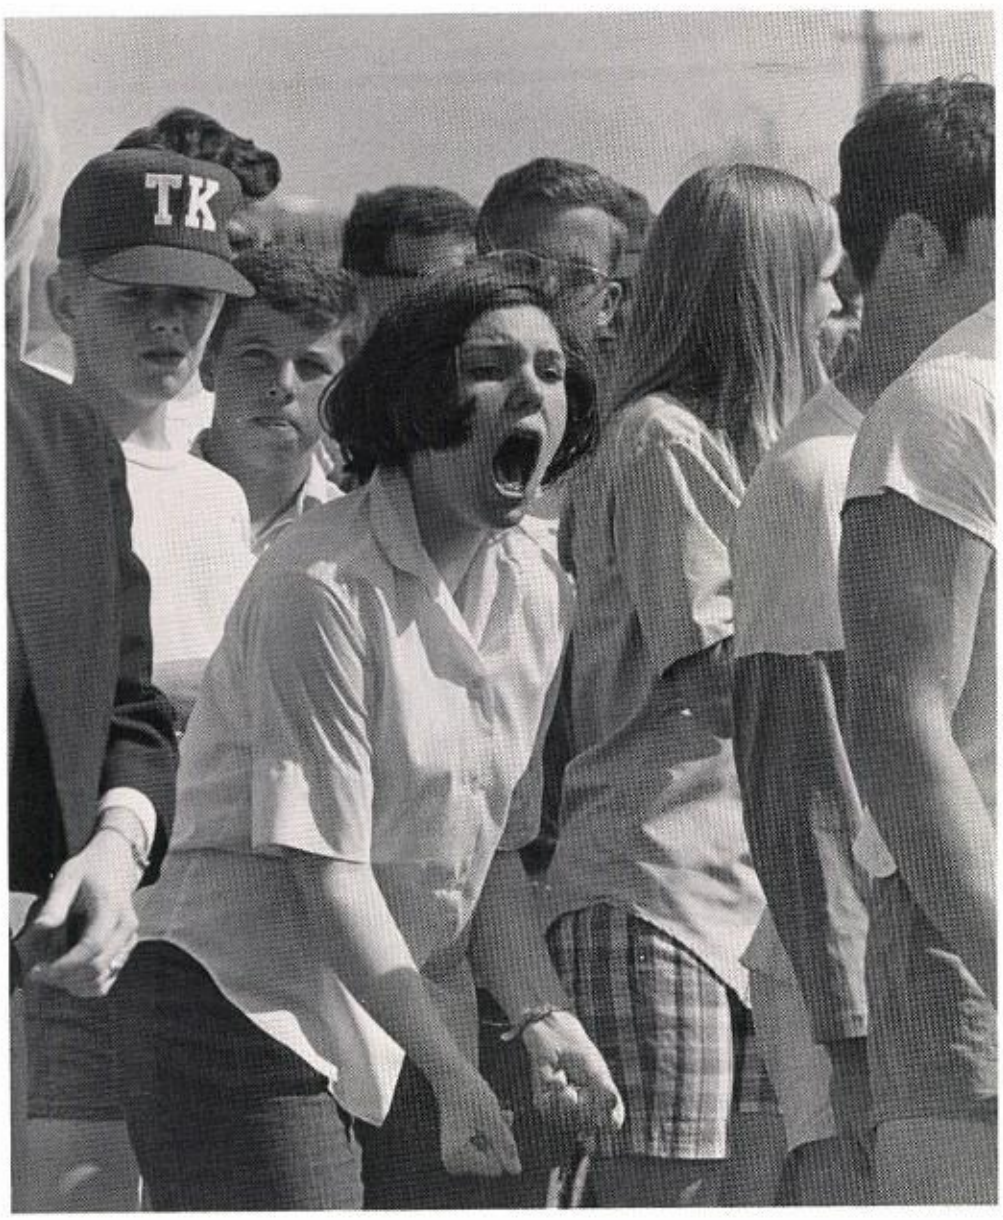
The Basketball and Wrestling Homecoming is an activity looked forward to by all Kelley students. The dance could be said to be a summation of the many months of hard work and determination by the two teams and the support given them by the girls. The Homecoming can be considered a time of pride and satisfaction at a job well done. The Seniors considered Chris Bernard, and Deborah Kratzer, February boy and girl of the month, symbolic of a time of many hours of work and sacrifice.

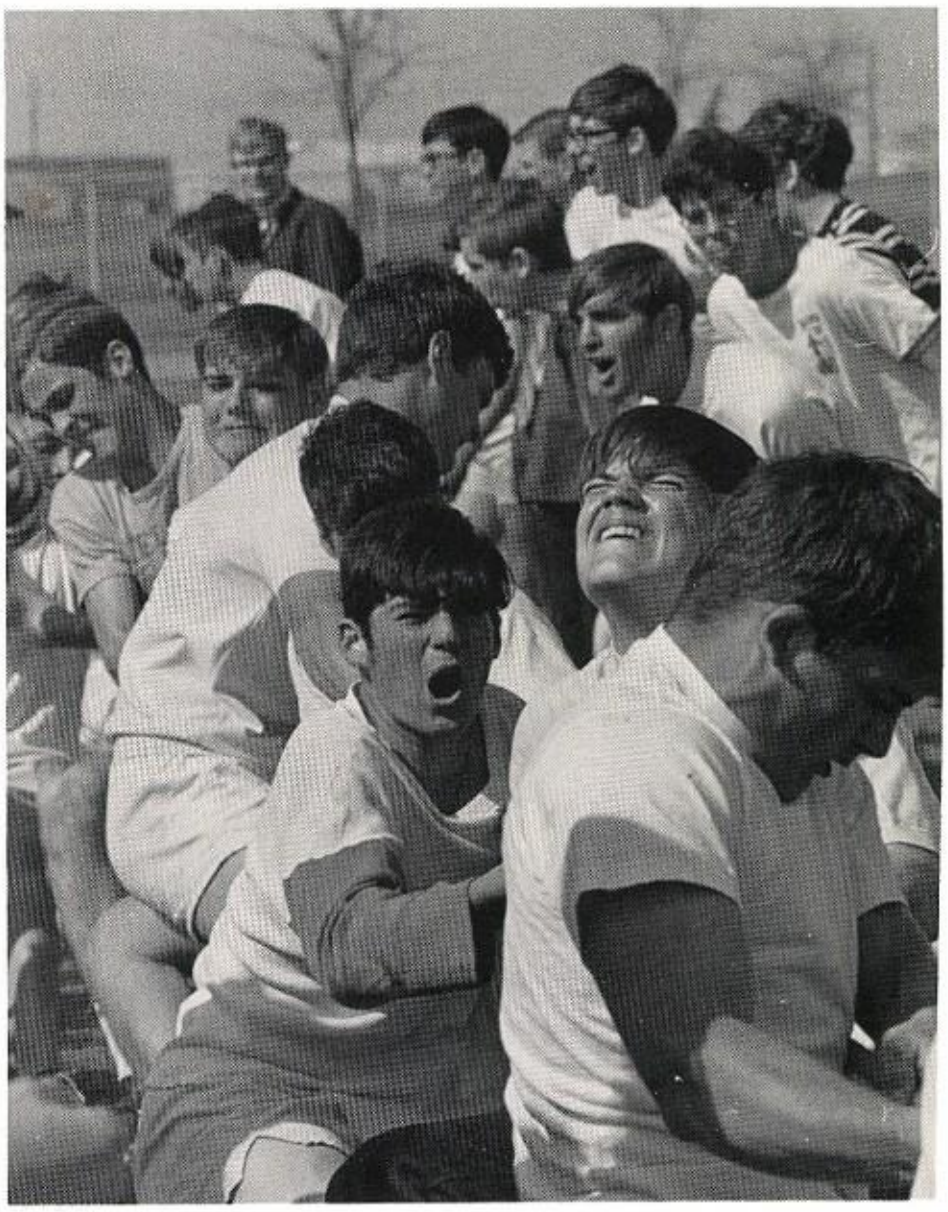
February is a time of apparent inactivity, a mid-winter lull. But during this time various organizations spend many hours in preparing spring activities. A good example of this is the Drama Club's preparation of Thornton Wilder's Our Town.

The Olympics, stretching out across a span of a month and a half, instills a feeling of spirit and competition in the participants that typifies the entire school year. Especially competitive are the feelings between the Juniors, the eventual winners, and the Seniors, who finish in second place. Marianne Griffin, who also performed at Carnegie Hall, was the winner of the Talent Show. Sports, artistic works, and other events spiced this year's Olympics.

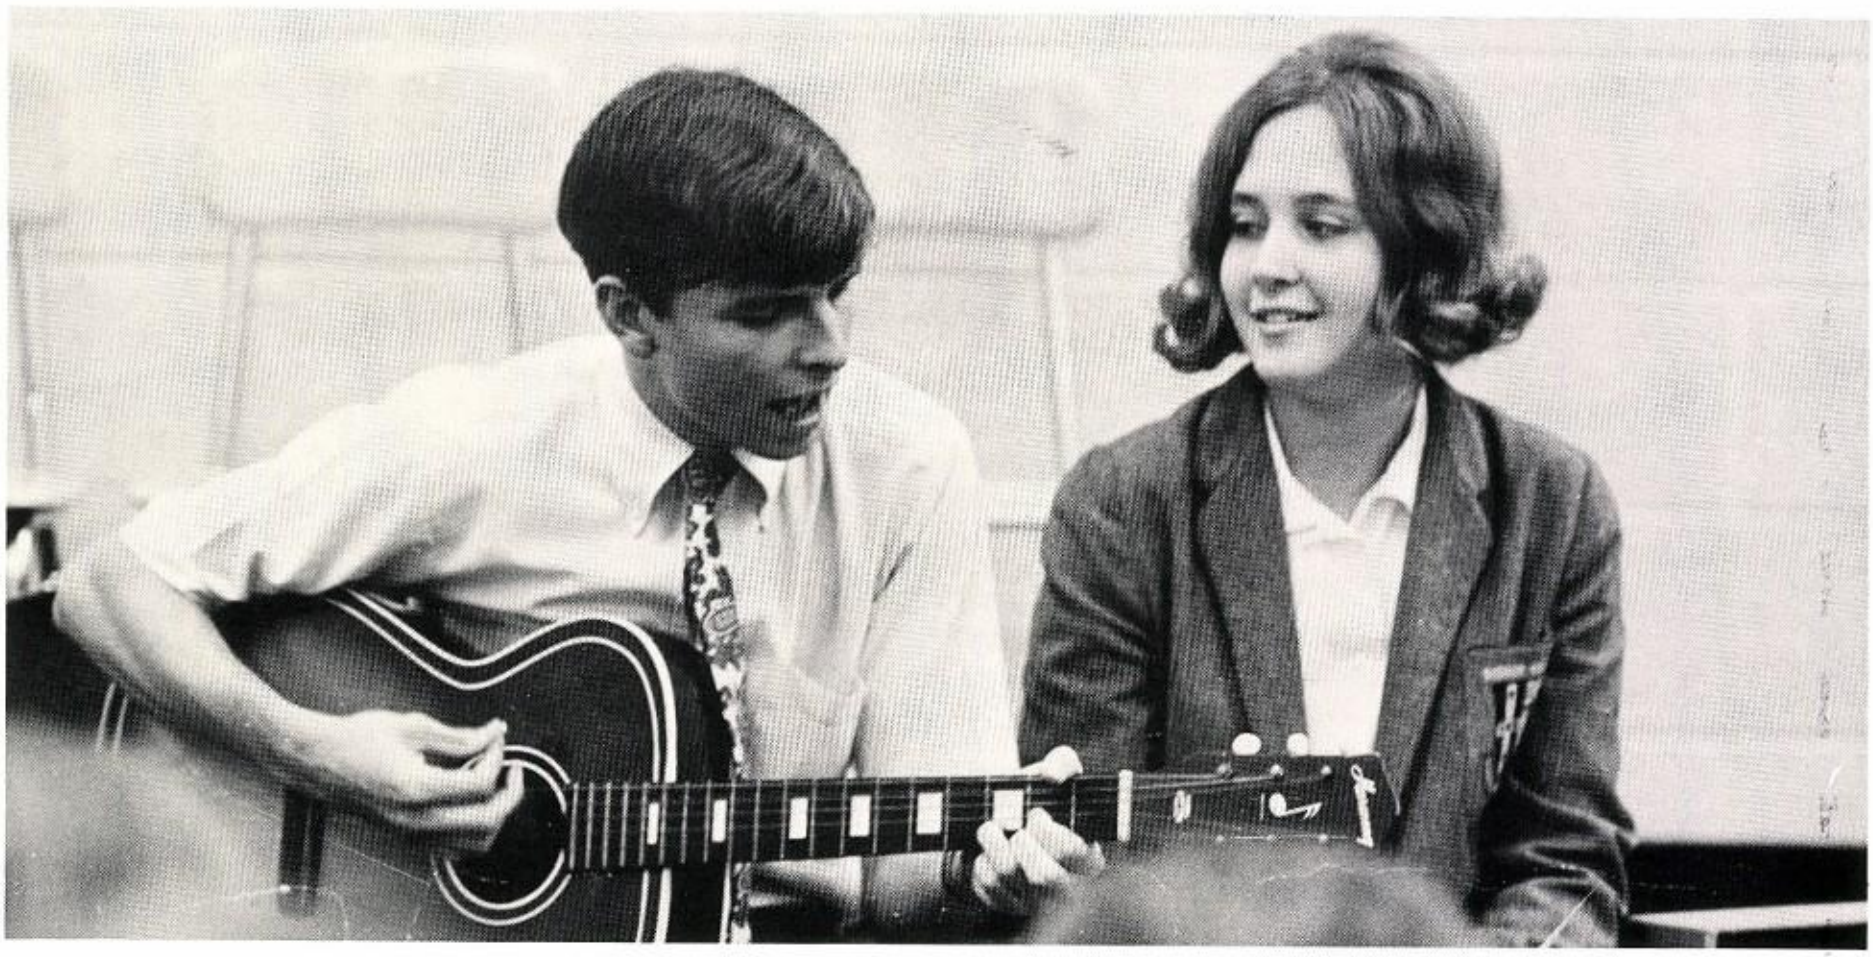


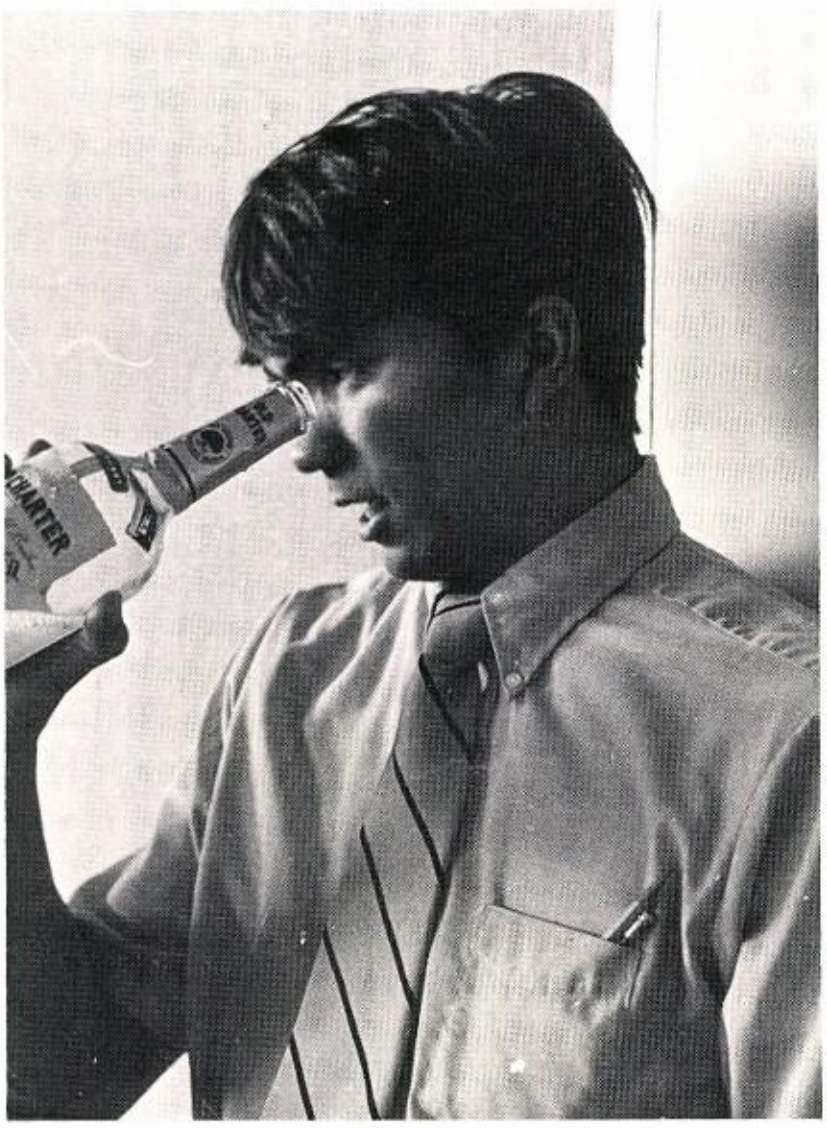


TK



This year the Senior Carnival was presented in connection with the class play. Under the capable leadership of Tim Sayon and Mary Klenda, the Senior Carnival was probably one of the most unifying projects of the Senior Class. Lisa Flusche and Dan Downey were selected boy and girl of the month for April, for their many hours of hard work and dedication to both the Carnival and the Play. One of the highlights of the Carnival was the Art and Architecture Show presented by David Glover, Vincent Mudd, and Tim Hackett. Included in the show were various charts showing the future of downtown Tulsa.





CHARTER

Enhancing the usual Kelley tradition of a class play, the Seniors presented a Broadway musical hit, The Roar of the Greasepaint, The Smell of the Crowd in the new Kelley Arena Theater. Excellent performances were turned in by Dan Downy, Trent Rhyne, Sharan Shanahan, Joe Eastman, Tim Sayon, Sheryl Roach and the Urchins.

The 1969 Junior-Senior Prom was An Evening at Tara. A Southern theme was presented in a very appropriate setting, the Southern Hills Country Club. The Dynamic Soul provided the evening's entertainment.

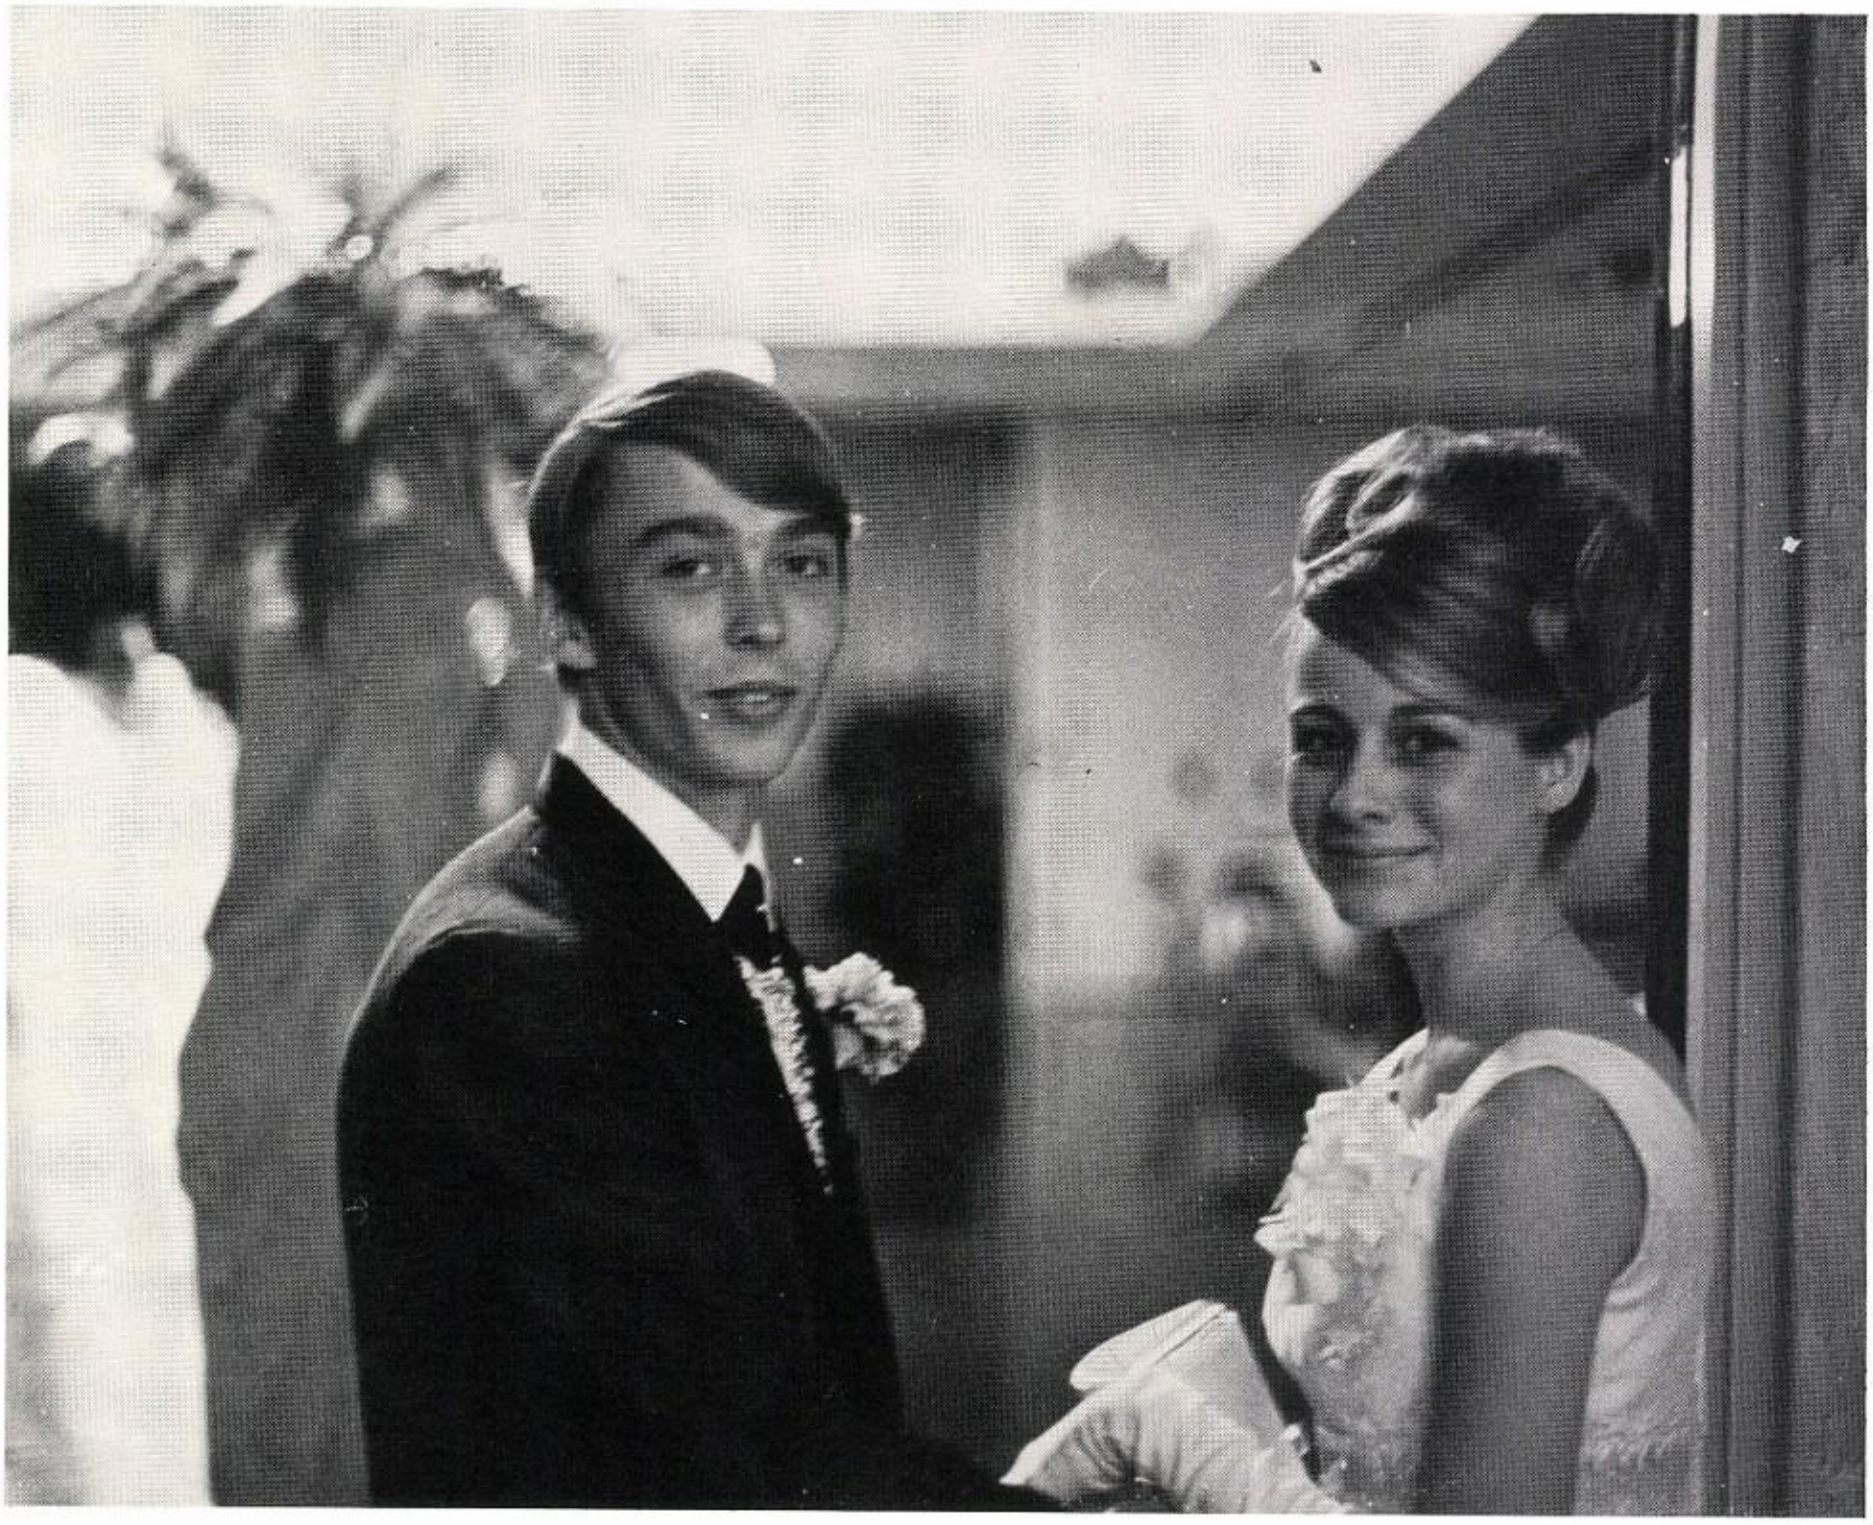
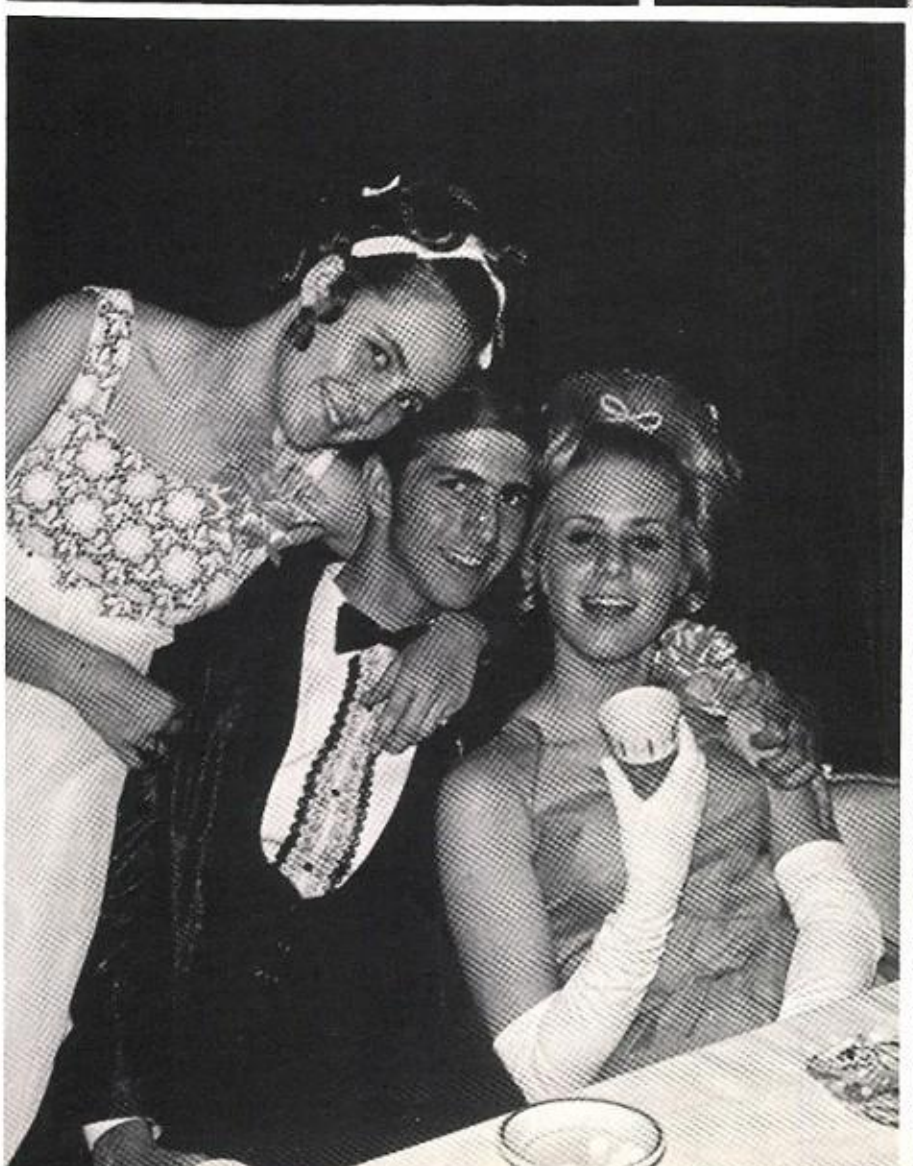
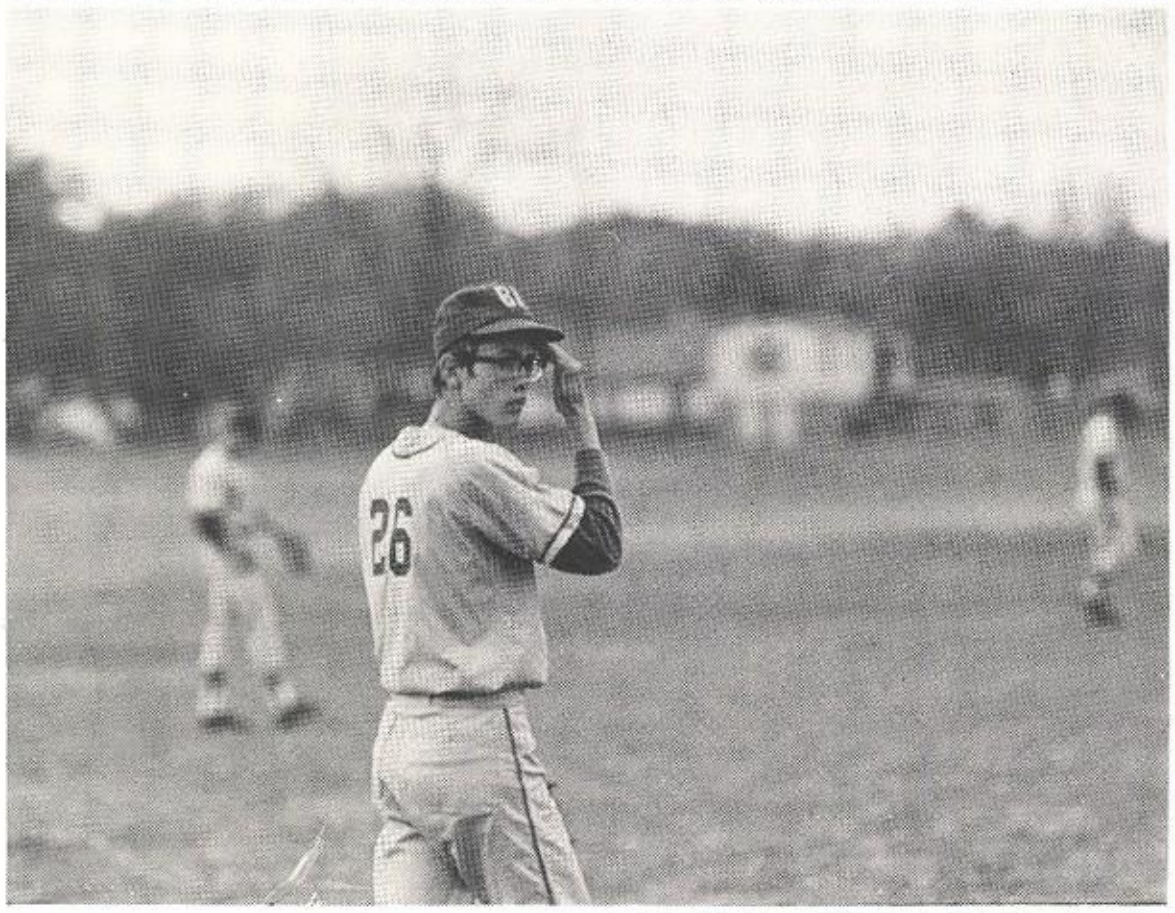
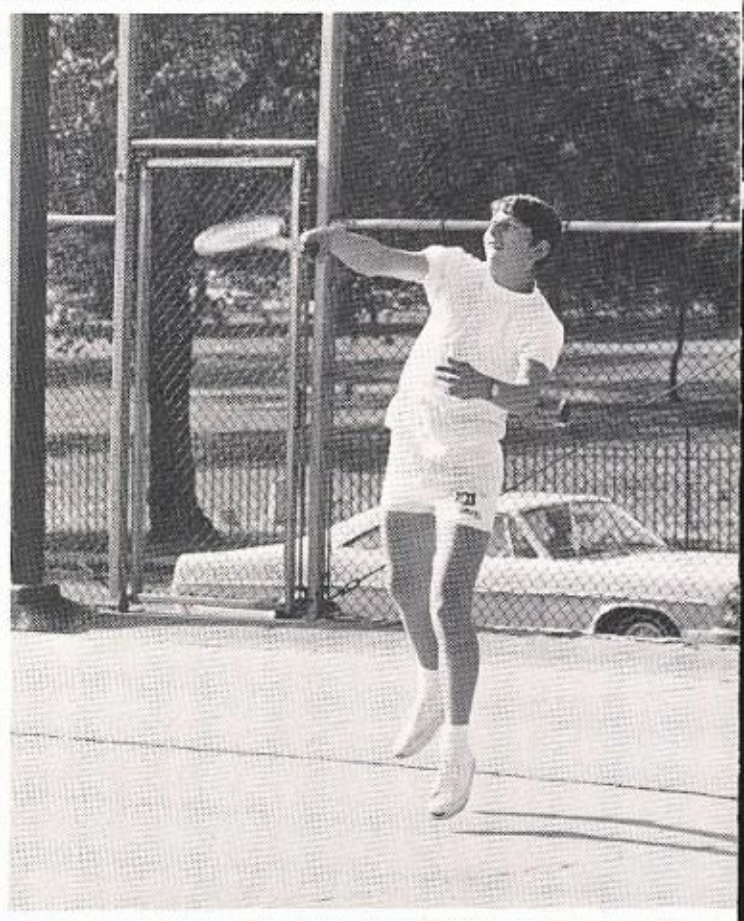
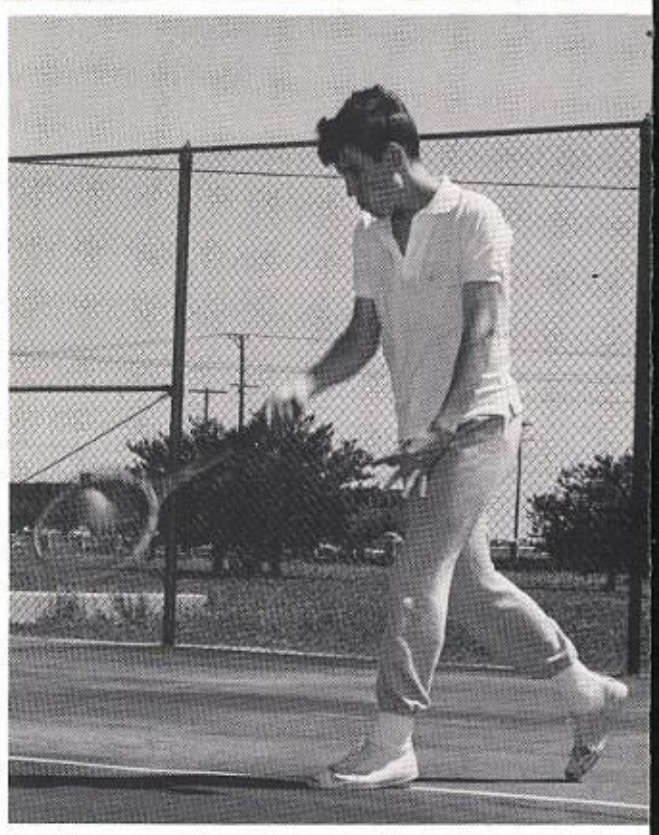
The highlight of the evening was the presentation of Mr. and Miss Kelley, Jim Lepley and Mary Pat McDowell. The court was made up of the Boys and Girls of the Month. The identity of Mr. and Miss Kelley was kept a secret until the presentation at 10:00. The evening was climaxed by a spirited after-party.







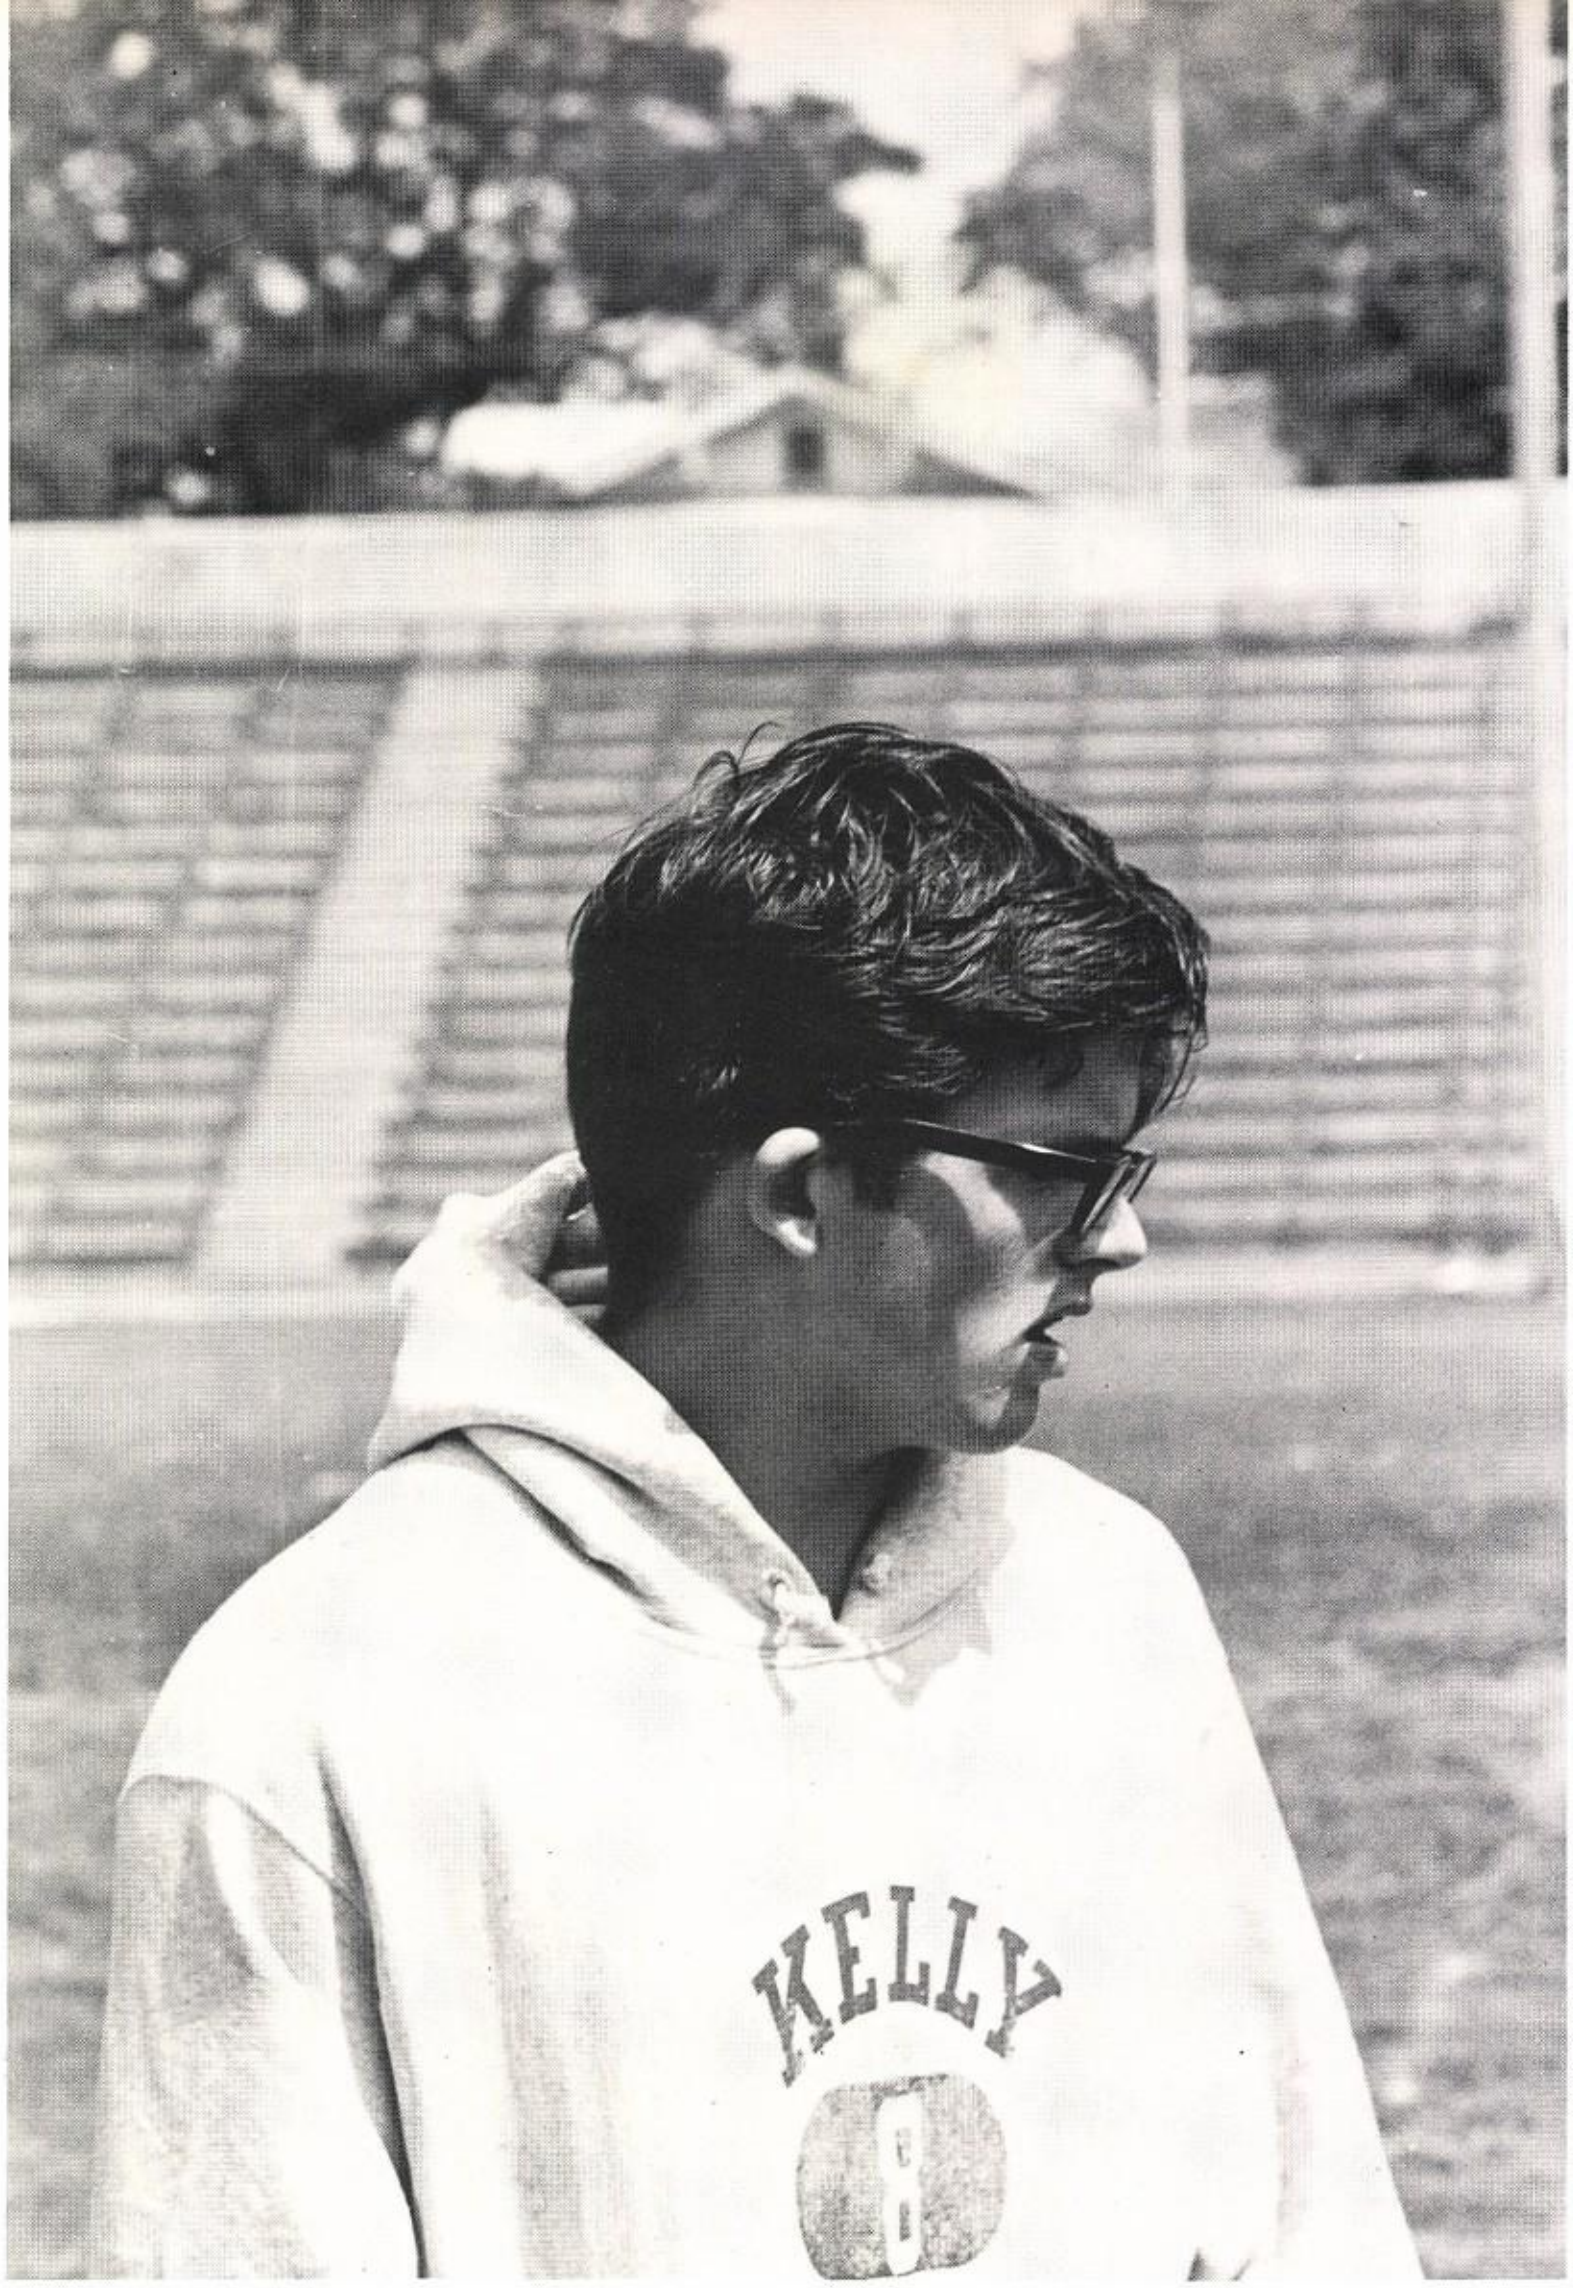




When the grass begins to green and the air warms, the spring athletes come into focus. Though not as widely supported, they showed they have the will and determination to be a great part of the Kelley student picture.

The baseball team proved to be a determined and spirited team but met with many frustrations. Steve Clancy emerged as Kelley's first all state player.

Spring also brought the May Girl and Boy, Linda Parker and Steve Morelli. Linda gave many hours of service as president of Anchor Club. Steve was active in wrestling, tennis, and the yearbook.



Left weak by graduation, the Kelley thinclads performed admirably. Coached by John Heckenkemper and Chuck Dreas, the Comets lost their only dual meet by a third of a point. They finished third at Sapulpa, second at Muskogee, second in the Six Lakes Conference, and third at Regionals.

FRESHMEN

What I ask for is absurd:
that life shall have a meaning
What I strive for is impossible:
that my life shall acquire a meaning
I dare not believe,
I do not see how
I shall ever be able to believe that I am not alone.

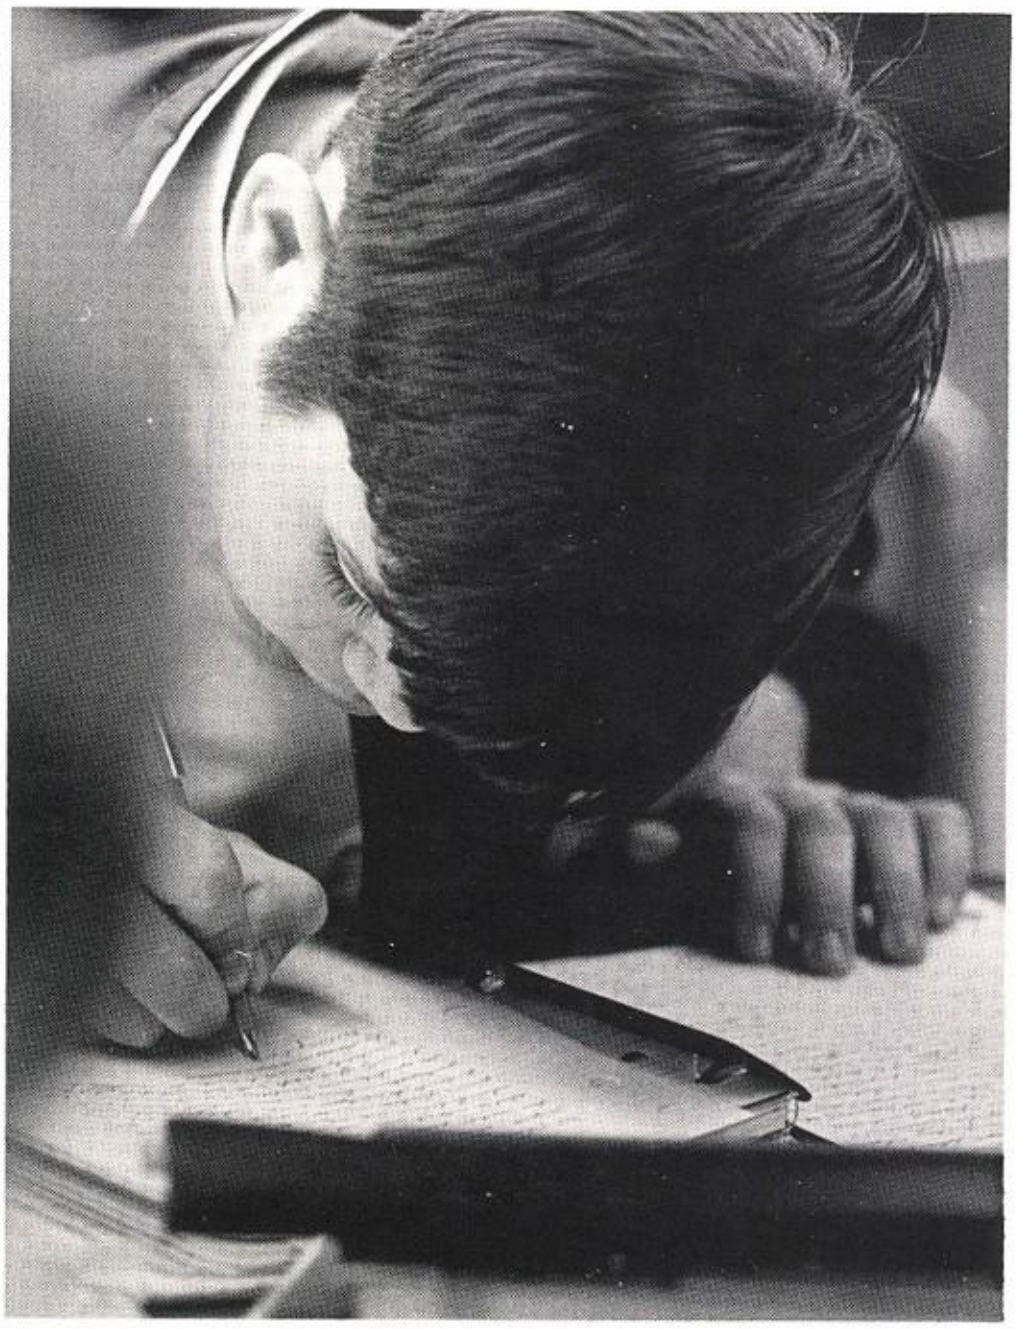
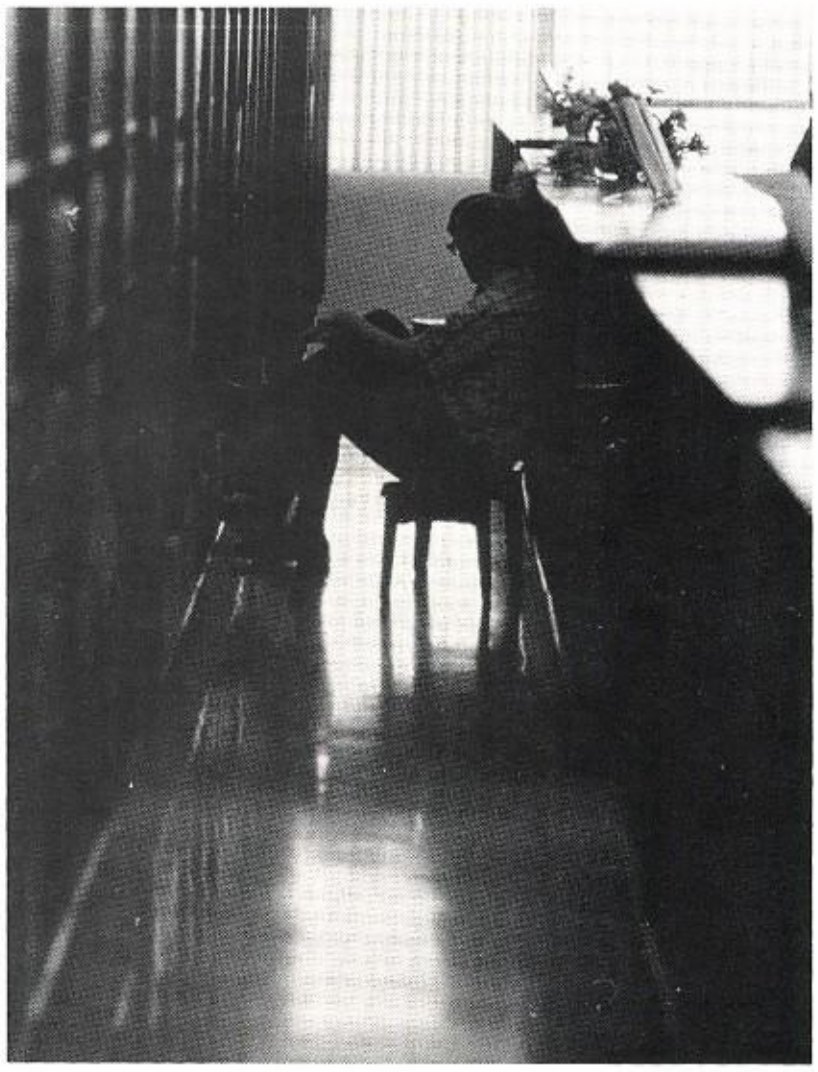
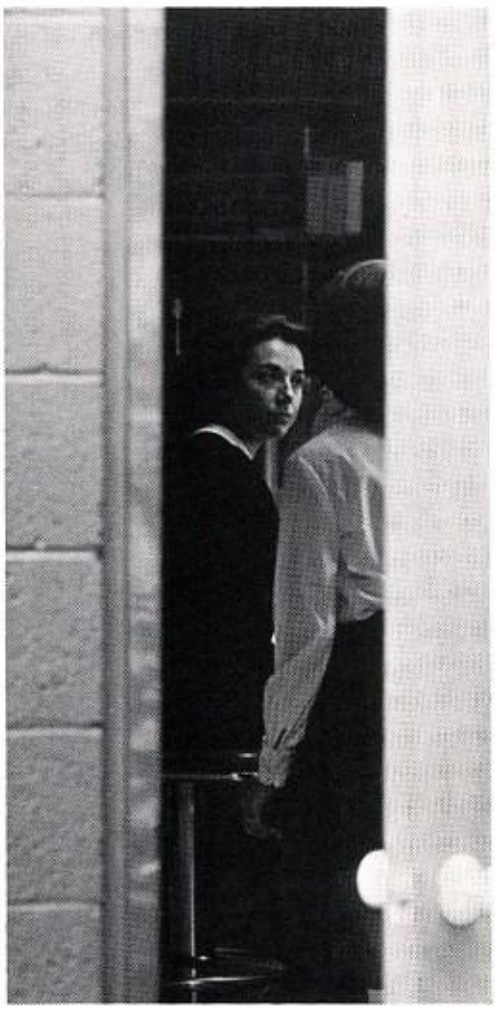
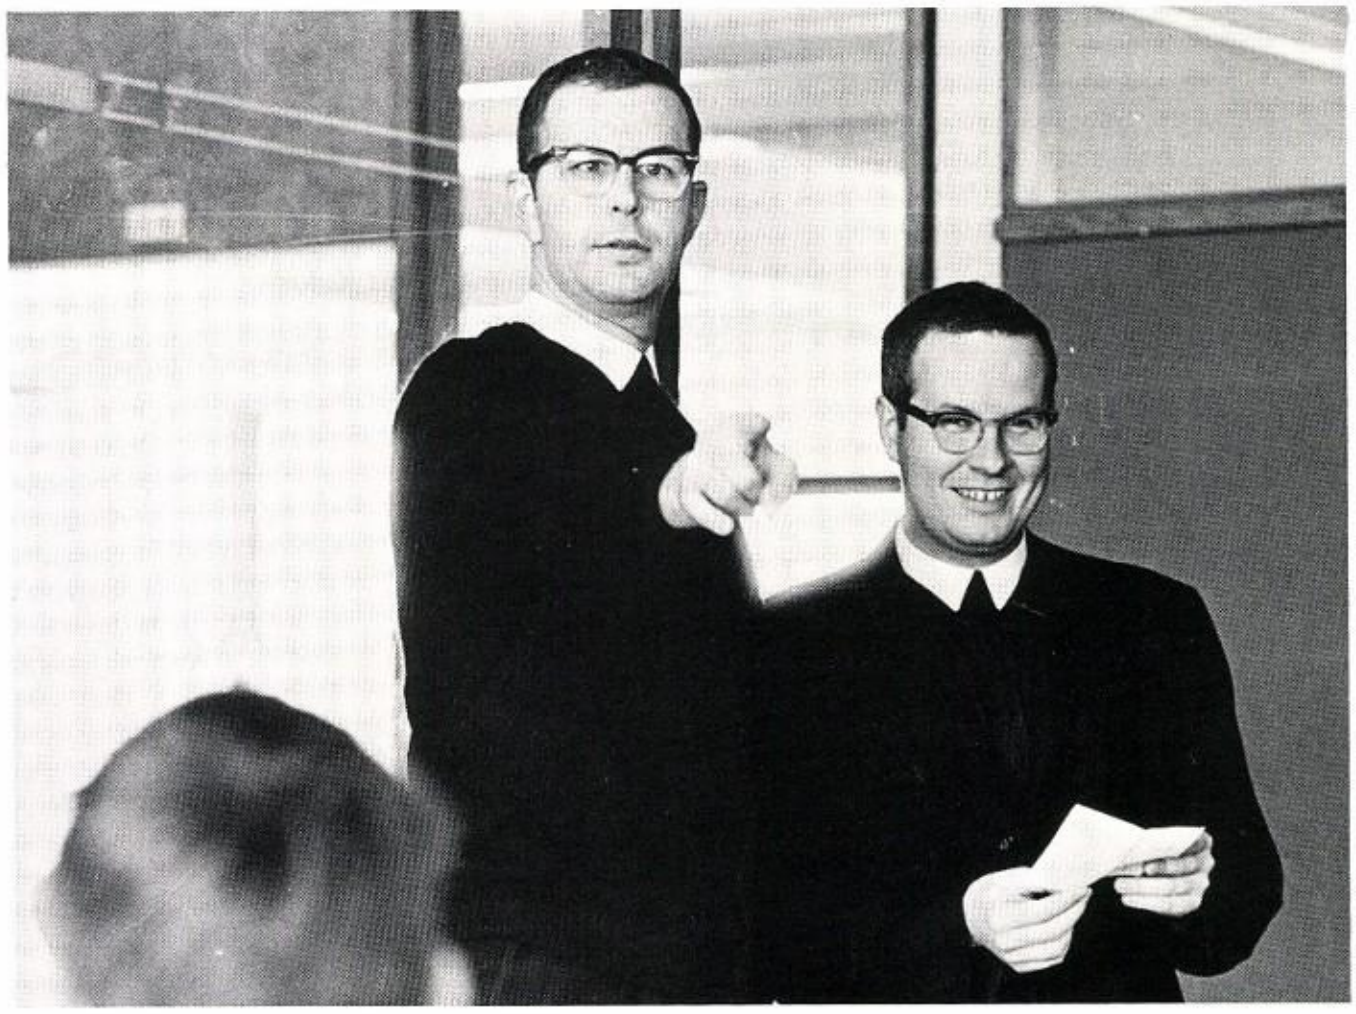
Kelley's Academic Program

instills the desire to probe, to question, to learn. The student meets many challenges each day, through rigorous testing and open discussion. Through the discipline of math and science, emphasis is placed on preparation for college work and for the business world. The ability to communicate clearly through discussion and writing is developed by the English department. Studies in theology search for a true Christian meaning in our life today. Social Studies presents the important concepts that relate to our civilization. Through these, key issues are presented and opinions are encouraged to present a fuller perspective to the student.









. . . ACTIVITIES

service, character and scholarship are the makings of a member of the National Honor Society. To qualify for this award, a student must be active in all phases of school life.

Under the leadership of President Jim Moore, Vice-President Vicki Valancius, Secretary Regina Langford, and Treasurer Dennis Krafft, the Society maintained a tutoring service.

Early in May new officers for the 1970 year were elected with Joe Ries, president; Robert Hayes, vice-president; Ada Ann Rhodes, secretary; and Kevin Finan, treasurer.

Kelley's Student Council

provided and encouraged total student involvement through its two major projects—the Fall Revue and expanded Olympics. Rounding out the year's activities were Howdy Week, a novel Christmas Assembly, Safety Week, and the OASC campaign for Vice-President. This campaign proved successful and resulted in the election of Jim Bullock as Vice-President representing Kelley. The new Student Council officers are Doug Edwards as President; Greg Marzec, Treasurer; Kathy Herschel, Corresponding Secretary; Patty Moore, Recording Secretary; and Chuck Begin as Vice-President.

Another Great Season

marked Head Coach Charles Dreas' third year at Kelley. This year's 9-2 season brought his three year total to 23-8. After several weeks of hard summer practice, the Comets showed their power in defeating the Jenks Trojans by a score of 29-6. This game was followed by a 7-0 victory over Okmulgee in 100 degree heat. The third game of the season was a 20-0 victory over Six Lakes conference co-favorite Sand Springs. This game was followed by victories over Tahlequah 32-7, Broken Arrow 16-0, and Miami 21-0. Then came Pryor who surprised the Comets early in the game with a touchdown and thus became the first team of the year that the Comets trailed. But Kelley didn't die and came back to win 16-6. With the Conference title under their belts, the Comets suffered their first defeat of the season 14-0 in the mud and rain at Oklahoma City Southeast. A 14-0 victory over the Irish of McGuiness gave the Comets the impetus to defeat a fired up East Central but it wasn't enough to stop State Champs McAlester as the Comets lost 36-8.

Winning

is what makes the Comet Harriers go. With little or no active support from the student body, the men of the cross country team ran to their second straight State Championship, and second straight undefeated season.

Their first test was a victory over Memorial and Rogers in a triangular meet. Led by Marshall Brantmeier the Comets took third in the Edison INV., first in the Sequoyah INV., first in the Grant Six Mile Relay and first at the O.B.U. INV. This year's 6-0 season brought Coach John Heckenkemper's four year record to 35-3. Dennis Duffy and David Campbell followed close behind Marshall and placed sixth and ninth respectively. Salty Bill Ward and Joe Lepley also made a good showing and completed the list of team scorers. Kevin Finan, and late comer Don Buthod made up the rest of the varsity team.

The Kelley Comets

opened their season with a shining victory over Bristow, but after that, inexperience and the lack of a true team leader hurt them severely. With a void left by the graduation of last year's five starters, basketball mentor Jim Choate was forced into fielding a team with only two lettermen returning from the previous year. In this underclassmen laden squad the team relied heavily on the all-around playing of all-conference center Stan Weber, the sharpshooting of Mike McGivern, rebounding by Bob Hayes, the ball-handling of Jim Lepley, and the fiery play of Tom Zizzi.

Lettermen were: Seniors John Hotaling, Jim Lepley, and Steve Clancy; Juniors Mike McGivern, Bob Hayes, Stan Weber, Tom Zizzi, Steve Gaddis. Despite this year's poor showing, the young Comets gained invaluable experience and next year should be one of Kelley's finest teams.

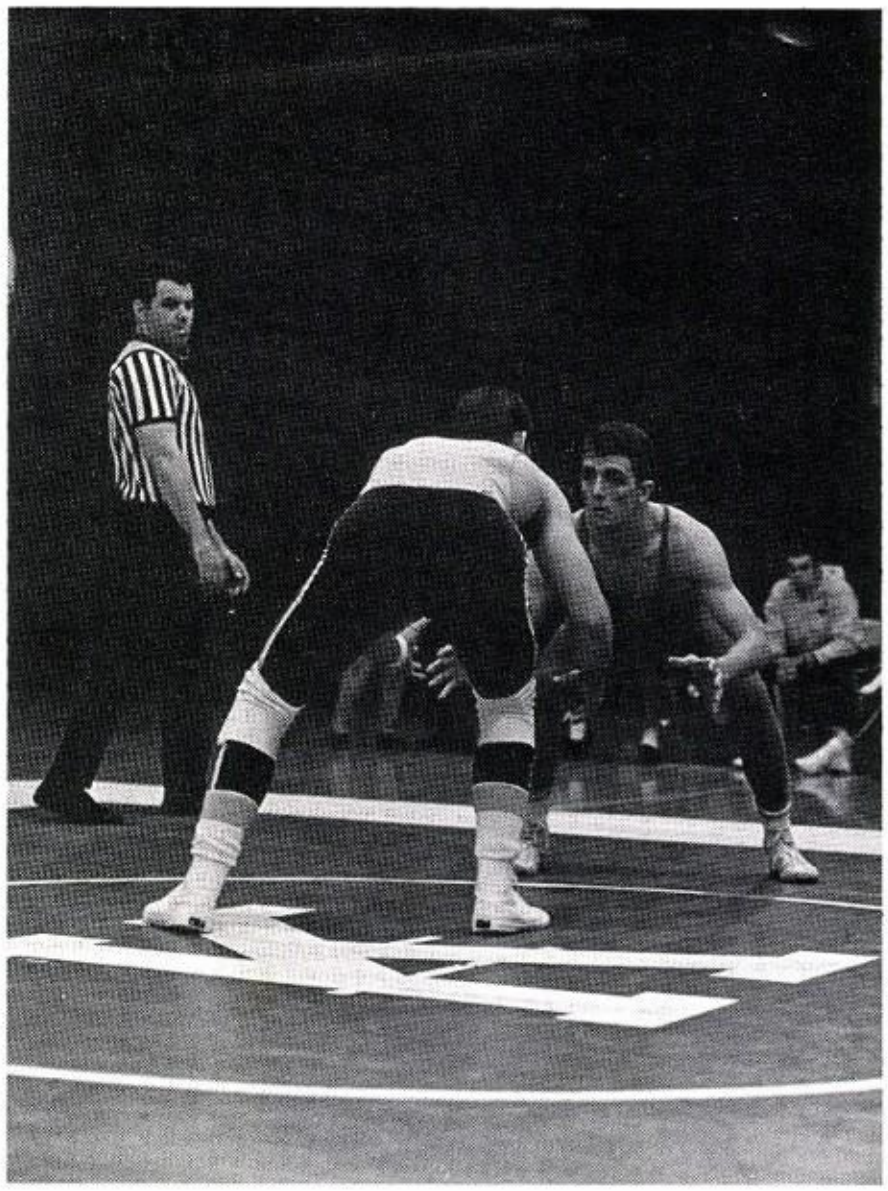
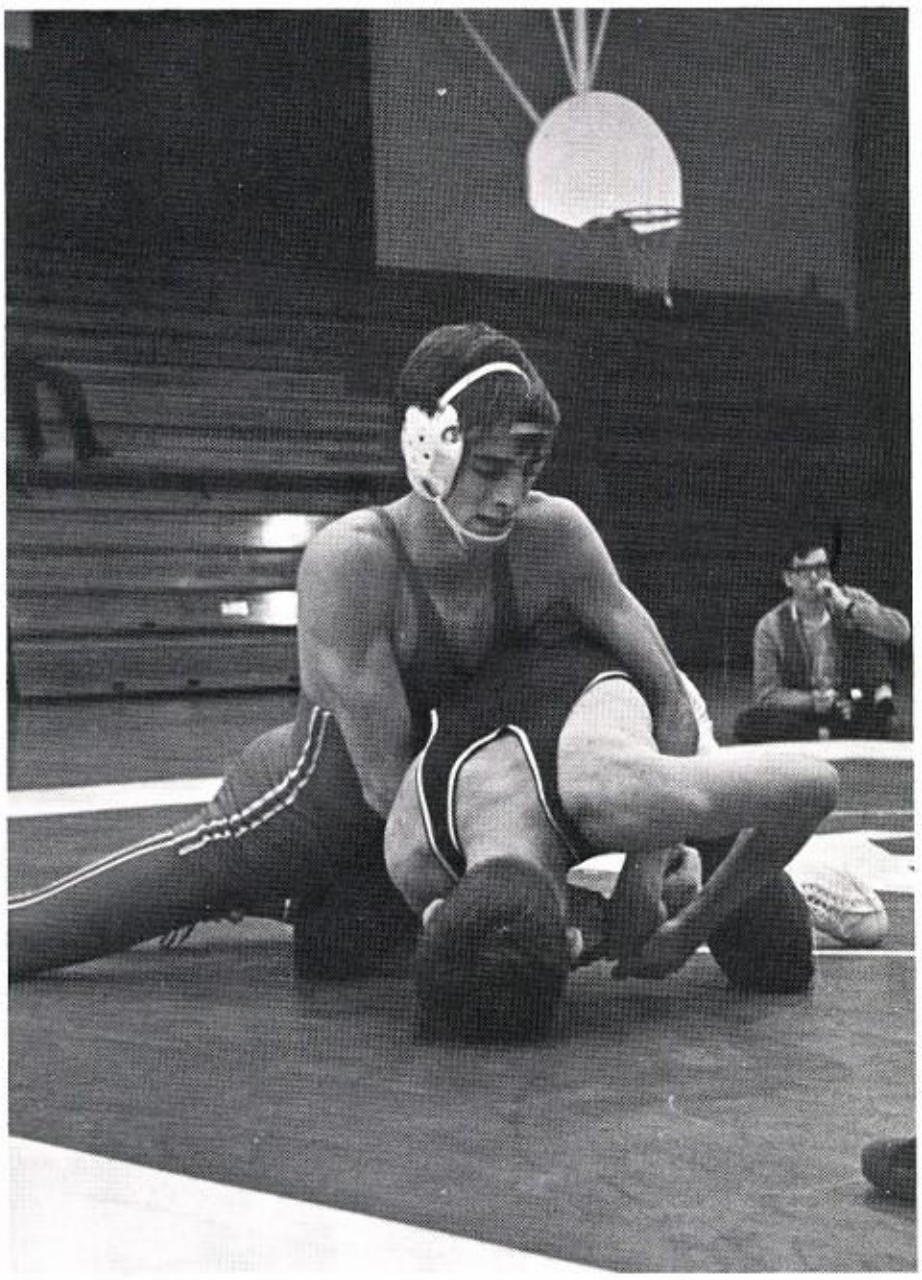
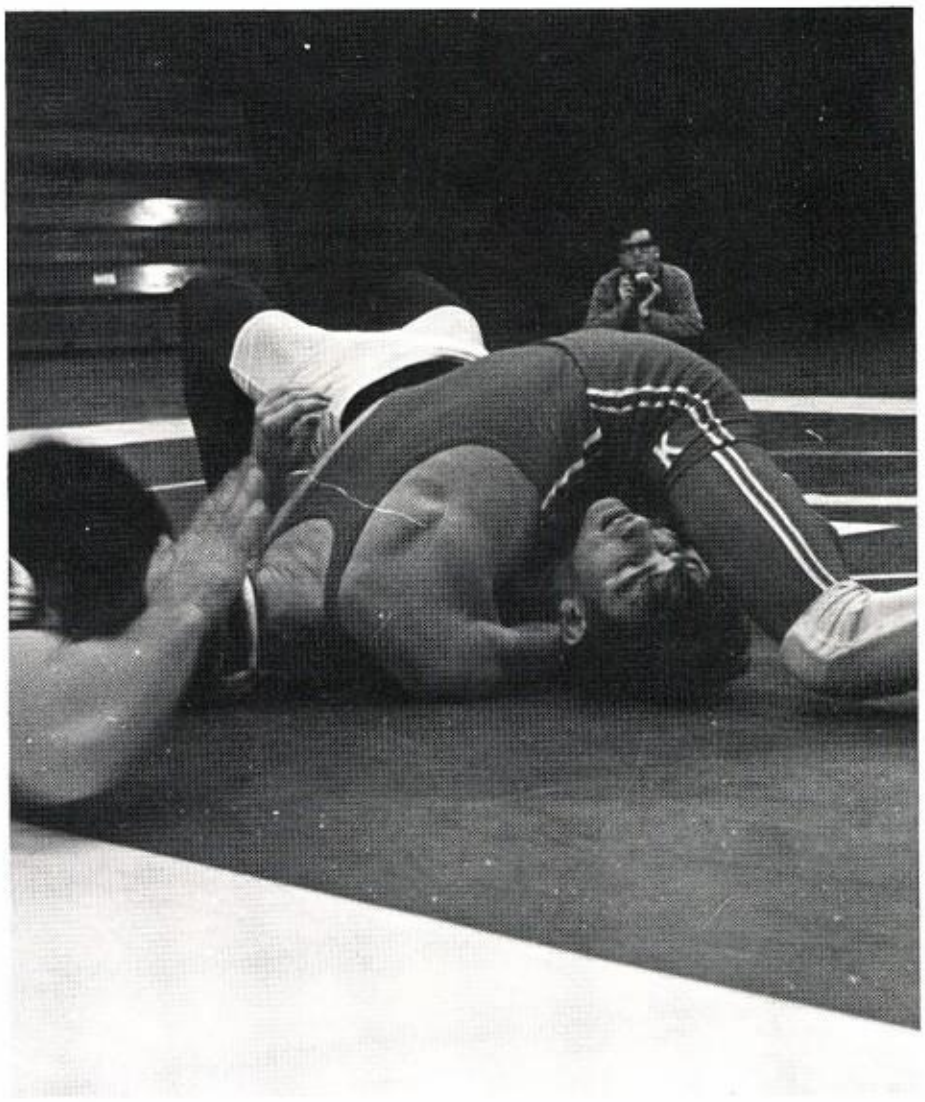
Drive And Determination

were the key factors in the Wrestling Comets successful season. Led by Senior Denny Krafft, the grapplers opened the season with flying colors by defeating Broken Arrow 26-18 and Bartlesville College 38-6. The next foe for the Comets was top ranked Perry in one of the most important dual matches of the season. Spiced by many questionable calls, the match ended up as a Kelley loss 22-20. But this loss made the Comets all the more determined and they came back to defeat Central 22-21 and win the Edison tournament title. The team was notably weak in the lower weights and notably strong in the upper and middle weights. The unorthodox style of Tim Wilson, the sit out of Steve Morelli, and the fireman's carry of Ray O'Brien provided the early victories that gave use to the final rallies of Joe Eastman and Rocky Zabel. Aided by Juniors Greg Wheeler and Mike Gilpin, this fine tournament team won the Conference Championship. An 8-2 dual record and three tournament victories, as impressive as they are, serve as only a minute indication of the spirit and ability of the Kelley Wrestling team.







Tim Wilson (upper left) rides Joplin opponent with a double bar arm enroute to an easy victory. Greg Wheeler (top right) held his man on the mat with a half-nelson and body press before working it into a double-double for the fall. (side) Steve Morelli takes advantage of a mistake by Missouri's Mike Carter to slap on a cradle and get a pin as the Comets defeated Joplin Parkwood 38-3.

describes this year's baseballers. With only four seniors out for the team, Coach Crosby was forced to play his underclassmen. The season began with a 2-1 victory over Holland Hall and then disaster struck with the Comets losing six of the next seven games. Things brightened at this point with an 11-3 victory over Cascia Hall, which gave the Comets the impetus to sweep double-headers from Pryor and Miami, both Conference members, and to defeat State-ranked Sand Springs 1-0 for another Conference win. With the pitching of Jack Hail, and all-around capabilities of all-State candidate Steve Clancy, the Comets finished out the Conference schedule with only three losses, giving them a second place finish. In the opening round of the regional playoffs, the baseballers defeated Claremore 9-2 to obtain the right to play Webster in the semifinal round. A late rally put the Comets ahead but a later rally tied the score and forced the game into extra innings, in which Webster took advantage of errors to end the Comet season with an 11-10 record.

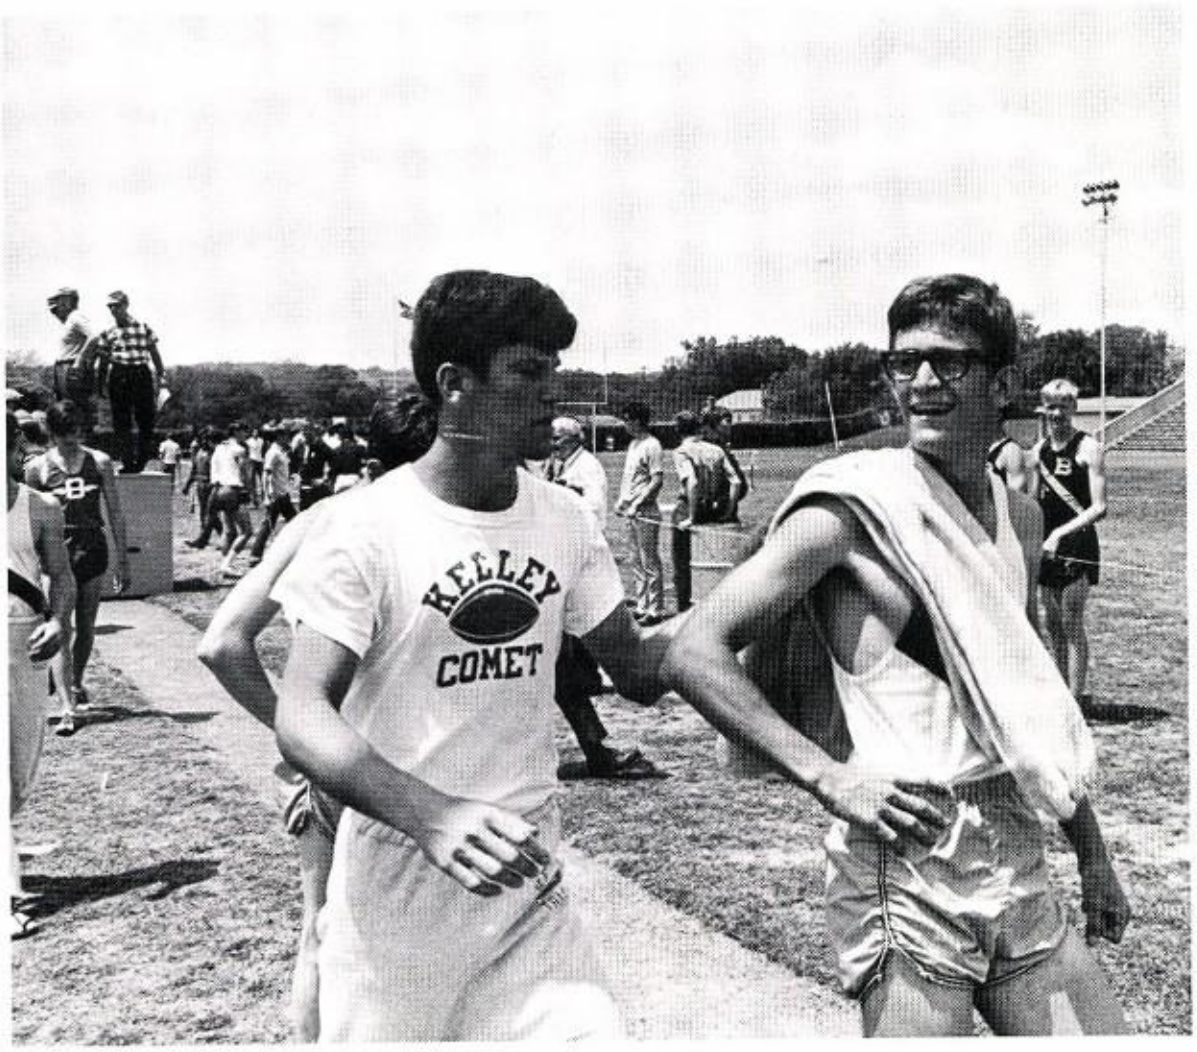
weak in the sprints and field events, the Comets relied heavily on the distance men for points. Inexperience forced the thinclads to use Juniors and Sophomores, who should produce next year: Jon Anthony in the discus, Greg Madden, Tex Reames and Pat Connelly in the hurdles, pole vault and open 440. The 440 and mile relay teams performed admirably finishing fourth and second respectively in regionals.

Dennis Duffy, Most Valuable Trackman, finished fourth in the 880 at state, setting a school record of 1:59:3. He finished eighth in the mile, with Joe Lepley finishing fifth at state in the 880. Marshall Brantmeier finished fourth in the 2 mile at state in 10:11. Kevin Finan, Junior, finished eighth and should be looked for next year.

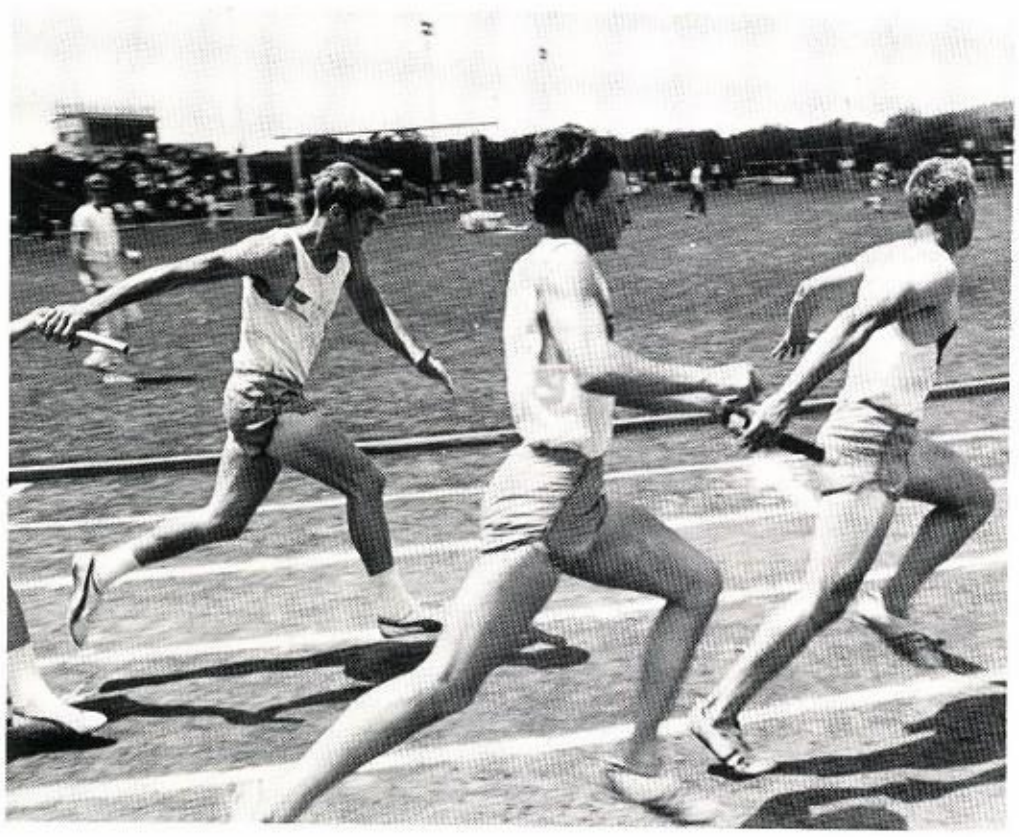
David Campbell never really got going in track this year until state where he ran a 4:29 setting a school record. Kelley finished eighth at state.

Coach Heckenkemper, pleased with some performances, disappointed with others, should look forward to next year with mixed emotions.



Greg Madden (top left) gets mentally ready for pole vault competition as Jim Lepley congratulates his brother Joe on setting a school record in the half-mile at regionals. This record was broken a week later by Dennis Duffy at the state meet.

ROW 1: C. Vargus, D. Bryce, G. Chambers, D. Towner, M. Brantmeier, D.Duffy, J. Lepley, B. Ward, G. Madden, J. Lepley. ROW 2: B. O'Donnell, K. Finan, D. Krafft, D. Campbell, P. Connelly, J. Nichol, T. Shanahan, J. Eastman, E. Claybaugh, Coach Charles Dreas.



'69 Tennis Team

with victories over Central, Cascia Hall, and Washington High School finished with a very respectable 3-7 dual record.

The five inexperienced underclassmen helped take up the slack to handle the tough Comet schedule. The underclassmen have left a great many impressions of what is to come.

Player Coach Tom Wilson, who happened to be the stalwart of the team, sacrificed his own game in order to teach the underclassmen the finer points of the game.

The efforts of the tennis team are to be commended by all students. Traditionally without student support, the members of this year's team were determined to be winners. Without the assistance of an adult coach, there was no playing around and always an air of determination. With this attitude, the future seems very bright.

The netmen should receive the greatest of praise for the work they put into this year's team.

To Provide

a high level of spirit at Kelley, Pep Club members attend most games and matches. They promote upcoming games by painting signs and holding rallies. Many Kelley athletes have expressed their appreciation for the efforts of the Pep Club members.

The Pep Club has sponsored all of the Homecoming Dances this year. The officers of the Pep Club are: Marie Hogsett, President; Mary Pat McDowell, Secretary; Lisa Flusche, Vice-President; Janis Holland, Treasurer; Marion Dutton, Historian.

The Pep Club is to be congratulated for the fine vocal support they have given the athletic organizations this year.

The 1968-69 Pep Club officers are: Marion Dutton, historian; Janis Holland, treasurer; Mary Pat McDowell, secretary; Lisa Flusche, vice-president; Marie Hogsett, president.

This Year Proved to be a very successful one for our service clubs. The first big project for the Key Club was the sponsoring of College Night. The Key Club aided in the March of Dimes drive. Spring brought projects such as campus clean-ups, and the Honors Convocation. The Anchor Club aided teachers with secretarial and library services.

The officers of the Key Club are: Jim Lepley, president; Robert Hayes, vice-president; Tom Zizzi, secretary; Jim Bullock, treasurer; Brother Leonard, sponsor. The 1969 Sweetheart is Christy Kingdom.

The officers of the Anchor Club are: Linda Parker, president; Ann Bauer, vice-president; Suzi Moran, secretary; Hebe Murray, treasurer. Sister Alma Rose, sponsor.

Capturing

many awards at TU Press Day, the Bishop Kelley Crosier again proves itself to be a first rate newspaper. Under the able direction of Mrs. Hope Self, sponsor, the Crosier staff received numerous first and second place awards for their efforts. Mark Freeman, editor, and his co-workers work many long hours to produce the Crosier.

This year's yearbook makes many changes in style and format. Under the direction of Deborah Kratzer and Brother Patrick O'Brien, the size is increased to 9x12 and many color shots are added. A novel ad section, with the ads in the middle of the book, is introduced for the first time in Tulsa. The staff dwindled as the year progressed; but a small group of determined Seniors and Juniors produced a superior Crest.

Diversity Has Come to this year's Drama Club. The season started with the club bringing in a company from San Antonio to perform Noel Coward's Blithe Spirit. The play was well received and the audience was very appreciative of Kelley's new Arena Theater. As a part of its continuing education program, the Drama Club this year provides every member with the opportunity to see the Tulsa Little Theater productions.

The major work of the Drama Club this year was the presentation of Thorton Wilder's American classic, Our Town. Club members received experience not only in acting, but also in the many phases of production from costumes to lighting. Most of all, members learned to work together, to produce something that all are proud of.

Officers in this year's club are: Lynne Somers, president; Susan Kimbrough, vice-president; Chris Henderson, secretary-treasurer; and Patty Campbell, historian. Sister Rachel Ann is the club's sponsor.

Efficiency

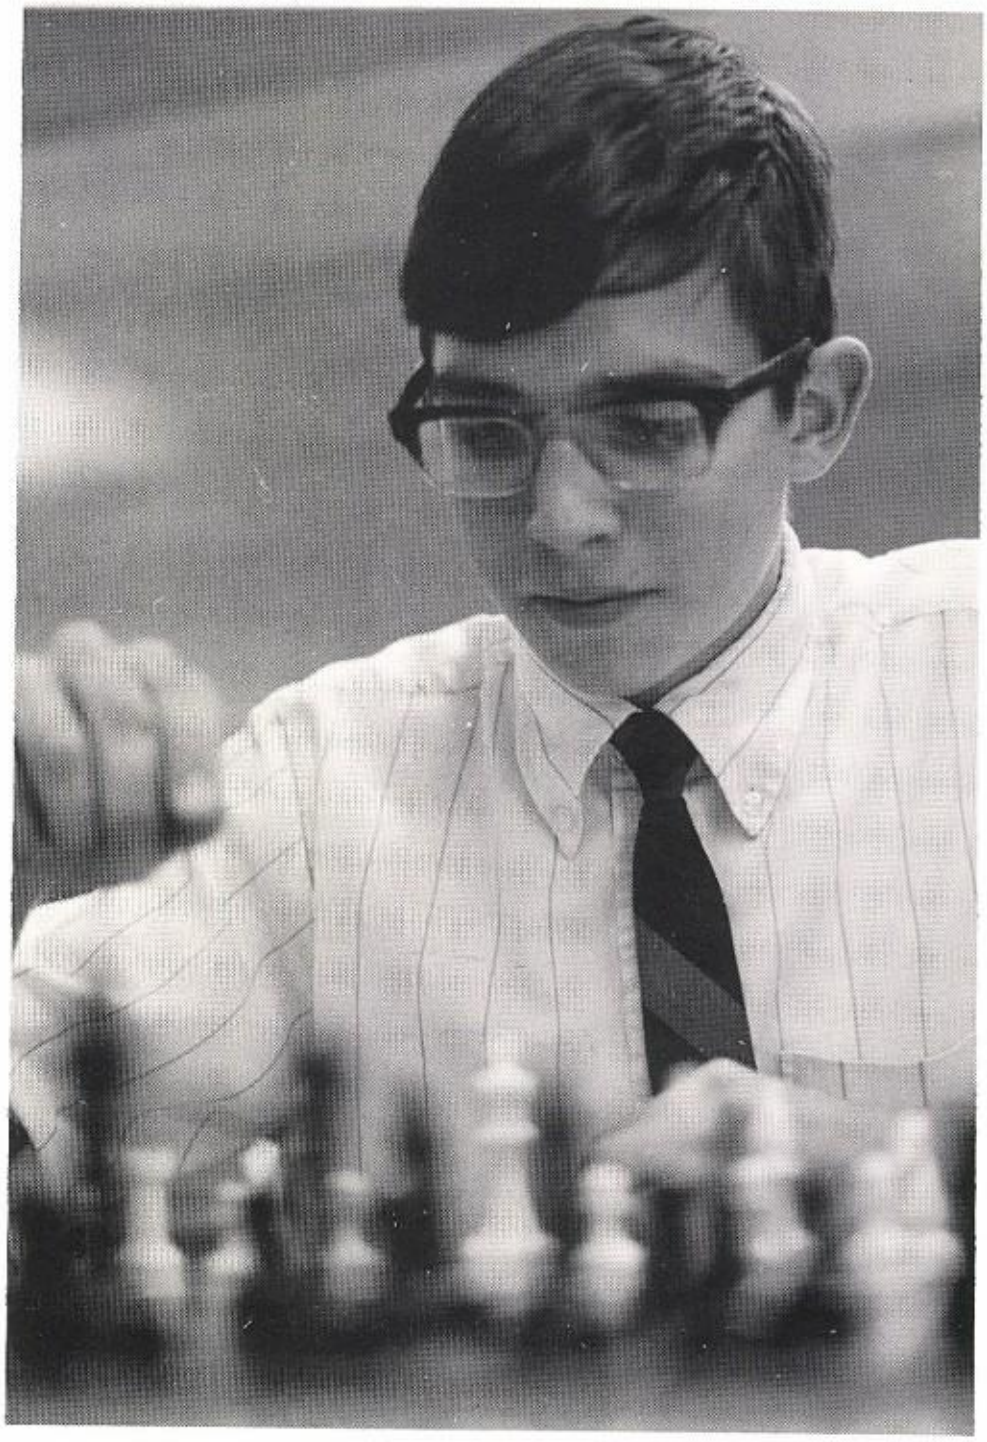
and quick friendly service are the aims of this year's Library Club. Guided by Sister Casilda, the members strive to aid all those desiring help in the Bishop Kelley Library. Officers for 1968-69 are Chris Henderson, acting president; Belinda Frommel, secretary; Mark Cohen, treasurer; and Tim Hackett, historian.

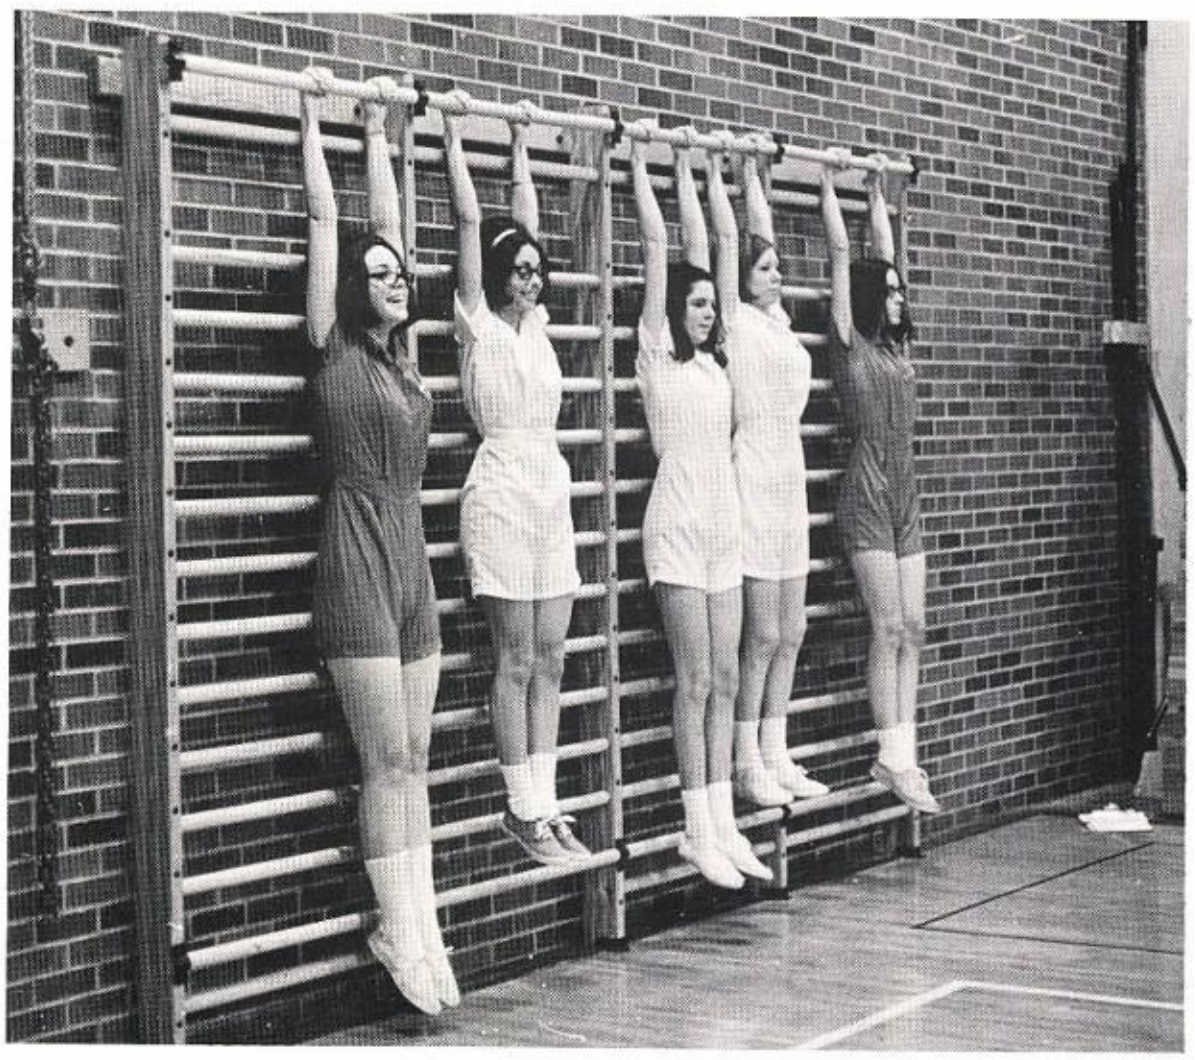
This Year's

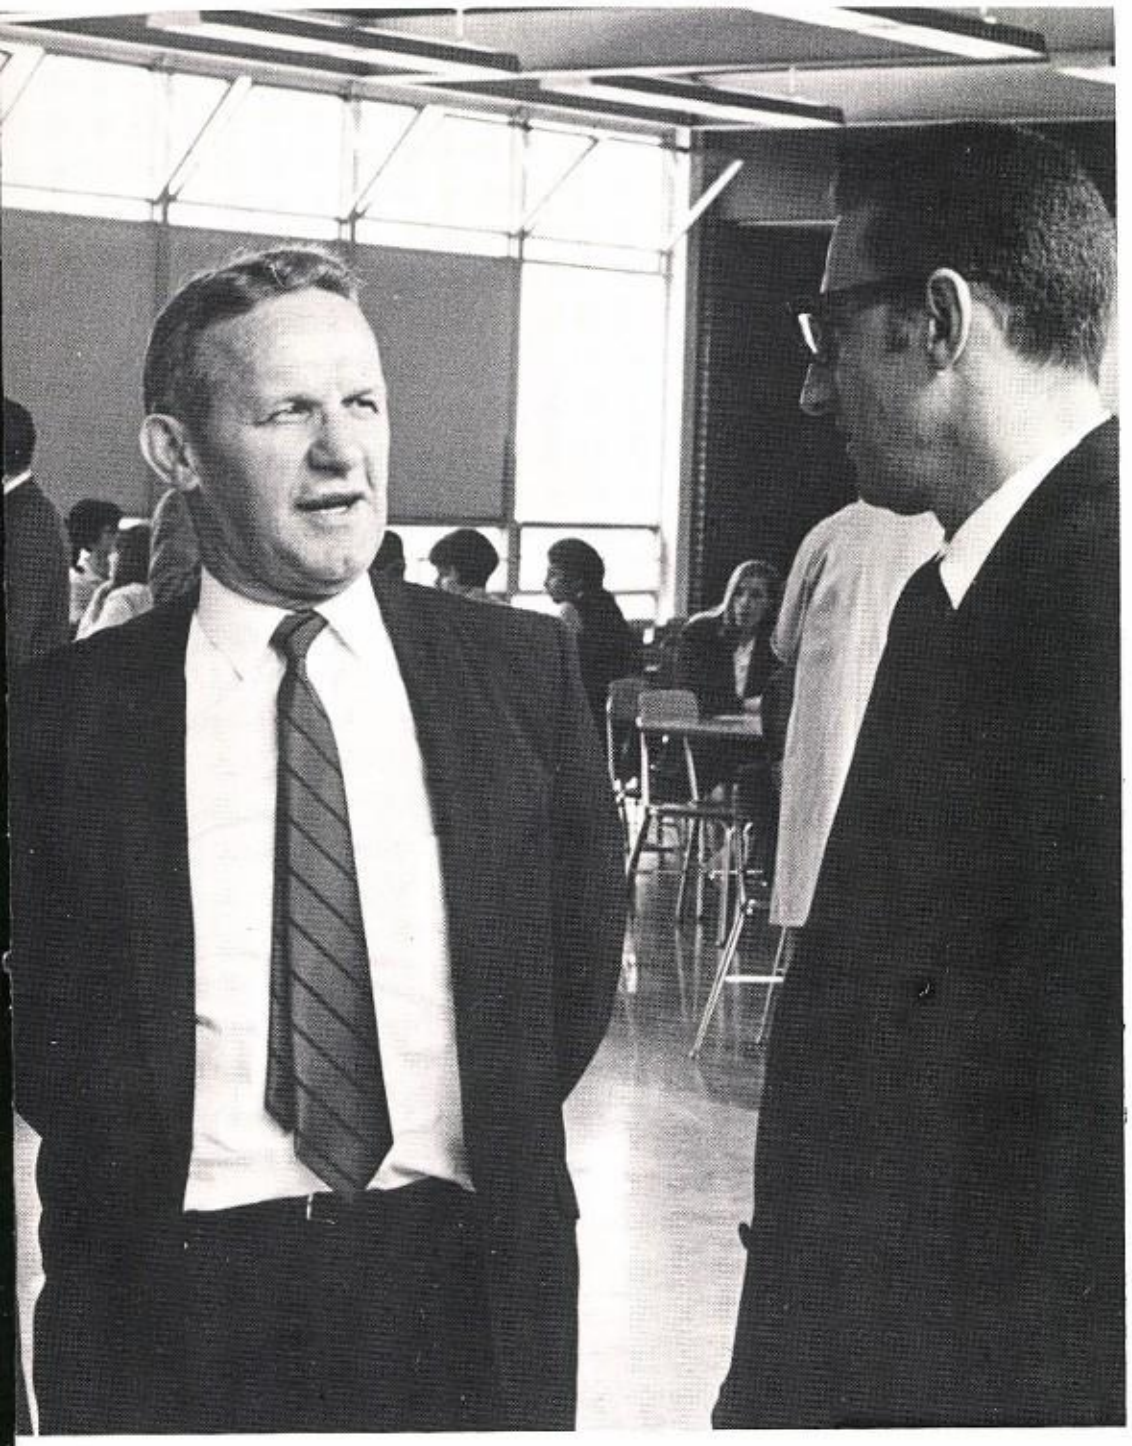
Chess Club proved to be a year of growing. The club increased from last year's 6 members to an enrollment of 15 members this year. The fall season's record proved less than successful but president Joe Bauner hopes for more interested players next year. Other officers were vice-president, Ada Ann Rhodes; secretary, Sandra Styve; treasurer, Becky Bruner.

G.R.A. is the Girls' Recreation Association. The purpose of the organization is to provide the members with the opportunity to compete in athletics and instill in them a good competitive spirit. The girls not only compete among themselves but they also have several rivalries going with other schools.

The 1968-69 officers are president, Pat Soerries; vice-president, Susan Sellers; treasurer, Kitty O'Brien; and secretary, Mary Morelli; moderator, Mrs. Kate Cushing.







Tireless Efforts

and invaluable services were rendered by this year's Booster Club and Kelley Mothers' Club.

A fall dance sponsored by the Clubs' helped finance the school bus, and resulted in the purchase of the weight machine. Kelley Circle Scholarships and monetary gifts to the school for office equipment and the library were made possible by the Rummage Sale and annual card party.

Mr. Steven Morelli is the president of the Booster Club. Mrs. Mary Moran is the president of the Kelley Mothers' Club.

IN MEMORIAM

MICHAEL MASTERSON

August 6, 1952
October 22, 1968

There is a flicker in the eyes of a new-born child that touches the heart of all those who gaze upon it. And if the child learns to live, the flicker becomes a flame, then a warm bright fire.

When death seems to have smothered that flame, and the name that it belonged to is carved on cold stone; speak but to one person who loved that child and look into his eyes. You will see a reflection of the child's flame in those eyes.

For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt in the sun?
And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?
Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing.
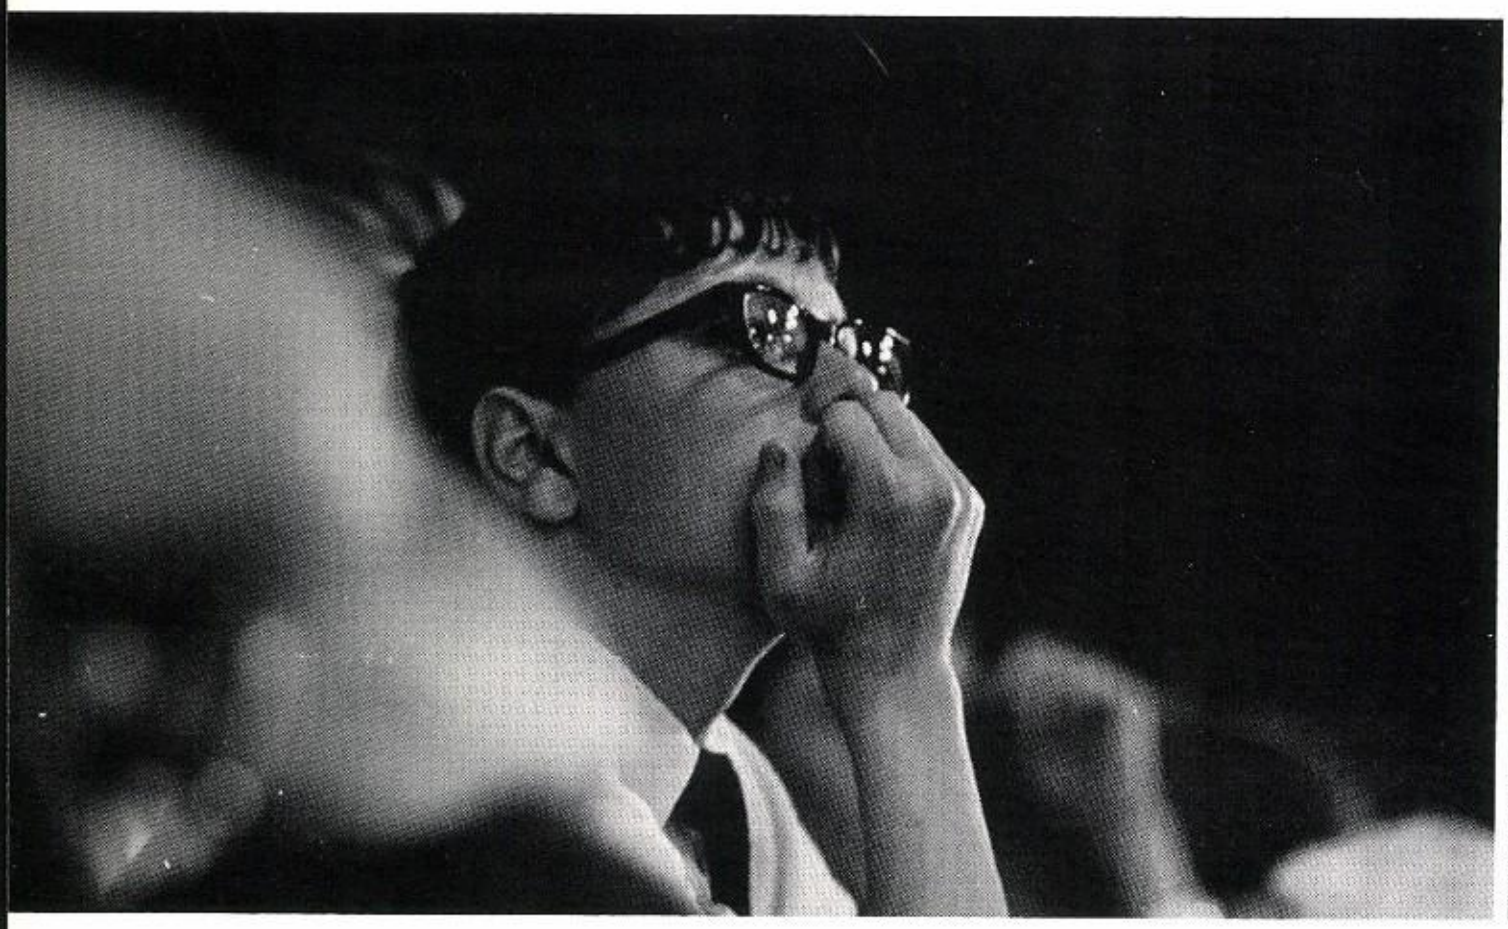
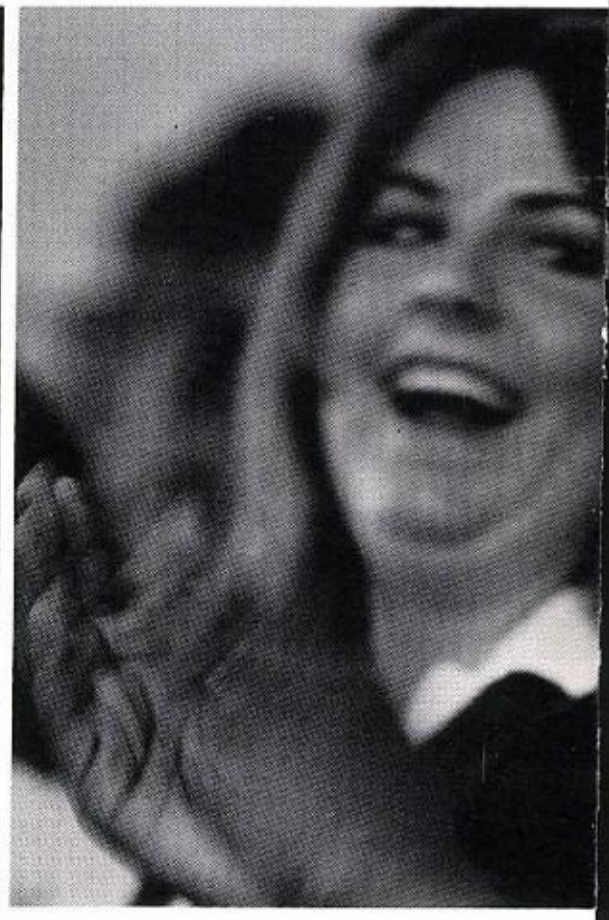
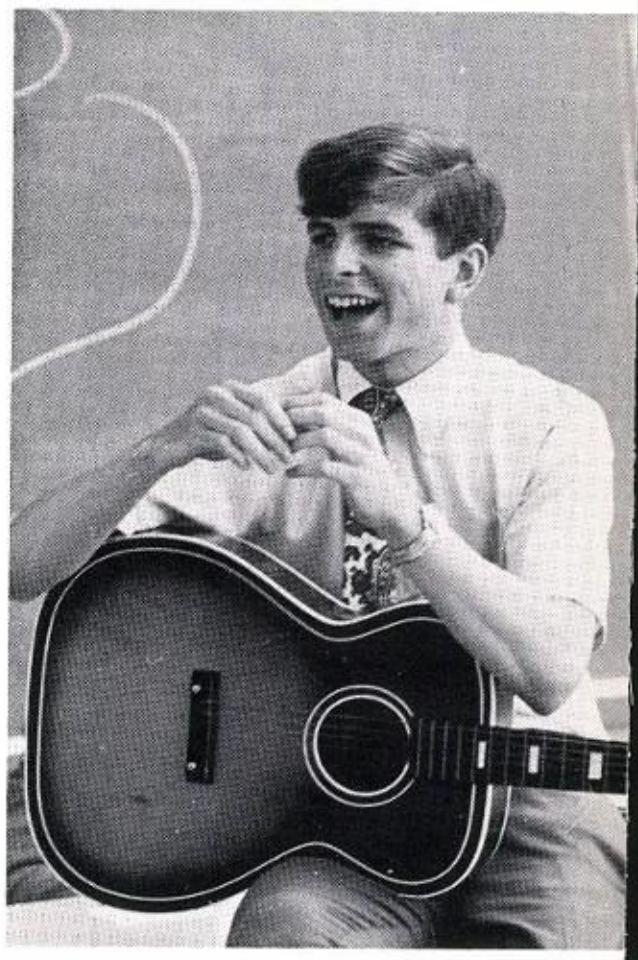
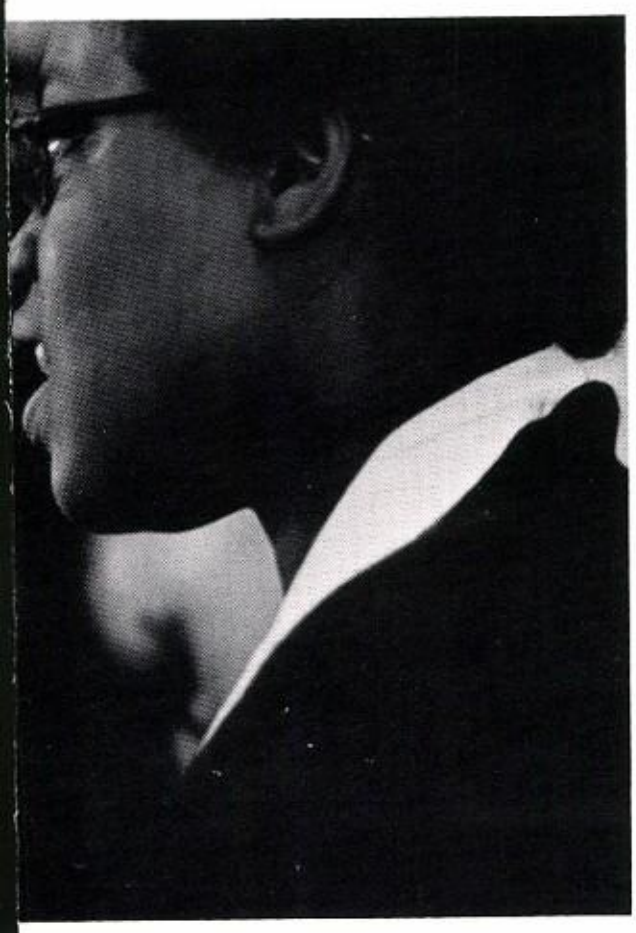
And when you have reached the mountaintop,
then you shall begin to climb.
And when the earth shall claim your limbs,
then shall you truly dance.

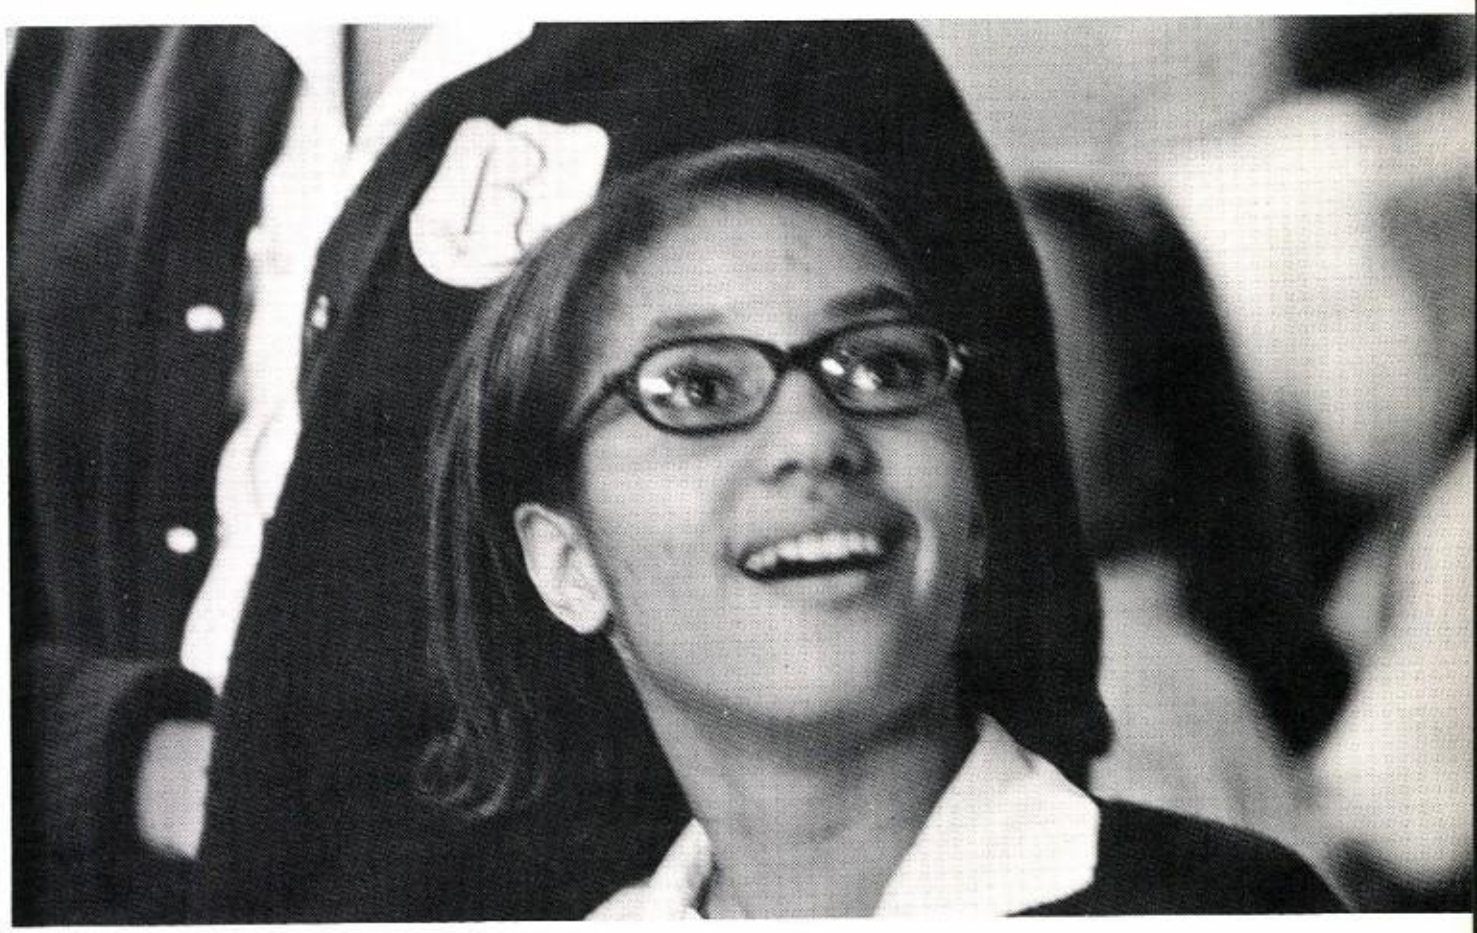
Kahlil Gibran





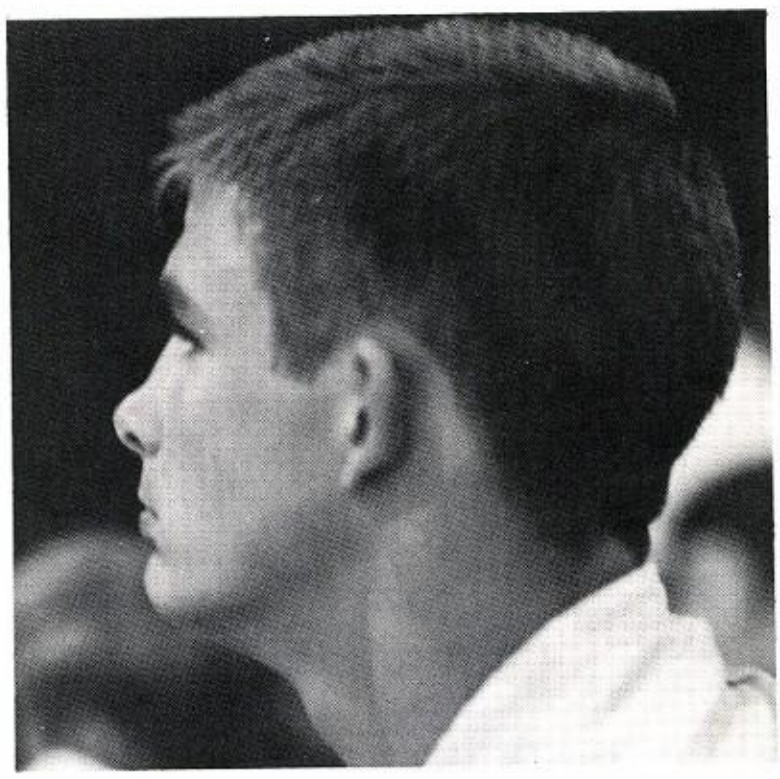






I believe that man is immortal, not because he alone among creatures has an inexhaustible voice, but because he has a soul, a spirit capable of compassion and sacrifice and endurance. The poet's, the writer's duty is to write about these things. It is his privilege to help man endure by lifting his heart, by reminding him of the courage and honor and hope and pride and compassion and pity and sacrifice which have been the glory of his past.

William Faulkner
Nobel Prize Speech



Traditionally, yearbooks have been a picture essay; this year we have striven to make it more than just that. We have conveyed a particular message and proudly presented a new trend in yearbooks. The message of the "New Age" is expressed through writing as well as through pictures. The book might most aptly be called, The Voice of the Unheard Kelleyites, those of us who have never had or never took the opportunity to speak out and say how we feel.

Brother O'Brien had trust in a few of us like no one had ever had before, and as far as I am concerned we did not fail him. The book is now in your hands and you must decide if we have succeeded. I only ask that you do not challenge the book because it is not like past yearbooks, but that you look at it with an open mind and in light of the message we have conveyed.

I would sincerely like to thank Brother Patrick O'Brien and Mr. George Smith for the many things that they have taught me. I will be forever reaping the benefits of their ideas, patience, and hard work.

At this time I would also like to thank the staff members who worked so diligently throughout the year. Particularly, I wish to thank those that helped us finish the book. Thanks also, to the faculty members and many other people that gave us their moral support, for this is just as important.

In closing, I would just like to say that I sincerely appreciate the opportunity given me to work on the Crest. The 1968-69 school year was truly the best of my four years at Kelley, and it will always be one of my most cherished memories.
